WIDOW COMMITS SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—The body of Mrs. May Pleitz, a guest at the Hotel Rosilyn, was found in her room today and the surroundings indicated that the woman had committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. Mrs. Pleitz, who was a widow of about 30 years of age, left a note addressed to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wallace, 415 Cherry street, Seattle, Wash., saying that she had never been well a day in her life and had determined to commit suicide.

WAS CAMPAIGN DONATION

Ryan Explains $500,000 Padding in Street Railway Deal.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The sum of approximately $700,000 involved in the Wall and Cortland-street ferries railway company deal, which has been under investigation by the grand jury, included a political contribution of $500,000, with interest, made by the Metropolitan Street Railway Company in the Presidential campaign of 1900, according to an explanation said to have been given to the grand jury by Thomas F. Ryan. Ryan has been a witness before the grand jury, and it was learned today that the jury will hand up a presentment containing an outline of Mr. Ryan's explanation of the deal. Mr. Ryan said that when it was decided the Metropolitan Street Railway should make a big contribution to the 1900 campaign fund, a further suggestion was made to make it through Mr. Ryan, W. C. Whitney, Thomas N. Dolan, P. A. B. Widener and William Elkies.

ATTEMPT TO BURN CHURCH

Pastor's Wife Saves United Brethren Edifice From Destruction.

An attempt to burn down the United Brethren Church, East Morrison and East Fifteenth streets, was made last night shortly before 10 o'clock. Some one broke open a window in the rear of the building and after having saturated the window sill and the floor inside with kerosene, applied a match to it and ran away. The blaze was immediately discovered by Mrs. H. C. Schaffer, the wife of the pastor, who, without losing her presence of mind, set to work and succeeded in controlling the blaze.
