PASSES 23,000 MARK

Total Number of Registered Voters Climbs Steadily.

BOOKS TO CLOSE APRIL 7

Only Two Weeks Remain in Which to Get Names on Rolls—Voters to Receive Copies of Initiative Petitions by Mail.

Registration of voters went over the 23,000 mark yesterday, 392 placing their names on the books before 5 o'clock. Three hundred and four of these were Republicans, 69 Democrats and 19 miscellaneous. The number was considerably increased before the books closed at 9 o'clock last night.

Registration from the East Side has not been as heavy the past week compared with the West Side, as it was formerly. The West Side had 8702 voters registered Saturday night, while the East Side had 11,797. The total was 22,925, including the 2426 who live outside the city limits.

County Clerk Fields said yesterday that as notaries may register those voters who live without the city limits, there is no necessity for St. John citizens coming to Portland to register. Blanks are furnished the notaries, and these are mailed by them to the County Clerk's office, where the names are placed in the registration books.

Only two weeks remain in which voters may register. All registered voters are to receive from Secretary of State Benson copies of initiative petitions which are to be voted on at the coming election, as well as other literature of value. These petitions were printed March 2, and will be mailed by April 7.

Next Friday, March 27, is the last day when petitions may be filed requesting names to be placed on the primary election ballot for state and district offices.

April 1 is the last day when petitions can be filed requesting names of candidates for county offices to be placed on the primary ballot.

April 17 is the last day when conventions or assemblies may file nominations for state and district offices.

May 2 is the last day when individual electors may file such nominations. Conventions or assemblies cannot file nominations for county offices after this date.

May 16 is the last day when individual electors may file nominations for county offices.

The registration up to Saturday night was as follows:

TIMES GOOD IN MANITOBA

President of Winnipeg Board of Trade Gives Interview.

John B. Persse, president of the Winnipeg, Manitoba, Board of Trade, spent yesterday in Portland, the guest of William Harder, general agent for the Great Northern Railway. Mr. Persse is accompanied by his daughter on his trip to the Coast.

"Business is getting back to normal with us in Winnipeg," said Mr. Persse, "after the depression of last Winter, and conditions are perhaps better than we expected they would be so early in the season. We have come out of the financial stringency very well. There is a heavy movement of immigrants into the Canadian Northwest at this time, and we look for a very large movement during the Spring and Summer.

"Last year there was an influx of 55,000 Americans into the provinces of the Canadian Northwest. All were very desirable settlers, too, for they came mostly from the Middle West. Farmers of Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and other states of that district, are selling their farms, which bring as high as $200 an acre, and are moving into the Canadian wheat country, where they buy farm lands for $10 and $20 an acre, and raise wheat.

"Northwestern Canada is a new country, but it has a splendid future, and its possibilities are hardly realized as yet. Much of the country is hardly explored, but it is known that the far Northern portions of Canada will become a great farming country within the next few years."

PLAN TOO EXTRAVAGANT

Rev. H. C. Shaffer Objects to $2 Missionary Dinner.

The United Brethren Church and its pastor, Rev. H. C. Shaffer, are not in favor of the proposed $2 missionary banquet at the Portland Hotel. At the morning service at this church last Sunday, Mr. Shaffer spoke of this banquet and gave it as his judgment that it was not well advised and ought not to be held. He said among other things that the $600 that would be spent at the banquet would support a missionary for one year in the field.

"We are complaining now because the laboring men do not come into the churches," said Mr. Shaffer, "and yet it is proposed to give an expensive banquet in a big hotel, where the ordinary workingman cannot go on account of the cost. I think it wrong to hold such an affair."

Mr. Shaffer said yesterday that the members of his church generally are opposed to the missionary banquet, for these reasons. He said further that he had talked with the pastors of some of the smaller churches, and found that they are not in favor of such a banquet and may say so in public.

DAILY METEOROLOGICAL REPORT.

PORTLAND, March 23.—Maximum temperature, 66 degrees; minimum, 49. River reading at 8 A. M., 7.9 feet; change in last 24 hours, fall 1.2 feet. Total rainfall, 5 P. M. to 5 P. M., nil; total rainfall since September 1, 1907, 29.49 inches; normal rainfall since September 1, 1907, 35.44 inches; deficiency, 5.95 inches. Total sunshine March 22, 1908, 6 hours; possible sunshine March 22, 1908, 12 hours 18 minutes. Barometer, reduced to sea level, at 5 P. M., 30 inches.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure has fallen over the entire Pacific Coast due to the development of the low area noted this morning over British Columbia. Brisk to high southwesterly winds prevailed along the coast, and fresh to brisk winds in the interior. Moderate rains fell over Western Washington during the day, but elsewhere no precipitation occurred, though cloudy and threatening weather was the rule. Excepting over Northern Montana, where there was a marked fall in temperature, and over Utah, where a corresponding rise occurred, the thermal changes were unimportant.

The indications point to showers Tuesday.

FORECASTS.

ON SALEM ELECTRIC LINE

We have some choice acreage for sale, four-fifths under cultivation, 8½ miles from Portland, 35 minutes' car ride to city; Southern Pacific is also building through this tract.

If you want to double or treble your money, investigate this; no land around Portland has a better chance to increase in value; every acre will sell for $300 or more within 3 months; price now, $175 per acre, easy terms. Prices will be increased shortly.

For a suburban home with sufficient ground for berries, garden truck or poultry, this cannot be equaled. Acreage same distance out on any other electric line sells for $600. Now is the time to get in on the ground floor, while you can have your choice and prices are low.

80,000 ACRES CHOICE CAREY LANDS ON BIG LOST RIVER, IDAHO.

Sugar Beets. Alfalfa. Fruit. Grain.

Almost the entire tract is practically level, with just slant enough to irrigate nicely. No alkali. Mines, smelters and quartz mills in mineral regions adjacent. Three beet sugar factories operating in Bingham and Fremont counties, in which a large portion of this tract is situated. Market facilities unexcelled. This tract is also bordered by one of the most extensive stock ranges in Idaho. The Oregon Short Line Railway is already in operation across this tract and three proposed railroads will also pass over the same. Purchase tickets to Powell Station, on Oregon Short Line Railroad. Price, $30.50 per acre; $3.25 per acre in advance, balance in 10 annual installments, 6 per cent interest on deferred payments.
