Death Was on His Heels

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1907. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s drug store, 90c and $1.00. Trial bottle free."

FESTIVAL POSTALS ISSUED

EDITION OF 100,000 READY FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Portland People Urged to Send the Cards to Friends Throughout East.

Postcard souvenirs of the Portland Rose Festival, 100,000 in number, were delivered to Festival headquarters by the printers, yesterday, and will be ready for distribution this morning. The entire supply of 250,000 mailing inserts for advertising the grand demonstration in June has been exhausted, excepting a few thousand that have been spoken for by three or four local business houses.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Travers, vice-president of the Dueshren-Wehr Company, of San Francisco, Cal., accompanied by his wife, is a guest at Alexandra Court. Mr. and Mrs. Travers are on a trip through the Northern states, where Mr. Travers has extensive commercial interests.
William E. Leland, S. B. of San Francisco, a consulting engineer who was associated with the construction of the Federal building in Portland, is in the city on a few days' visit. After the Federal building here was completed, Mr. Leland went to San Francisco, where he was associated in construction of the magnificent Postoffice structure. After the earthquake, he went into business on his own account, and has prospered.

FIRST THROUGH SHIPMENT

TWO CARS FROM NORTH BANK ROAD REACH PORTLAND.

One Brings Household Effects of Settler, and Other Carries Goods for Local Warehouse.

The first through cars of transcontinental freight to be hauled over the new North Bank Road arrived in Portland yesterday, having been carried around by Kalama and across the ferry to the Oregon shore. There were two of them and they brought the household goods of a new settler and a shipment of stoves from Chicago.

Burned by Gas Explosion.

ASTORIA, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—George C. Layzell, fireman at S. Schmidt & Co.'s cold-storage plant, was badly burned about the face and hands this morning by an explosion of gas. He was fighting the fire in the furnace, when the gas that had accumulated ignited. Mr. Layzell's left hand, his right hand and arm as far as the elbow and his face were severely burned. It is supposed that during Sunday some one tampered with the valves, allowing a quantity of gas to leak into the furnace.
