

KING CRITICIZED FOR HIS ABSENCE

Britons Say He Should Have Stayed Till Cabinet Was Changed.

ASQUITH OFF TO BIARRITZ

Liberals, Fearing Defeat, Will Make Few Changes in Cabinet, Lest Ministers Be Beaten in New Elections.

LONDON, April 6.—H. H. Asquith, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who has been summoned to Biarritz, crossed by the night boat from Dover to Calais tonight on his way to that place to see the King, whose absence at a time when it was foreseen that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman would lead almost inevitably to a cabinet crisis, provokes criticism of the British King. There has been a rumor that the King would return to London on Saturday next, but this is very doubtful.

In his letter of resignation to the King Sir Henry advised the monarch to appoint Mr. Asquith. The latter, in point of fact, has no rival for the leadership of his party and of the government. His accession to the Premiership will undoubtedly sooner or later lead to sweeping changes in the constitution of the ministry, but in the unprecedented circumstances of the British Premier resigning during an important session of Parliament, it is quite possible the new Premier will content himself with the absolutely necessary changes.

Will Try to Avoid Elections.

An informal conference of Ministers was held prior to the commencement of today's sitting of Parliament, and the situation was discussed in a general way. The Premier-elect asked to hear the views of his colleagues relative to the prospective cabinet changes, now that the necessity of his reconstruction has actually materialized.

In view of the lack of success at the recent elections, the cabinet will be re-arranged so as to avoid, as far as possible, the election contests made necessary when the members of the House of Commons or holders of under-secretariats are elected to cabinet posts.

David Lloyd George, president of the Board of Trade, is still a hot favorite for the Chancellorship, although Mr. Harcourt, who shares the Liberal imperialistic tendencies of Mr. Asquith, is understood to be a candidate for the same portfolio.

It seems quite likely that Lewis Harcourt, who is considered something of an American because of his American mother and wife, will be included in the new cabinet, and the name of Winston Churchill also figures in most of the cabinet lists.

The elevation of Mr. Churchill would involve an election from Manchester, with considerable possibility of defeat, and it would necessitate the cabinet resigning, enough to give up a safe seat to which Mr. Churchill could be elected.

Slight Hold on Radicals.

The Liberal leaders seem to be quite well satisfied with the situation, but some of them question the power of such an imperialist as Mr. Asquith to keep on laboring and radicalism from breaking away from all allegiance to the government's coalition.

On the other hand, Timothy Healy's nomination of Mr. Asquith's attitude during the recent home rule debate in the House of Commons appears to fore-shadow a dangerous tendency to the rather slender band which includes the Irish Nationalists to the existing administration.

The House of Commons was crowded this afternoon when Mr. Asquith sought to make his address. The Premier-elect was greeted with hearty cheers as he began to speak.

Asquith's Tribute to His Chief.

Since the House rose on Friday the King has been pleased to accept the resignation of the Prime Minister and the government is now without a head. This is not the occasion when it would be proper to begin to do justice to the great qualities of our revered and trusted chief or to enlarge upon his services to the state. For the moment I will not try myself to do more than to say that in the annals of our country there is no name, after long years spent in the thick of public contention, has ever laid down the highest office under the crown more universally and deservedly beloved. There is not a single man in any part of the British Empire who does not regard him as a personal hero.

Mr. Asquith went on to state that it was clear public opinion could not proceed effectively at this time, and he proposed the House adjourn until April 11, at which time, after the transaction of formal business, it would readourn for the Easter recess.

Mr. Bailew and Mr. Redmond joined in feeling tributes to the retiring Premier. Mr. Asquith's proposal was then adopted and the House adjourned.

Bannerman's Condition Unchanged.

LONDON, April 6.—The bulletin issued this morning regarding the health of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman says that the patient passed a good night and that his condition remains unchanged.

SILVER NO LONGER ISSUE

Special to Interior will not have a quicker response than heretofore, because public confidence is being weakened by the investigations that have shown corruption in politics and greed in the favor-seeking corporations that have lobbied the government.

Previous to the closing down of the banquet, a reception was held for half an hour, during which those who held tickets to the spread were given the opportunity to shake hands with Mr. Bryan. Fifty waiters, who had been engaged in a dispute with the caterer, went on strike. After paying for an hour or more, the substantial part of the banquet was abandoned, and without the guests having eaten, the speech-making began.

Visits Convention Hall.

During the day Mr. Bryan, in charge of a committee headed by Mr. Shafroth and other officers of the Bryan Democratic Club of Colorado, visited many places of interest, including the new Auditorium, now nearing completion, and in which will be held the National Democratic convention in July. He was impressed with the character of the structure. Mr. Bryan's only other public reception was held this after-

Not Candidate for Senator.

RUTLAND, Vt., April 6.—Governor Fletcher D. Proctor announced today after a week's campaign in which the moral issue was urged by his opponents, A. J. Duncan (Demo.), was elected City Treasurer, and H. H. Guthrie (Rep.), was chosen Police Judge. The Republicans elected five of seven aldermen.

RIOTERS SHOT IN LISBON

REPUBLICAN MOBS ARE FIRED ON BY TROOPS.

LISBON, April 6.—The city is in a state of intense excitement over the results of the election, brought on by the indignation of the Republican element that it would be degraded at the polls. Great crowds filled Pedro Square and was amused in front of St. Domingue Church, these points being the chief centers of the Republican disorders. The troops, consisting of cavalry and infantry, were called from their barracks and charged on the assembled multitude. As the troops advanced they were met by showers of stones. The soldiers charged repeatedly, finally opening fire on the mob. Intense disorder ensued. One observer says the streets were literally red with blood. No official statement of the number of killed and wounded has yet been issued, and pending authority from government sources no official or press statement is permitted to be telegraphed concerning the extent of these casualties.

Following the bloody street affray, three newspapers, the organs of the Progressives, the Regenerators and the Nationalists, were mobbed. The crowd finally fled in terror to their homes, the cavalry pursuing the groups through the streets and dispersing them as they sought to reform at the street corners.

The counting of the ballots on yesterday's election proceeds slowly. Some districts are being held up by order of the government. The ballot booths are being guarded by the police, backed by a force of troops. Thus far not a single Republican candidate has been declared elected, although the results in 19 districts are understood to be complete.

The cavalry and large forces of reserve police continued patrolling the streets. There were further disorders today when voting was resumed in Saint Domingue, where it was suspended yesterday because of rioting. Great crowds are again gathering here, the Republicans attempting to maintain the municipal government. The crowd finally dispersed. It now appears that four Republicans have been elected in Lisbon. A government statement issued today says:

"The government gave specific orders to insure liberty of voting and took every precaution to prevent disorder. The elections passed off regularly in almost all districts of Lisbon, but at Saint Domingue and Santos the Republicans tried to run the ballot boxes, but were dispersed by the troops who guarded the voting precincts. One hundred and ten arrests have been made."

WORST FACTS KEPT SECRET

Censors Hide Truth About Bloodshed in Portugal.

PARIS, April 6.—The gravity of the rioting at Lisbon last night is now known in this city. In accordance with old-time practices, the censorship of dispatches was inaugurated as soon as bloodshed occurred. Dispatches received from Lisbon are meager and mutilated, and do not give a clear picture of what has happened there. It is evident, however, that Republicans began the demonstration by the methods used to suppress their votes.

SENATE EXPEDITES ACTION

Will Accept House Testimony on the Amended Anti-Trust Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In accordance with the understanding reached today in Friday in the Senate committee on interstate commerce, Senator Elkins, the chairman, today asked the Senate to receive his committee's report on the Sherman anti-trust bill, and a bill by Foraker, dealing in part with the same subjects, and to send them to the committee on Judiciary. The request was granted.

The bill of the Civil Federation introduced in the Senate by Warner of Missouri, is the same as is now being considered by the House committee on Judiciary. It is understood that the Senate committee will accept the testimony taken in the House on the measure, and will not grant hearings, so that would delay consideration to such an extent that passage at this session would be rendered practically impossible.

Cole Resigns From Army.

MRS. GOULD'S LIBATIONS.

