

NEW EASIER HIT ANGERS ASSYRIAN

Najah Khuri Threatens Ex-Wife, Who Appears in Spring Firey.

AGREES TO LEAVE CITY

Court Decides That Dog May Lawfully Bite Once—F. E. Baldras Released After Attacking Patrolman Goltz.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

Jealous arising from a stunning new Easter bonnet, worn by his divorced wife, and a new Spring suit worn by his little son, caused Najah Khuri, an Assyrian residing in South Portland, to threaten the life of the woman.

plaintain. They occupy adjoining cottages in southeast town. Mrs. Vaughn was a very indignant woman when she took the witness stand. She had been abused before by Mrs. Marquette, she said. She had been called most every name under the sun, but balked at being termed a cannibal. It was this time she was indignant.

Amusements

What the Press Agents Say. Musical Comedy at Halls. The attraction at the Halls Theater, featuring the Allen Comedy, is presenting a special feature Saturday, will be the musical comedy, "The Belle of New York."

"The Belle" Tonight. Once again the public will have an opportunity to hear the delightful music and comedy of "The Belle of New York," as it is splendidly presented by the New Francisco Opera Company.

"What Happened to Miss Brown." The strange adventures of "Miss Brown" is one of the funniest and most clean-cut of all the late farces, and the Baker Stock comedy company has the customary large audiences all the week.

"The Belle" Matinee Today. Every performance of the Lyric this week under the management of the Lyric company, Marie Correll's masterpiece, "The Belle of New York," is the most popular of the company has ever presented here.

COMING ATTRACTIONS. "The Ham Tree" Coming. The famous negro impersonator, McIntyre and his company, will present a company of 30 people, will present the happy musical play, "The Ham Tree," at the Halls Theater, Fourth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Monday, April 27.

"Sherlock Holmes." The noted play, "Sherlock Holmes," will again be presented at the Halls Theater, Fourth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Monday, April 27.

"From Sire to Son" Next. The coming attraction at the Lyric, this week, is the play, "From Sire to Son," by the Lyric company, which is the greatest and most interesting play of the Lyric company has ever presented here.

Next Week at Pantages. Pantages attractions will be presented at the Maywood Grand Theater next week, will be an all-star bill, headed by Willie Zimmerman, the famous impersonator of great musicians.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS. Vaudeville of the Best. The Vaudeville of the best, is presented at the Vaudeville Theater, Fourth and Washington streets, for three nights, beginning next Monday, April 27.

Chit-Chat of the Sporting World. BY WILL G. MACRAE. MANAGER MCCREDIE may get his wish after all, now that Ryan has reported. Manager Mac has been quick to play Ote Johnson as utility, for he is a fifty box artist as well as an infielder.

There is also another man on the team that can twist them down the grove. Babe Danzig has everything that a pitcher should have. Boston tried to get him to develop his pitching ability, but the big kid can't see anything but that first sack.

Batting Nelson hasn't helped his standing any by hooking up with Willis Britt as manager. At that, Jimmy's brother is an improvement on Billy Nolan.

They say that out of $100,000 in circulation, $100 is counterfeit. About the same ratio of counterfeiters pester the baseball and fighting game.

Once more we are beginning to hear about the benefits derived from "thinking in curves." The founder of the fad must have been a pitcher with a glass arm, and not in the habit of taking "chit" straight.

Just think of it, 1000 saloons thrown out of business in the State of Illinois. There must be a lot of ex-fighters and diamond stars joining the ranks of the unemployed.

Long Bobby Keefe has a hard time trying to break into the big bushes. Once more he has been farmed out to Montreal.

Benny Henderson beat Elmer Strickland last Sunday. Stockton touched the famous ball, but it was for naught, while San Jose could only sneak in two on Henderson.

THE DAY'S HORSE RACES. Results at Aqueduct. AQUEDUCT, N. Y., April 22.—Results: Six and a half furlongs—Chauntilly won, Sayre second, Dennis Stafford third; time, 1:23.4.

Results at Oakland. OAKLAND, Cal., April 22.—Results: Futurity course—Falcon won, Tawanshaw second, John H. Shelton third; time, 1:11.4.

