

FORTY ONE ARE IN SUSPENDED LIST

Student Affairs Committee at Stanford Makes Its Report.

MANY OTHERS PENALIZED

Added Graduation Requirements Imposed on More Than 150 First and Second-Year Students.

Discrimination Cry Raised.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., March 25.—Chairman Clark this afternoon announced the action of the student affairs committee regarding the students who participated in the recent disorderly parade on the campus.

The action of the student affairs committee has complicated the situation in most beyond comprehension. Seven of the original 12 are still suspended, 34 more were added, and a penalty of added graduation requirements was imposed on over 150 while more than 90 who were also participants in the parade have suffered no penalty.

BIG GUNS BOOM ALL DAY

Target Practice at Magdalena Bay Ave-Inspiring Sight.

MAGDALENA BAY, Lower California, March 25.—The target practice at Magdalena Bay Sunday was not a day of the Atlantic fleet. All day long, from early in the morning to dusk, the big guns boomed on the target ranges.

Four regulation target ranges have been laid out and a battleship is busy on each. They are somewhat closer together, although far enough distant not to be disturbing to each other.

KILLS A BAD MAN

W. H. Carter, Calls Gunfighter's Bluff in Nevada.

TRAGEDY AT WINNEMUCCA

W. F. Armstrong Slain by Manager of Saloon and Gambling-House.

Oldtime Frontiersman.

RENO, Nev., March 25.—A special to the Journal from Winnemucca says: "W. F. Armstrong, so-called 'bad man' from Wyoming, was shot and killed in the Palace saloon in this place by W. H. Carter, one of the managers. Eyewitnesses say the shooting was in self-defense.

William H. Carter, who is mentioned in the foregoing dispatch, is one of the most widely known saloonmen in the West, and claims Southern Oregon as his home. During the days of open saloons he was one of the proprietors of the Totem saloon and gambling houses in Seattle, one of the largest places of the kind on the Coast.

Good Results Expected. Great results are anticipated from the present practice. The men are trained to the minute, the long cruise having been well occupied in this way.

Carries Mail to Fleet. SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 25.—The auxiliary cruiser Buffalo, Captain Pond, left this morning for Magdalena Bay with mail and supplies for the battleship fleet.

DIVERSE GREETINGS FOR ROCHETTI, THE FINANCIER. Victims and Employees Still Trust Him—Attempt to Involve Clemenceau Fail.

PARIS, March 25.—When he went to the office of the Franco-Spanish bank today, in company with an examining magistrate to go over and explain the books and papers of that institution, Henri Rochetti, who is under arrest on the charge of extending credit to the Georgia diversified reception, hisses and jeers mingled with shouts of approval, and even bouquets were showered upon him.

Blocked by the Bosses. Ways and Means Committee Prevents Repeal of Wood-Pulp Duty.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The effort of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association to secure legislation putting print paper and wood pulp on the free list has received a sudden shock because of the refusal of the ways and means committee even to give it a hearing until after the Presidential election.

GUILD HOLDING HIS OWN. Condition of Massachusetts Governor Remains Unchanged.

BOSTON, March 25.—The condition of Governor Guild has not changed since noon yesterday. At 10:30 o'clock tonight, Winslow issued the following bulletin: "Governor Guild held his own well, and is resting comfortably."