What Howard Gould says his wife does in the hour before she goes to bed is a matter of public knowledge. One pint of white wine at luncheon. Several brandy highballs during the afternoon. These cocktails before dinner. Champagne in liberal quantities during dinner. Liqueurs after dinner. Another brandy highball, which she called a "nightcap," at bedtime. In addition to this she kept bottles of brandy, gin and liquors in her boudoir, of which she would partake off and on during the day and night.

NEW YORK, April 6.—(Special.)

Howard Gould's answer to the suit of his wife, Katherine Clemmens-Gould, for a separation and alimony, which was filed in the Supreme Court this afternoon, forms the most amazing document that has ever figured in a divorce trial in New York City.

For the first time the name of Dustin Farnum, the actor, is brought forward as a co-respondent. In addition, Mr. Gould declares that his wife was grossly intoxicated at many places on many occasions, that she consumed daily enough alcoholic drinks to put several men out of business; that at theaters, restaurants and hotels she repeatedly belittled a scandalous manner while under the influence of cocktails, highballs and champagne; that she once broke up a fashionable card party by biting her hostess in the arm and that she shocked a wedding party at St. Thomas Church by announcing that she saw "many old cats" present.

In addition to the charges involving Farnum, the answer filed by the millionaire's counsel embodied all the older allegations which he has previously made about her misconduct with Colonel W. P. Cody (Buffalo Bill), both before and after her marriage, drunkenness, quarrelling and using obscene and profane language.

SHIP IS FINED $5000

Asterkamp Neglects Consular Bills of Health—Loses Charter.

ASTORIA, Or., April 6.—(Special.)—The German ship Asterkamp, which arrived last evening, 50 days from Callata Coloso, Antofagasta Bay, Chile, failed to bring consular bills of health and in accordance with the regulations of the Department, Acting Collector of Customs Parker imposed a fine of $5000 against the vessel for the dereliction. Captain Schumacher says the bills of health had been from an American consul. It is supposed he will file a protest against the fine and the entire matter will be submitted to the Department in Washington to be passed upon.

The Asterkamp had a slow but ineffectual trip up the coast, being delayed by head winds and the foul condition of the vessel's bottom and she lost her charter to load grain for Europe at 50 shillings by not arriving on time. Captain Schumacher says the Chilean port is a most aggravating one to visit, as he was two months discharging cargo and three months in securing ballast, which is of the poorest kind.

OLD MAN'S AWFUL CRIME

Kills Young Girl in Jealous Rago and Commits Suicide.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 6.—Samuel A. Gardner, 59 years old, a civil engineer, and a prominent citizen of McKeesport, a suburb of this city, shot and instantly killed Dorothy Yost, 15 years old, in the presence of her mother today, and then running to his own home next door, shot himself through the mouth, inflicting a wound from which he died in a hospital shortly after noon.

Gardner had a wife and several grown-up children. The preliminary inquest was held at the residence of his both families and the youth of Miss Yost served to make the shooting sensational.

It is alleged Gardner has been infatuated with the young girl for a long time. It is said he became extremely enraged last night, when Miss Yost went to church accompanied by a young man.

Gardner left his home this morning and purchased a revolver. He went directly to the kitchen of the girl's home, where Dorothy and her mother, Mrs. Bradley, were engaged in household duties. Walking up to the young girl, he pressed the revolver to her breast and fired one shot. She fell dead, shot through the heart.

Mrs. Bradley attempted to seize Gardner, but dodging her, he ran to his own residence next door and shot himself. His wife and children were all attracted by the shooting, and summoned a physician.

The Bradley and Gardner families have been on the best of terms. Some time ago, it is said, it was noticed that Gardner was showing fondness for the girl, and made no effort to conceal the fact. Last Summer Mrs. Bradley sent her daughter to the country for six months, hoping that after Dorothy returned home Gardner would not display much interest in her.

Lieutenant White said tonight that while he was not at liberty to give out any of the scores made, it could be stated that some record-breaking scores had been made.

San Francisco Committee Plans a Magnificent Reception for Fleet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 6.—The great parade, which the commanding officers of the Atlantic fleet will leave their ships to pay their respects to the Governor of California and the Mayor of San Francisco, was finally arranged at a meeting of the reception and parade committee today. The grand marshal, General Foster, estimates that the parade will take at least three hours to pass a given point, and that it will be the greatest military pageant ever seen on the Pacific Coast.