Results at Lexington. LEXINGTON, Ky., April 22.—Results: Two miles—Neddy won, Joe Coyle second, Buckshot third; time, 3:30.5.

Results at Woodburn. WOODBURN, Or., April 22.—Results: Two miles—Neddy won, Joe Coyle second, Buckshot third; time, 3:30.5.

ERRORS COST GAME

McCredie Muffs Fly and Makes Wild Heave to Third.

GIVES COMMUTERS THREE

Then Rain Stops Contest at Oakland With Score Four All-Pinnace Pitches in Grand Form for Portland.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 4, Oakland 4 (called, rain). Rain at Los Angeles.

Standing of the Clubs. CLUBS. San Francisco 10 4 4 12 107. Los Angeles 10 4 4 12 107.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—(Special.)—Rain put an end to the Portland and Oakland ball game this afternoon in the eighth inning, when the score was 4-4.

The Portland nine showed vast improvement all around, and had McCredie behaved himself as well as did the other members of the team, there would have been nothing to it but the Beavers.

The score: PORTLAND. Casey, 2b, 3 0 0 1 2 4 0 0. McCredie, cf, 3 0 0 1 0 2 0 0.

RAIN AT SPOKANE. SPOKANE, Wash., April 22.—No game, wet grounds.

AMERICAN LEAGUE. St. Louis 10 4 4 12 107. New York 10 4 4 12 107.

CHICAGO 4, CLEVELAND 0. CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—Chicago defeated Cleveland today by the score of 4 to 0.

DETROIT, April 22.—Two triples, two singles and three bases on balls in the fifth inning gave St. Louis today's game.

PHILADELPHIA 3; NEW YORK 2. PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—The opening game of the American League season took place here today.

WASHINGTON 3; BOSTON 3. WASHINGTON, April 22.—A big crowd witnessed the opening game of the season here today between Washington and Boston.

PUBLISHERS IN SESSION. American Association Holds Annual Meeting in New York. NEW YORK, April 22.—Newspaper publishers from every section of the United States and Canada are here today, attending the 23rd annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

CHATSOP REPUBLICANS MEET. ASTORIA, Or., April 22.—(Special.)—The Chatsop County Republican central committee held a meeting this evening and organized by electing officers as follows: W. F. McGrew, chairman; F. J. Dunbar, secretary; C. J. Curtis, assistant secretary; Frank Patton, treasurer.

SEATTLE SENDS CHAMPIONS. String of Boxers and Wrestlers Leave for Portland. SEATTLE, Wash., April 22.—(Special.)—The Seattle boxers and wrestlers who will represent the Seattle Athletic Club in the championship tournament, which begins at Portland tomorrow night, left tonight.

TARD TERM ROOM

3 NO NET BEAT

T. McCusker, in Washington, D. C. Says It's the Real Thing; Just Watch It.

TAFT? WHY, HE'S NOT IN IT

Bryan Would Beat Him Anyway. Bourne, as a Delegate From Oregon, With an Instructed Roosevelt Delegation.

BY THOMAS MCCREER. WASHINGTON, April 22.—(Special.)—Correspondence.—This time for deciding that important question, "Who Will be the Next President?" is drawing near, and the politicians and others are waking up.

Less than 60 days remain in which to plan the nomination of the man who will lead the Republican party to a victory, or if a mistake is made, send it to ignominious defeat.

Of all the candidates in the field today, Taft is the strongest—yet in that strength lies his weakness. Taft is not, in the eyes of the people, a choice.

The country as a whole has absolute confidence in the honesty and sincerity of Roosevelt, regardless of party affiliations, and while Roosevelt would receive 25 per cent of the Democratic vote, Taft would receive absolutely none of it.

A great part of the labor vote will be against Taft on account of certain declarations of his while on the bench, and Roosevelt will hold him responsible for the Brownsville affair, for the reason that Roosevelt acted on recommendations of the War Department, of which Roosevelt was the head.

While no individual will take the responsibility rendered on that occasion still the unreasonable, smarting under an imaginary humiliation on account of the object of their hatred, and votes count.

Pushed through Omaha a few days ago, and Taft and I were in the town at the same time. I escaped unnoticed, and from a certain paper whose columns I have never seen dotted with stars, all we learned of Mr. Taft's visit was that he had a beefsteak that weighed several pounds before he hypnotized it.

