SHAKEUP IN FORCE

New York's Police Graft Is Furnishing Sensations.

JEROME TO PROBE CHARGES

Police Commissioner Bingham Asks Him to Investigate Gambling Disclosures, Promising Co-operation—Detectives Transferred.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Police Commissioner Bingham has asked District Attorney Jerome to make an investigation into the gambling disclosures which resulted in a shakeup in the police department early Sunday morning. In his letter to the District Attorney the Commissioner said:

"As you also are probably aware, the gambling disclosures in the Sunday edition of a prominent New York newspaper are probably true. I have the honor to request you to undertake a prompt and searching investigation with a view this time, of sending some one to jail, and also for the purpose of furnishing me with evidence, if it can be got, against those members of the police force who are implicated.

"Certain persons were sent for and questioned during the night of March 21-22. A transcript of the stenographic notes taken will be furnished if you wish it, and the police department will cooperate fully.

Without making any other comment than that the reasons were 'obvious,' into today Police Commissioner Bingham transferred 23 plain-clothes detectives who were under command of ex-inspector O'Connor in the third inspection district, which included the precincts where the alleged gambling houses were established and where the detectives are alleged to have been in collusion with the gamblers.

MRS. HARRIMAN COMING

Wife of Railroad Magnate to Spend Summer at Pelican Bay.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., March 23.—(Special).—Mrs. E. H. Harriman, wife of the railroad magnate, will spend a portion of the coming summer season at Pelican Bay Lodge, with the children of the family accompanying, and the party will enjoy the matchless fishing of Klamath lake here, scenery and Crater Lake while here.

It is understood that improvements will be made at Pelican Bay during the early part of the summer to make the place more comfortable, but without detracting from its charm of natural forest, sequestered nooks undisturbed by hunter or fishermen, except the guests of the owners of the splendid upper lake property, where it is probable will be established one of the finest private fishing and game preserves in the Pacific Coast States.

MOTHER DESERTS BABY

Unable to Support Child She Leaves Infant to Others' Care.

ASTORIA, Or., March 23.—(Special).—A case of a mother deserting her infant daughter because she was unable to properly support the child has come to light in Astoria. While the act was committed on Friday night, the circumstances were not made public until yesterday. Shortly before midnight on Friday J. Hansen, who conducts a Finnish boarding house in the west end of the city, was awakened by a baby crying, and upon investigation was surprised to find a girl baby, apparently about eight weeks old, on the floor in the hall outside his door.

The child was neatly and cleanly dressed and beside it was a small bundle of clothing, to which was attached a note addressed to Mrs. Hansen and stating that as the mother was comelled to work for a living, she could not support the child properly, and so brought it where she was certain it would have a good home.

The letter was unsigned and no one knows who the mother is, although she was seen on the street by several people as she was taking the child to the Hansen home. Shortly after the Portland train arrived on Friday night a young woman with a child in her arms secured a room at a local lodging-house, but did not register. She went to her room, but left it almost immediately and must have proceeded at once to the Hansen home, as she was seen by a policeman returning empty-handed. She did not go back to the lodging-house, and what became of her is not known.

The baby, which is a bright, healthy child, has been adopted by a young married couple in Uniontown and will be reared as their own.

Mr. Healey declares that Ruef's offenses are not less heinous than those of New York's former boss.

FORD TRIAL ON MARCH 26

Judge Lawlor Sets Date for Appearance of United Railroads Counsel.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Judge Lawlor today set next Thursday, March 26, as the date for beginning the trial of T. L. Ford, chief counsel for the United Railroads, for the alleged bribery of ex-Superintendent T. C. Coleman. The date is subject to modification, as Attorney Moore was given time in which to examine the court records to determine if he has any grounds for previously promised to try First President Calhoun, of the railroad company, on a similar charge.

When the case of the Parkdale trolley line promoters, indicted for attempted bribery, came up before Judge Dunne today, Assistant District Attorney Healey asked that it go over until March 29 to be set. Attorney Fairall, on behalf of Abe Ruef, objected that his client had not been arraigned, but Judge Dunne put the case over.

TILT IN THE HOUSE

Sulzer Calls Mann Various Unpleasant Epithets.

TROUBLE OVER SPEECH

Mann Accuses Sulzer of Having Printed in Record One He Did Not Deliver—Senator Bryan's Death—Fifth in Session.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—A scene somewhat out of the ordinary was enacted in the House of Representatives today, because of a charge made by Mann, of Illinois, that Sulzer, of New York, had put into the Congressional Record what purported to be a speech delivered by him last Saturday, but which Mann charged was not the one delivered.

All had to do with Sulzer's claim that he, and not Mann, was the author of the legislation which brought the Department of Commerce and Labor into being.

A resolution offered by Mann to expunge the printed speech from the Record was adopted by a strict party vote, but not until after the House had been treated to a bitter denunciation of Mann by Sulzer and several lively tilts had occurred between the latter and the Speaker.

Sulzer Calls Names.

Sulzer characterized Mann as a "pettifogging lawyer, mean and contemptible," for which he was called to order by the Speaker, with the admonition that such language could not be used toward a member. Twice afterward, in seeking to justify his claim of authorship, he was interrupted by the Speaker with a similar warning. Anticipating that his speech would be ruled against, and for the purpose of getting it back into the Record, Sulzer resorted to a piece of strategy by trying to have the speech read and later endeavoring to read it himself, but the Speaker insisted that he could only address himself to the resolution to expunge.

Sulzer Tries to Obstruct.

Smarting under the action of the Republicans, Sulzer for the first time posed as an obstructionist. He objected to an unanimous consent proposition and halted the proceedings of the House for a considerable time by a point of no quorum. After passing a number of measures relating to the District of Columbia, among them an amendment prohibiting betting on horse races at Benning's track, the House adjourned out of respect to the late Senator Bryan.

The Senate today for the fifth time in the present session adjourned because death had robbed the body of one of its members. The untimely death of Senator Bryan, who was familiarly known as the "Baby" of the Senate, a title which he took pride in, came home to the Senators with more force than any which had preceded it. There was no other subject of conversation prior to and after the session than the fact that the mortality record of the present session is greater than in any previous entire Congress.

A letter addressed to Speaker Cannon from Representative Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, tendering his resignation as a member of Congress, to take effect September 30, next, was read.

HINDUS HINT AT TROUBLE

English Subjects at Vancouver Send Cable to Home Secretary

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 23.—Two meetings of the Hindus, of Vancouver, and vicinity were held in the city today, the last assembling in the Sikh temple. At both meetings the theme of discussion was the recent order of deportation issued against 12 Hindus by virtue of the working of the Dominion order in council, forbidding the landing of immigrants coming from other lands than that of their birth or naturalization. The addresses of the various speakers were earnestly delivered, and there seemed to be one mind at both meetings concerning the action.

The normal action of the gatherings was an authorization to the leaders to send the following cablegram to the Imperial authorities:
