CALLS SUIT FOR SLANDER ABSURD

Senator Fulton Does Not Worry About Action of J. S. Smith.

POWELL MAKES AFFIDAVIT

Denies That Statements Made by Francis J. Heney, in Portland Speech, Charging Fulton With Bribery, Are True.

Senator Fulton, who arrived from Salem yesterday morning, is not worrying over the suit for slander brought against him by J. S. Smith of Salem. On his arrival in the city Senator Fulton took up his quarters at the Imperial hotel and all day and far into the night the footsteps of the politician and the near politician led to room 506.

That the $5000 suit brought by Smith is not giving Oregon's senior Senator any concern is evidenced by the fact that he considers the foundation upon which the suit was brought too trivial to even discuss, and to the Senator's friends the action is a huge joke.

Smith's suit for slander grows out of Senator Fulton's answer to the affidavit read at the White Temple by Francis J. Heney on the night of January 28 of this year. Smith, in this affidavit, swore that Senator Fulton was present at the Willamette hotel at Salem when he was paid $1500, a part of $3000 he was to get if he would make a speech in the House urging an end of the so-called "hold-up" Legislature. In his affidavit Smith says: "Fulton said to me in Mitchell's presence and hearing: 'I will give you $3000 and pay you $1500 of that amount down right now if you will go into the House tomorrow and make a speech explaining that there has been enough of this delay and urge that the members take action and vote for Mitchell for United States Senator.'"

Charges Attempted Bribery.

Smith said in this affidavit that he had been approached by James F. Powell of Albany and said that Powell had admitted to him that he was doing it for Fulton. In all of his campaign speeches, Senator Fulton has denied that he was present when Smith received the $1500. The Senator has handled the Heney charges and the affidavit made by Smith without gloves. He has charged Smith with having sworn falsely, when he swore that Senator Fulton was present when the $1500 was passed.

Senator Fulton has backed up his denial by an affidavit from Powell in which Powell says that the Smith affidavit is almost wholly false. Powell also swears that he introduced Smith to Senator Mitchell and that Senator Fulton was not present when the talk was had.

Powell Makes Statement.

The Powell affidavit follows:

I, James F. Powell, being first duly sworn, say that I am a resident of the City of Albany, Oregon; that I am the James Powell referred to in the affidavit of J. S. Smith, subscribed and sworn to before Thomas B. Neuhausen, Special Inspector, Department of the Interior, and reported in The Morning Oregonian, of Portland, Oregon, in the issue of January 29, 1908, as a part of the address of Francis J. Heney, delivered in the Congregational Church of said City of Portland, on the evening of the 28th day of January, 1908; that I have read said affidavit carefully, and that the same, so far as it refers to myself and the facts therein stated that come within my knowledge, is almost wholly false; that I knew said J. S. Smith in Albany, Oregon, and was personally acquainted with him long prior to the convening of the session of the Legislature mentioned in his affidavit, and did not introduce myself to him as stated in his affidavit; that I did not vote for Mr. Smith, and never at any time represented to him that I had voted for him; that the facts attempted to be narrated by the said J. S. Smith in his said affidavit occurred as follows:

One day, during the session of the Legislature of 1897, after the adjournment for the day, Smith came to me, and after remarking that I knew those people (referring to Senator Mitchell and his friends), and that he was satisfied that Mitchell had money and was using it there, and that he (Smith) needed money, asked me if I could put him into a position to get some of it, or get his hand into the sack, or words to that effect. I told Smith that I thought I could manage to arrange for him to meet Senator Mitchell. I made arrangements for the meeting, and that same evening at the appointed time went with Mr. Smith and together we met Senator Mitchell. I introduced Smith to Senator Mitchell, introducing him as a Representative from Linn County. I then offered to leave the room, but both Smith and Mitchell insisted that I should remain. I then told them that whatever they did was between them, and that I would have nothing to do with it, but that if they wished me to remain I would do so. They said for me to remain, and I did so.

Mitchell Paid the Money.

After some preliminary talk it was agreed between Senator Mitchell and Smith that Smith would on the following day go into the so-called Benson House of the Legislature and answer roll call and assist in organizing the House, and make a speech in favor of organization, and that for so doing Mitchell would pay Smith $1500; that the money was thereupon paid, and Smith and I left the room, going away together; that I was with Smith the remainder of the evening, and occupied a room with him that night. That Senator C. W. Fulton was not present when said agreement was made, took no part in it, and had nothing to do with the payment of said $1500, or any part of it; that the matter was never mentioned in the presence of Senator Fulton, so far as I know, and to the best of my knowledge Senator Fulton knew nothing about the transaction.

I make this affidavit in the belief that a wrong has been done Senator Fulton, and that the people of the State of Oregon are entitled to know the truth in this connection.

JAMES F. POWELL.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of March, 1908.

T. M. REDFIELD,
Recorder of the City of Albany.

Calls Suit Absurd.

In speaking yesterday of the Smith suit, Senator Fulton said:

"Of course, the Smith suit is utterly absurd and not worth discussing. It is a part, or rather an incident of the contemptible politics being played by a certain little gang opposing my nomination."

Beyond this, Senator Fulton would not discuss the case. He will leave this morning for Corvallis, where he speaks tonight. Senator Fulton is thoroughly satisfied with the campaign and said that he had met with a splendid reception throughout the southern part of the state. He will soon start his Eastern Oregon campaign.

Falls Down Elevator Shaft.

G. Chambers, a young man 21 years of age, who is employed by Fleischner, Mayer & Company, fell down the elevator shaft in the factory of that firm Saturday and sustained severe injuries which necessitated his removal to St. Vincent's Hospital for treatment. It was found that he had sustained a broken knee-cap, a fractured arm and numerous bruises about the head. Last night he was reported to be resting easily and no serious effects are anticipated.

