CAKE HAS LEAD OF 2286 VOTES

Harney County Is Carried by Fulton by at Least 200 Majority.

RETURNS NEARLY ALL IN

Official Canvass Will Not Materially Affect the Result—Fourteen Counties Have so Far Finished the Count.

Practically complete returns give H. M. Cake a lead of 2286 over C. W. Fulton for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. Harney County was heard from last night. With seven-eighths of the vote of the county canvassed, Fulton has 245 to Cake's 56. Fulton will carry the county by more than 200. Curry County has not yet been heard from, but the county is conceded to Fulton by an estimated majority of at least 50. The final result will not vary more than a few hundred votes by the official returns.

Cake has carried Jackson County by an estimated majority of 100. He has also carried Baker, Clackamas, Douglas, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill.

Fulton carried Benton, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Lincoln, Malheur, Morrow, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook and Wheeler.

Returns are now complete from Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Douglas, Gilliam, Lincoln, Linn, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Washington, Wheeler and Yamhill, 14 counties.

The vote on United States Senator by counties follows:

LANE VOTE TO BE UNCHANGED

Official Count Will Make No Difference in Results.

EUGENE, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—With eight small precincts yet to be heard from, including about 100 votes, the election returns will probably remain unchanged, inasmuch as all candidates have a decided lead, which could not be overcome by any unheard-from precincts.

The vote on United States Senator now stands: Cake 813, Fulton 1021. Fulton will carry the county by approximately 200 votes, probably running a little over that mark. Hawley's vote is 1774, which indicates that a little more than the registered Republican vote turned out. For Railroad Commissioner Campbell has 1261 votes, Carter 319, and Robertson 188. Campbell's lead will be increased from 50 to 75 votes when all returns are in. For Dairy and Food Commissioner Bailey leads with 1234 to Reid's 446. Bailey's lead will increase almost as much as Campbell's.

The Republican candidates for members of the Legislature from Lane County will be L. E. Bean, who has polled 1142 votes; W. W. Calkins, with 1065 votes, and Allen H. Eaton, with 912 votes. The other candidates received as follows: I. N. Edwards 728, C. J. Dodd 492 and A. C. Jennings 628. Eaton was the only Statement No. 1 man of the six Republican candidates. Bean and Calkins are unpledged.

On the Democratic ticket Chamberlain was indorsed for Senator, although about 20 other names were written in the ballot for that office. Leon Edmundson was the only Democratic candidate for the Legislature. The Democrats over the county cast rather a strong ballot for Allen Eaton, the Republican Statement No. 1 candidate, by writing his name in, while I. N. Edwards and W. W. Calkins received some Democratic votes. J. D. Matlock, Mayor of Eugene, got more Democratic votes by the writing-in process than any other member of his party.

MARION RESULTS UNCHANGED

Official Count Does Not Affect Complexion of Election.

SALEM, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The official count of votes in Marion County was completed tonight and disclosed no material change from the unofficial returns. As announced Sunday, three Statement No. 1 men have been nominated, Patton, Hatteberg and Libby. The other nominees, L. T. Reynolds and S. A. Hughes, signed the Republican voters' pledge. Among closely contested nominations, W. M. Bushey won the County Judgeship by 25 votes and J. T. Beckwith the County Commissionership by a fair margin. The vote on state and district officers was as follows:

Cake 1747, Fulton 1213, Hawley 2789, Bean 2777, Bailey 1866, Reid 846, Campbell 873, Carter 1620, Robertson 337, McNary 2598.

CLATSOP GIVES FULTON 1027

Big Majority Over Cake in Senator's Home County.

ASTORIA, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The official count of the vote in Clatsop County shows that Fulton was given a majority in his home county of 1027. The vote of the respective candidates was as follows: Senator, Cake 198, Fulton 1225. Congressman, Ellis 435, Geer 540, Shepherd 293. Food Commissioner, Bailey 678, Reid 342. Railroad Commissioner, Aitchison 286, Gaston 161, Hamilton 122, Hurlburt 182, Loucks 325, Whiting 86. Justice of Supreme Court, Bean 1035. Prosecuting Attorney, Tongue 1047. The nominees for the Legislature are John C. McCue and C. A. Leinenweber.

WHEELER OFFICIAL RETURNS

Fulton Has Lead Over Cake by 118 Votes.

FOSSIL, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Official returns from the various precincts of Wheeler County received by the County Clerk, give the results of the vote in this county as follows:

Fulton 254, Cake 136, Ellis 256, Geer 98, Shepherd 44, Aitchison 121, Hurlburt 84, Gaston 97, Collier 230, Parker 178, Bowerman 236, Bourhill 165, Donnelly and Pike, no opposition, Littlefield, no opposition.

The county officers nominated are: Judge, G. O. Butler; Clerk, W. P. Thomas; Treasurer, A. B. Lamb; Commissioner, N. F. Nelson; Assessor, Peter Hartman; Sheriff, Oscar Kelsey.

Collier, for District Attorney, carried the entire district by 12 votes. In Sherman County there was a tie between him and Parker for this office. Parker carried Gilliam County by 40 votes.

FULTON LEADS BY 30 VOTES

Lincoln County Returns—Light Vote Was Polled.

TOLEDO, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The official count in Lincoln County gives Cake 242, Fulton 272, Hawley 474, Bean 463, Bailey 343, Reid 128, Campbell 217, Carter 181, Robertson 75, Prosecuting Attorney Bryson 465, Joint Senator Barrett 130, Hammerly 218, Nolan 133, Joint Representative Gardner 248, Jones 263. The county ticket is: Ross, Sheriff; Wade, Clerk; McCluskey, Treasurer; Kentta, Commissioner; Coin, School Superintendent; Carter, Coroner. The vote was light.

Union County Slow.

LA GRANDE, Or., April 23.—(Special.)—The Board of Canvassers for Union County is now working on election sheets and by tomorrow at noon should have the official count in the recent primary election. It is not believed that there will be any material change, although the lead that T. H. Crawford now has over Dan Sheahan for Circuit Judge in this and Wallowa County is not large and anything like 15 or 20 will throw the nomination to Sheahan.

Cake's Lead in Linn.

ALBANY, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The official count of Linn County vote was completed tonight, giving Cake 712, Fulton 580; Bailey 914, Reed 316; Campbell 528, Carter 545, Robertson 106.

E. E. Upmeyer (unpledged), has won the third place on the legislative ticket over G. G. Belt (Statement No. 1), by only three votes, the other nominees being, F. M. Brown (Statement No. 1) and F. H. Porter (unpledged).

Official Count of Gilliam.

CONDON, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The official count of Gilliam County is as follows:

Cake 172, Fulton 240, Ellis 264, Geer 83, Shepherd 62, Bean 379, Bailey 262, Reid 96, Aitchison 140, Gaston 90, Hamilton 71, Hurlburt 96, Loucks 36, Whiting 4, Littlefield 359, Bourhill 107, Bowerman 338, Chamberlain 17, Derby 62, Jeffery 11.

Fulton Carries Harney.

BURNS, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—The unofficial returns from seven-eighths of Harney County give the following results of the primary election:

Cake 56, Fulton 245, Ellis 185, Geer 81, Shepherd 20, Bailey 218, Reid 51, Aitchison 71, Gaston 110, Hamilton 20, Hurlburt 30, Loucks 10, Whiting 4.

Incomplete in Jackson.

MEDFORD, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Unofficial accounts of 19 of the 33 precincts in Jackson County give Cake 690, Fulton 525; Campbell 308, Robertson 162, Carter 201. This is unofficial from Ashland, Jacksonville, Gold Hill, Talent and Medford, the largest, and 14 of the minor precincts. The returns are so far very incomplete.

Douglas Nearly Complete.

ROSEBURG, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Returns are now complete from 30 of the 31 precincts of Douglas County. Bohemia, the missing precinct, having only eight votes, none of the results will be changed. The following pluralities are shown: Cake, 151; Bailey, 538; Robertson, 580.

BOURNE EXPRESSES DELIGHT

Gratified, Not Surprised, at Success of Statement One Ticket.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 20.—When asked if he had anying to say regarding the result of the Oregon primary elections, Senator Bourne said:

"Yes, I am deeply gratified, though in no manner surprised, at the overwhelming victory which Statement No. 1 advocates have won in Oregon. I trust its opponents will realize that the principle has come to stay. I did my utmost to assist in the enforcement of that principle. I took no hand whatever in the contest for the Republican Senatorial nomination, for reasons stated in my interview, given your own and other Portland daily papers some weeks ago. Senator Fulton's and my own relations have been, to me at least, extremely pleasant and friendly, and I trust will continue so. I hope and expect that Senator Cake's relations and my own will be equally pleasant."

Mr. Bourne joined with Representatives Ellis and Hawley today in recommending reappointment of William H. Leitner postmaster at Huntington. Mr. Bourne was host at dinner last evening, his guests being Senators Aldrich, Hemenway, Curtis and Secretary Metcalf.

DEAD OF THE NORTHWEST

E. H. Clark, Woolbuyer.

PENDLETON, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—E. H. Clark, a prominent woolbuyer, well known in every Western state, died in this city this evening after an illness of three days with pneumonia. His family is now in Stockton, Cal. His daughter, Miss Stella Clark, who is prominent in social circles here, was to have been married Wednesday.

Rev. G. Essig.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—Rev. G. Essig, a minister of the German Evangelical Church, died suddenly this afternoon at his home near Beaver Creek. Death was due to heart trouble. Essig was formerly pastor of a church in this city.

Knocked Down by Car.

Hans J. Lestoe, proprietor of a furniture and hardware store at 293 Grand avenue, was knocked down last night about 9 o'clock by an Oregon City car on the O. W. P. line near the Inman-Poulson Co. mill. Mr. Lestoe's leg was broken and he was injured internally. He was attempting to cross the track in front of the car when he met with the accident.

KILLS HIMSELF, WIFE WATCHING

Thaddeus Miller, Motorman on Mount Tabor Line, a Suicide at Milwaukie.

DOES DEED DURING DRUNK

Comes Home on "Still Drunk," Is Upbraided by Wife, Gets Gun, Says "Look Here," and Fires. Thought Irresponsible.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 20.—(Special.)—"Look here," said Thaddeus Miller to his wife, and with these words he pulled the trigger of a 38-caliber Smith & Wesson and sent a bullet crashing through his heart.

Miller, who would have been 31 years of age next month, lived in Milwaukie. He was a motorman on the Mount Tabor branch of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company, and was known as a "still" drinker. At the inquest held tonight by Coroner Holman the testimony of the weeping wife developed the fact that the unfortunate man came in from his work at 9 o'clock this morning, apparently sober, and as soon as he reached home emptied a whisky bottle. Then he left the house, his wife waiting for his return until nearly 11 o'clock. When he came in she upbraided him for his conduct and this angered him.

Without eating breakfast he donned his working clothes and left the house, returning a little before 2 o'clock, staggering through the door into the bedroom. There he procured his revolver and lurched to the door of the kitchen, where his wife was working. Seeing him with the gun, she screamed and ran out of the back door just as he fired.

While there were other witnesses to the tragedy, Mrs. Miller's story to the jury was clear, and there is a general belief that the dead motorman was intoxicated to the extent that he did not realize just what he was doing, and was simply making a gunplay, and did not intend suicide. The bulet entered his right breast and ranged diagonally upwards, severing an artery leading to the heart and coming out of his back below the left shoulder blade and lodging in the wall.

Miller formerly conducted a saloon in the North End at Portland, and last Summer was a patrolman for the railway company at the Oaks. He had purchased three lots in Milwaukie and was engaged in building a little home during his spare time when off duty. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict that he came to his death from a revolver wound from his own hand while in an intoxicated condition.

AIMS BODY BLOW AT HILL

HENDRY MOVES TO BAR HIM FROM VANCOUVER, B. C.

Asserts Ownership of Great Northern Tracks Running Into City From New Westminster.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 20.—According to a well-authenticated report in circulation here today, a costly lawsuit is likely to come up between the Great Northern Railway and its former Vancouver representatives regarding the company's property here. Under a Dominion government charter, John Hendry built the 10 miles of the Great Northern between New Westminster and Vancouver, and purchased a terminal site and other large properties here. Besides the building of the railway, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended here during the last two years. The money was handled by Hendry for the Great Northern.

Last week President Louis Hill came to Vancouver and openly denounced Hendry and his methods of carrying on Great Northern business. Hendry has been superseded by A. H. MacNeill, a lawyer. Today Hendry and the directors of his Canadian company held a meeting when, it is said, they decided to tear up a section of their own track tomorrow at New Westminster, so that trains of the Great Northern may not leave or enter Vancouver.

Hendry tonight served formal notice on the local Great Northern officials not to run any more trains over his section of the V. W. & Y. Railway after midnight. By that time the owl train will have passed Westminster on its way to Seattle, and no trouble is expected until time for the northbound owl to arrive, early tomorrow morning.

Tonight special guards, hired by the Great Northern, were placed on watch all along the line between here and New Westminster, which Hendry claims as his own.

FOIL A DYNAMITE PLOT

EX-CONGRESSMAN WILLIAMSON THE INTENDED VICTIM.

His House, Barn and Sheep-Shearing Plant Burned, Fences Cut. Herder Spoils Conspiracy.

PRINEVILLE, Or., April 18.—(Special.)—(Delayed in Transmission.)—It is believed here that an attempt was about to be made to dynamite the city residence of ex-Congressman J. N. Williamson. Sam Smith, an ex-Sheriff of Crook County, and Larkin Elliott, a cattleman, are in the County Jail here, charged with arson. Stanley Smith, a 14-year-old son of the ex-Sheriff, is in the custody of Dick Vandenberg. It is thought he was compelled to assist his father.

Smith and Elliott are thought to have burned a sheep-shearing plant belonging to Williamson, as well as a house and barn, and to have cut a mile of fence around the B. F. Allen farm, which was leased by Williamson. One day William Stroud, one of Williamson's herders, came to town armed with a knife and a gun and swore to kill Smith on sight, saying that he and Elliott were going to use dynamite on Williamson's property. The ex-Congressman was aroused from sleep and swore out a warrant.

Evidence was found to connect Elliott with the destruction of the place that was burned in the shape of a piece of bridle identified by Elliott's little boy. Elliott made a confession implicating Smith and his young son. District Attorney Menefee, sitting as a grand jury, investigated for a week, and then ordered the arrest of Smith and his son. Smith is said to have confessed everything, and to have owned up to a plot in which he and Elliott were to have dynamited Williamson's house while he and his family were asleep. Smith is held without bail.

It is said that the motive for these crimes lies in the fact that Williamson would not buy a ranch and some hay belonging to Smith. It is hinted, though, that there may be ulterior motives, and some have said that the range war that caused the destruction of more than 10,000 head of sheep is about to break out again. Sheriff Elkins and District Attorney Menefee hint that more arrests will follow soon, and the Sheriff is credited with the remark "There will be hell popping next week."

Besides the burning of the shearing plant and the house and barn, some one distributed about 60 pounds of poisoned wheat around the shearing camp, but this was found in time to prevent any damage from it. Feeling is running high in the county about the affair. Mrs. Elliott went to Mr. Williamson with streaming eyes and begged him not to prosecute her husband, although she admitted that he was guilty of the deeds charged. Elliott is a well-set-up man of 28 or 30, and the authorities say that he has been implicated in various affairs about the county.

WOMAN'S POWER

The healthy woman; strong mentally and physically, whose ambition and magnetic influence urge men to deeds of grandeur and heroism; such women are all-powerful.

Weak, sick and ailing women have little ambition; their own troubles occupy all their thoughts. They dwell upon their pains, suffer from nervousness and headaches; often are extremely melancholy, and avoid society. For thirty years has been saving women from this awful condition.

Mrs. Louise Jung, of 332 Chestnut St., Detroit, Mich., writes:

"I suffered from a very severe female weakness for a long time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, restored my health. I hope it will do other women as much good as it has me."

Mrs. Emma Wheaton, of Vienna, W. Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was a walking shadow. My husband insisted upon my writing to you and trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did. It relieved all my pains and misery, and made of me a very different woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.

SELLS COMMERCIAL COUPLE STOCK OF HAPPINESS.

Traveling Man Meets Traveling Woman on Train and a Sure-Enough Romance Is Begun.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 20.—(Special.)—A romance of the road became a commercial conquest yesterday when Murray Blee, aged 30, was married to Miss Bessie Levy, aged 26, by the Rev. David Levine. The bridegroom is from dear old Manhattan Isle, and the bride says "Old Chi" is good enough for her. Both are commercial travelers.

The regular sure-thing romance, which found its happy culmination in Spokane, burst into full bloom Saturday, when the contracting parties cast admiring glances at each other across the aisle of the Northern Pacific car on which both were journeying toward Coeur d'Alene City.

He asked her what line she handled. When she said that she was representing a Chicago knitting factory, "I'd like to tend to your knitting for the rest of my life," said the representative of a New York spice house. That settled it. They "did" Coeur d'Alene Saturday, finding each other's society growing constantly more agreeable. Sunday the courtship had progressed so rapidly that they decided to have the knot tied in Spokane.

Convention of the D. A. R.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The 17th Continental Congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened here today in Memorial Continental Hall with an unusually large attendance. The selection of ten vice-presidents-general and the discussion of proposed amendments to the constitution will afford considerable interest. On Thursday President Roosevelt will receive the Daughters at the White House.
