

PREFECT CITY VICTORY IN JUNE

Large Attendance and Much Enthusiasm at Meeting of Republican Committee.

FAVOR CANDIDACY OF CAKE

Major J. P. Kennedy is Elected Chairman Over Sanderson Reed, and J. F. Kerichem is Chosen Secretary.

Harmony and unanimous resolve to elect the entire Republican ticket for June by a "Republican majority" pervaded the meeting of the Republican county central committee in Alisky Hall last night. Ninety-five of the 115 newly-elected members of the committee attended the meeting and effected organization by electing Major J. P. Kennedy for chairman and J. F. Kerichem for secretary. The organization of the committee was captured by the friends of H. M. Cake, W. M. Cake, brother of the Senatorial candidate, having placed Chairman Kennedy's name before the committee. Secretary Kerichem is also friendly to the Cake.

Kennedy Has Large Vote.

For chairman, Kennedy received a vote of 75 against 20 for Sanderson Reed, who was placed in nomination by Ferdinand E. Reed. Freeman declined the nomination of secretary and Kerichem was elected over Frank C. Middleton, who was nominated by Charles Lester. A vote of 76 to 18, Ferdinand Reed afterwards nominated W. M. Cake as a member of the Republican state central committee, and the nomination was made unanimous, Mr. Cake announcing that he reserved the privilege of resigning the office in favor of Charles E. Lockwood, whom he had previously nominated for the position. W. E. Williamson was the unanimous choice of the committee for Congressional committeeman for the Second Congressional District.

Urges Harmony in Work.

In convening the meeting, C. M. Ide-man, the retiring chairman, briefly called attention to the work of the committee before the members of the committee in the June and November elections. It was his duty, he said, of the committee to see that every candidate for the Republican ticket was elected. "If the members of this committee," he said, "will stand by their chairman and put their shoulders to the wheel, the people of the Clatsop and Clatskanie counties will elect a Democratic ticket receiving a majority of the votes in June."

Will Appoint Committee.

A resolution offered by W. E. Williamson was adopted directing Chairman Kennedy to appoint an executive committee consisting of one member from each of the ten wards of the city and three from the county precincts. This committee probably will be announced today. Another resolution was adopted after discussion instructing the executive committee to be appointed to apportion the county's 4 delegates to the State Convention, which meets May 14, among the wards of the county precincts on a basis of the registered Republican vote for the primary election. This committee is to report at an adjourned meeting of the Central Committee next Wednesday night and at the same time suggest the names of prominent Republicans for election as delegates to the State Convention. State Senator E. C. Beach, who was made a member of the committee from precinct 58 to succeed F. C. Malcolm, resigned, advocated the selection as delegates to the State Convention of only the most prominent and influential representatives of the party, regardless of their geographical location. W. M. Cake concurred in this view but urged that each precinct should first be given the privilege of recommending men for delegates.

G. H. THOMAS IS RE-ELECTED

Democratic Committee Organizes for the Campaign.

Democratic county central committee met last night in Justice Reid's court in the Aloworth building and perfected an organization, electing George H. Thomas chairman of the Democratic central committee. Mr. Thomas won by a safe majority over F. T. Berry, who was also nominated for the position. Fred Lee was elected secretary, succeeding F. T. Miller. Upon motion, the same officers were elected to serve as president and secretary of the Democratic city central committee. There was a large attendance of committeemen, the hall being filled.

FULTON WILL SUPPORT CAKE

Offers Congratulations and Pledges Aid in Forthcoming Campaign.

Before leaving Portland for Washington Senator Fulton addressed a letter to H. M. Cake, Republican nominee for United States Senator, assuring him of Fulton's support in the pending campaign. Aside from offering congratulations and assurances of his confidence in the Republican nominee in the primary election will be successful in June, Senator Fulton's letter follows:

Young Beats McCabe in Multnomah.

Ogden Young, regular Democratic candidate for the nomination of U. S. Senator in the Second Congressional District, has carried Multnomah County over A. J. McCabe by a majority of 12. Mr. McCabe did not receive a vote for the nomination until the day before the primaries, and his friends were obliged to write his name on the ballot. It is possible the returns from the precincts of the district may wipe out Young's lead, McCabe claiming Union County by a good majority.

CHURCH CONGRESS IN 1909

CONGREGATIONAL CONFERENCE WILL MEET IN PORTLAND.

E. B. McNaughton Speaks on Work for Young Men at Session of District Association.

At the meeting of the Portland Association of the Congregational Church yesterday in Highland Church, Rev. Luther B. Dyott, D. D., presiding as moderator, George H. Himes announced that the Pacific Coast Congress of Congregational churches had selected Portland as the meeting place, May, 1909. Mr. Himes emphasized the importance of the congress of the leading denominations and said it was a gathering for which simple provision should be made. Mr. Himes said the congress had held meetings in Seattle and Los Angeles, Cal., with great success.

Mrs. Luckey, who attended the congress held in Los Angeles, Cal., spoke of the fine entertainment which the delegates there and also spoke of the importance of the gathering. It was the sentiment of the association that preparations should be undertaken and committees will soon be appointed for that purpose.

RETURN WOMAN FOR TRIAL

Mrs. Pugmeyer Will Also Be Witness Against Maddison.

Mrs. Anna I. Pugmeyer, the worthless check artist who was arrested the other day in Vancouver, Wash., after having victimized a number of merchants there and in Portland, was brought to this city late last night in charge of Captain of Detectives Batty and lodged in the City Jail. She is being held in lieu of obtaining money under false pretenses, the complainant in the case being W. H. Markell, at whose store she passed a bad check for $10 days ago. The Vancouver authorities released the woman and turned her over to the Portland police without trial, because of the story told by this woman of how Maddison induced her to leave her home in Idaho and used her as a dupe in the wholesale passing of the worthless checks which have been accredited to them in half a dozen cities, has been investigated by the police and is believed to be true. The police, it is said, will endeavor to secure some leniency for the woman from the court in which she is tried. For Maddison their efforts will be directed toward securing a substantial term behind the bars.

Official vote for State Representative in Multnomah County has resulted in the nomination of U. S. Statement No. 1 candidates and Robert S. Farrell of the Republican voters' choice ticket.

W. J. Clemens (Statement No. 1) defeated Joseph W. Beveridge (Republican voters' choice) by a majority of 12. Until the official returns had been canvassed, Beveridge appeared to have a slight lead over Clemens. A topic of conversation among politicians and political observers was the race for Circuit Judge nomination between E. C. Brougham, L. A. McNary and W. R. McGarry. Mr. McNary's friends believe that he would have been victorious over Judge Brougham in a two-sided contest and they also declare that many of Mr. McNary's supporters voted for Mr. McGarry, on account of the similarity in their names.

Canvassing board will today complete the count on the county ticket and probably the Democratic ticket. The vote for district officers was canvassed yesterday with the following official result:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Vote. Includes Brougham, 4,794; McGarry, 4,782; McNary, 4,806; Brougham's plurality, 1,134; Morrow, 4,181.

Does 4% Interest Satisfy You?

If it does, why, put your money in a bank and let it stay there. If it does not, and you wish to get all of the earning power of your money, read the following announcement, and question yourself as to the advisability of keeping your money in bank.

We are offering our stockholders and the general public stock of a par value of $1.00 per share for TWENTY CENTS. This stock is amply secured by an immense tract of the finest hardwoods in the world—mahogany, cocobola, lignum vitae, espava, mangrove, balsam copaiba and fifty other varieties of hardwoods, all of the greatest value for use in the manufacture of the finest furniture, pianos, billiard tables, inside finishing, and a hundred and one other necessary uses.

This tract contains over FOUR BILLION feet of valuable timber, and every share of stock sold is secured by one thousand feet, of an average value of at least $100.00. Can you find better security than this?

Mahogany, of which there is a great amount on this tract, sells in the open market for from $250.00 to $400.00 per thousand feet. Lignum vitae and cocobola, both extremely heavy woods (running five to ten pounds to the foot), sell in San Francisco for from twenty to thirty cents per pound. Just think of this! At the smaller weight and price, this means ONE THOUSAND dollars per one thousand feet, or $1 per foot.

Our cruisers' reports show that this tract is exceptionally well adapted for logging purposes, and that all the timber can be logged to the streams at an average cost of only $6.00 per thousand feet.

The following is an extract from a letter bearing upon this particular tract, and written by W. D. Leadbetter, for years connected with the United States Hydrographic Bureau, and a well-known and esteemed resident of Portland.

"I have explored some of these rivers for a distance of 20 to 30 miles in steam tugs, and find sufficient water in them for

DOMESTIC SCIENCE COURSE PROVES POPULAR IN PORTLAND HIGH SCHOOLS.

Many Apply for Instruction and Give Their Reasons for Desiring to Learn to Cook.

The introduction of domestic science into the Portland High Schools meets with the heartiest approval of both students and parents, judging from the number of applications for enrollment in the cooking classes which were organized yesterday. Unfortunately, the already arranged programmes of many of the girls make it impossible for them to receive instruction in cookery at this time; but the newly equipped kitchen laboratories will be filled to their utmost capacity by those who have time for this extra study. Considerably over 200 girls handed in slips requesting permission to take the course; while the boy-student not only expressed a good deal of the kind of interest in the movement that would be naturally expected in their sex, but in a large number of cases made serious application for class membership on the grounds that "a fellow never knows when he may be off in the mountains, surveying or something, and have to get his own meals or go without."

It was originally intended to confine the instruction in cookery to first-year girls only; but as it is so late in the year, a short practical course will be arranged to include others who have expressed a desire to follow the subject this year, but regular four-year courses in domestic science are planned for next fall.

Miss Lillian Tingle, who has charge of the work in both the East and West Side High Schools, reports great interest and enthusiasm among the aspirants for the study. "Many girls wrote an imploring, underlined 'please,' or 'urgent case,' at the bottom of their application papers. In filling out these, besides the name, year, vacant periods and such details, each girl was asked to state whether she had ever done any cooking at home. Often the answer was 'a little,' or 'not much,' but in a very large number of cases the reply was 'No,' or 'I have had no opportunity,' or 'This is my only opportunity to learn.'"

In one of the schools an additional question was asked, "Who do you wish to enter this course?" Miss Tingle states that during a number of years of teaching experience she has made a practice of asking this question of new pupils, and has received some very interesting replies. Among those given yesterday the most usual formula was "I wish to become a good cook," or "My mother wishes me to know more about cooking," but occasionally further details were given, as: "I want to learn to cook because I also may wish to marry some one," or "I want to know the proper foods to eat. I want my health to be good," or "Because it is the most important part of house-keeping, involving the health of all."

"Because I know very little about it and I will never learn cooking unless I learn now." "Because I expect to have to cook and I want to do it right." "Who do you wish to enter this course?" "Because I like it." "Because I want to help my mother all I can, and afterwards cook in my own home." Another girl evidently, on a very confidentially: "The reason I want to take it is because I think it is one of woman's greatest accomplishments to cook, and also if I am so lucky as to get a good husband, you know you have to know how to cook if you want any peace. Don't you think so?"

Another concludes simply: "Because my mother says I have to." And another says: "My father is desirous that I know how to feed him." Probably there are other fathers with similar sentiments.

Judge O'Day Goes to Fossil. Circuit Judge O'Day, of Portland, is to go to Fossil, Wheeler County, today to try a $10,000 libel suit. It was brought by Jay Bowerman against James S. Steward, editor of the Fossil Journal. Circuit Judge Littlefield, of Fossil, felt vessels to ascend for loading, and deep water is found where large vessels can load at a dock. In fact, in all my travels, both upon Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, I do not recall any other port where conditions favorable to cutting, logging and exporting of timber meet the ideal as do the facilities presented in this particular locality. Conditions that are presented here do not and cannot exist anywhere else in the world. I have not any suggestions to make, as I am leaving this week. I feel, however, that you have brought to my attention a matter of greatest merit and splendid possibilities. If I were to remain in this country, I would follow with interest what appears to me to be one of the greatest commercial opportunities for capital that I know."

The rivers mentioned in this letter are five in number, and cut this tract almost at regular intervals, running from the mountains to the sea. This means a tremendous saving in expense, as the entire tract can be logged to these streams by means of donkeys, and from these streams by rafts and lighters to the mill. Our cruisers' reports show this land to be gently undulating, not precipitous, and with but little undergrowth (not more than occurs with Columbia River timber).

Our market is already established. Our common grades of lumber will all be used within fifty miles of our operations, and the demand for the better grades far exceeds the supply.

As to the earning power of your money, invested with us, and if we cut only 25,000 feet per day, your money would earn for you over 50 cent per annum. But we want to put in a mill with a capacity of at least twice this amount, in which event your money will be earning for you at least 100 cent per annum.

Come in and see our exhibit of these fancy woods, and let us show you the proofs of the above statements. The price of this stock for the present is TWENTY CENTS, par value $1.00. The company reserves the right to increase it at any time.

A Laxative that is as Harmless as Food

If you eat plenty of fruit, coarse food and green vegetables, the bowels would never need help. But when you eat fine food, and rich food, you must supply the laxative in some other way. Do it in Nature's way. Don't employ salts or pill cathartics, for they violate Nature. They irritate and injure the stomach and bowels. Nearly all dyspepsia—all constipation is caused by the use of harsh physic.

Cascarets—a vegetable laxative—have precisely the same effect as a laxative food. You know they don't harm you because they don't gripe. They do for the bowels just what right living would do. And they do it as gently and naturally. You can take them any hour of the day. Add that is the proper method. Carry them with you. Take one just as soon as you need it. That is the way to keep well at all times, without the ill effects of a physic. Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C. C. on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

How much meat you ought to eat depends upon your daily employment.

If you are not shoveling dirt, better eat sparingly of the flesh foods. You can get more muscle-making nutriment out of Brain and Nerves Restored by Grape-Nuts Food. The number of persons whose ailments were such that no other food could be retained at all, in large and reports are on the increase.

"For 15 years I suffered from dyspepsia, finding no food that did not distress me," writes a Wis. lady. "I was reduced from 145 to 80 lbs., gradually growing weaker until I could leave my bed only a short while at a time, and became unable to speak aloud."

"Three years ago I was attracted by an article on Grape-Nuts and decided to try it. My stomach was so weak I could not take cream, but I used Grape-Nuts with milk and lime water. It helped me from the first, building up my system in a manner most astonishing to the friends who had thought my recovery impossible."

"Soon I was able to take Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast, and lunch at night, with an egg and Grape-Nuts for dinner."

"I am now able to eat fruit, meat and nearly all vegetables for dinner, and fondly continue Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper."

"At the time of beginning Grape-Nuts I could scarcely speak a sentence without changing words around or 'talking crooked' in some way, but my brain and nerves have become so strengthened that I no longer have that trouble.