DROWNED OFF RIVER BOAT

Man Swims Almost to Shore and Then Sinks to His Death.

MARSHFIELD, Or., April 5.—(Special.)—C. W. Miller, aged 35 years, an employe of the Lillian mine, was drowned in Coos River today. He was a passenger on the river steamer Alert, and was on his way to spend Sunday with his wife and two children at North Bend. Miller leaned against the gangway railing, which gave way and caused him to fall overboard. He swam almost to the shore and then sank in sight of all the passengers, who were too far away to offer assistance. The body was recovered.

Councilmen Inspect the Harbor.

Harbormaster Speier, accompanied by a number of the members of the City Council, made a tour of inspection of the harbor Saturday afternoon. A start was made from the foot of Stark street and the party examined both sides of the river as far west as Swan Island.

Concert for Seamen Tonight.

The concert at 8 o'clock tonight, at the Institute of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society, will be given by the First Christian Church. An interesting programme has been prepared and all friends of the society and sailors will be cordially welcomed.

DISGRACE DRIVES GIRL TO POISON

Alberta Barker Kills Herself When Friends Learn of Her Condition.

DENIES GUILT TO LAST

Coroner Will Endeavor to Learn Who Was Responsible for Suicide of Former Telephone Operator, 21 Years of Age.

Rendered despondent by intense suffering and the discovery of her physical condition, Miss Alberta Barker, 21 years of age, committed suicide Saturday night at the home of Mrs. M. Hobart, 1423 Morse street, Woodlawn, where Miss Barker resided. It is believed the young woman took a dose of rough on rats or some similar poison containing phosphorus, from the effects of which she died at midnight Saturday.

The fact that Miss Barker was in a delicate condition was not discovered until she was taken seriously ill several days ago, and Dr. A. L. Canfield, who has been attending J. G. Dollarhide, father of Mrs. Hobart, was called in to attend the young woman. On the occasion of the physician's first visit, the girl absolutely refused to undergo an examination, and, from her reluctant statements, it was believed that she was suffering from kidney trouble.

Saturday morning, Miss Barker complained of severe pains in her head and back, and was evidently suffering intensely. Mrs. Hobart hastily summoned Dr. Canfield, who finally secured the girl's consent to an examination, leading to the discovery of her real condition. In spite of the questioning of both the doctor and Mrs. Hobart, as well as the latter's mother, the girl maintained her denial of any wrong-doing.

Guards Secret With Care.

The exact manner in which the girl secured the poison that caused her death, and also the hour at which she took the deadly drug, cannot be learned. It is presumed that she became utterly despondent at the discovery of the secret, which she had so carefully guarded, and decided to end her troubles by suicide. J. G. Dollarhide, father of Mrs. Hobart, is an invalid, confined to his home, which adjoins his daughter's residence, and Mrs. Hobart frequently visited his bedside. It is believed that during one of her absences Saturday afternoon or evening, the sick girl secured the poison.

Coroner Finley was summoned early yesterday morning and decided to hold an inquest this afternoon in order to discover, if possible, who was responsible for the girl's condition. There is some question as to whether the responsible person resides in Portland or in Spokane. Members of the family with whom the girl lived declare that they did not know of her keeping company with any man, and are emphatic in saying that no fault could be found with her conduct while she lived with the Hobarts.

Father Is in Alaska.

Miss Barker first came to the home of Mrs. Hobart in June, 1907, and at that time secured employment in the central office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. This position she retained until September, when she went, with her father, to Spokane. William Barker, father of the dead girl, is now in Alaska, and when he left Spokane for the North, in December, his daughter returned to Portland and again went to reside with Mrs. Hobart. She did not seek her former position, but assisted Mrs. Hobart in the household duties. Nothing suspicious was noticed in the girl's actions and when her condition was revealed by Dr. Canfield Saturday, Mrs. Hobart was greatly shocked. She was loath to believe the physician, and not until the result of the autopsy, performed by Dr. Canfield and Dr. Ralph Matson, revealed the truth, was she satisfied.

The dead girl and her two brothers, Roscoe and William Barker, Jr., were born in Tillamook County, and eight years ago removed, with their father and stepmother, to Forest Grove, where Mrs. Barker still resides. The mother and Roscoe came to Portland yesterday after being notified of the girl's death, but neither was able to shed any light on the case.

According to the Hobbart family, Miss Barker was a quiet, though cheerful girl, and seldom left home except to attend a theater or to visit the city with her brothers, who visited her frequently, or with Mrs. Hobart.

While he intends to hold an inquest in the hope of discovering the identity of the man responsible for the girl's condition, Coroner Finley fears that there is slight chance of being successful.

MAKES A FAST PASSAGE

HOMEWARD BOUND RUNS TO LIZARD IN 107 DAYS.

American Vessel Makes Best Outward Trip of Any Grain Vessel in Several Years.

The American bark Homeward Bound, which sailed from the Columbia River December 19 for the United Kingdom, has been reported from the Lizard. The craft was out just 107 days and completed the fastest run to the United Kingdom that has been made in a number of years. The Homeward Bound was in command of Captain Thompson, a graduate of the Sewall ships, and carried a full load of grain.

The Homeward Bound was formerly the German bark Otto Gildemeister. She made a sensational passage several years ago which succeeded in running up reinsurance to over 90 per cent. After all hope of her reaching port had been abandoned she was towed into San Diego dismasted and with scurvy in the crew. The underwriters, through some technicality, declared her a total constructive wreck and those who placed money on her as reinsurance received nothing. She was later sold to a San Francisco firm who refitted the vessel and rechristened her the Homeward Bound.
