BONDS FOR INVESTMENT

FRANK ROBERTSON Failing Bidg., Third and Wash, Sts.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

An investment may be safe but not sure, sure but not good, good but neither safe nor sure.

To be all three, an investment must be gilt-edged in every particular. OCEAN SHORE BONDS are gilt-edged securities, hence they are safe that is, able to pay the interest that is guaranteed on their face; sure, that is, able not only to pay the interest, but pay it when it is due, twice every year for 30 years; good, that is, they have quality, a feature that is not present in every investment. You absolutely require safety in any investment, whether you are a hig investor or a small one. You require that the element of chance shall be eliminated to the very last degree. You are just as particular about surety. That is to say, you are diligent in learning whether the 5 per cent interest is a certainty. A company may promise to pay 5 per cent a year for 30 years, but you demand more than the promise, you insist upon the issning company demonstrating its ability to pay when pay day comes around: Last of all, you are a little con-cerned about the goodness of an investment. You would rather be a bondholder in a first-class railroad company than in a questionable mining company. Here the genuineness of the assets must not be a matter of speculation; the interest on the bonds must be paid whether the company makes a financial success or not. You are secured by assets that are actually worth all the money that is represented by the total amount of the bond issue. OCEAN SHORE BONDS are backed up by the best real estate in California, the most valuable rights of way, the best business men and the most optimistic outlook for the future. This is a combination of features that compels a man's admiration. If every investment von made were as safeguarded as the one you make in OCEAN SHORE BONDS, your wealth would be a mere matter of calculation. Its certainty would be assured. If you care to buy OCEAN SHORE BONDS for cash, you can secure them for $92 each. If you prefer to pay for them gradually, you can buy them at $96 each, paying $16 down and $10 per month. All the time you are paying for them, they are accumulating interest for you. Call and get booklets and information that will convince you of the merit of the investment.