The beefsteak, which was said to weigh several pounds before he hypnotized it, was not making the beefsteak look sick, but now I see that the people were wild with enthusiasm over the big dinner given to the only person mentioned in connection with the affair were politicians who were there to be counted.

There is another factor that enters into the picture, and that is the fact that Taft is a man who has been overlooked, and that is the absence of political bosses, like Hanna, Quay, Platt and other others who make up the unmade Presidents, and who are dead or relegated to the shades of innocuous deicide.

This also may be of small moment, nevertheless, at the present time, and the result may be disastrous to the cause of the Republican party. For, as sure as Mr. Taft is nominated, just as sure will Mr. Bryan be elected President, like Roosevelt, is the candidate of the people.

One of the most momentous questions of the day is whether Mr. Taft, in desiring the nomination, will mean to deny the statement, and deny the fact, that he is one of the most emotional of any race on earth, so many idols of the people have been broken, and that it is one thing to secure for himself the highest gift in their power, and quite another to usurp the people's rights and hand them over to a man who is not a Republican, the result will be the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Taft, and the election of Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Bryan.

It seems quite likely, however, that if Mr. Roosevelt should be nominated Mr. Bryan will not be a candidate, as the issue will then be on party lines and Mr. Bryan could not hope to win, and he is so astute a politician as to voluntarily offer himself as a sacrifice again on the altar of Democratic ambition.

When this reached the White House there was a noise like an infant crying, and Mr. Taft heard it. He could not get the wires quick enough to deny the statement, and the papers are having some fun at his expense by publishing his denial—that if elected he will not be independent.

There is a growing opinion, however, that Mr. Roosevelt will wake up to find that he has been deceived in Mr. Taft, so far as carrying out his policies and what is more, says that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man who can beat Mr. Bryan. He says that Mr. Bryan will carry all of the South, and that all of the Democratic votes will be against any man but Mr. Roosevelt. From his experience in the game, I would say that it might be well to not to underestimate his predictions.

To those who are wont to smile at Senator Bourne's hobby, it is well to remind them that he is a man of a foot, but an extremely shrewd politician, and here in Washington the men who are rated high and who do things do not hesitate to consult with him, and among these is no less a person than the President. While Senator Bourne is not running a press bureau to advise his constituents, and what is more, says that Mr. Roosevelt is the only man who can beat Mr. Bryan. He says that Mr. Bryan will carry all of the South, and that all of the Democratic votes will be against any man but Mr. Roosevelt. From his experience in the game, I would say that it might be well to not to underestimate his predictions.

Washington, D. C. Says It's the Real Thing; Just Watch It.

TAFT? WHY, HE'S NOT IN IT

Bryan Would Beat Him Anyway. Bourne, as a Delegate From Oregon, With an Instructed Roosevelt Delegation.

BY THOMAS MCCREER. WASHINGTON, April 22.—(Special.)—Correspondence.—This time for deciding that important question, "Who Will be the Next President?" is drawing near, and the politicians and others are waking up.

Less than 60 days remain in which to plan the nomination of the man who will lead the Republican party to a victory, or if a mistake is made, send it to ignominious defeat.

Of all the candidates in the field today, Taft is the strongest—yet in that strength lies his weakness. Taft is not, in the eyes of the people, a choice.

The country as a whole has absolute confidence in the honesty and sincerity of Roosevelt, regardless of party affiliations, and while Roosevelt would receive 25 per cent of the Democratic vote, Taft would receive absolutely none of it.

A great part of the labor vote will be against Taft on account of certain declarations of his while on the bench, and Roosevelt will hold him responsible for the Brownsville affair, for the reason that Roosevelt acted on recommendations of the War Department, of which Roosevelt was the head.

While no individual will take the responsibility rendered on that occasion still the unreasonable, smarting under an imaginary humiliation on account of the object of their hatred, and votes count.

Pushed through Omaha a few days ago, and Taft and I were in the town at the same time. I escaped unnoticed, and from a certain paper whose columns I have never seen dotted with stars, all we learned of Mr. Taft's visit was that he had a beefsteak that weighed several pounds before he hypnotized it.

THE CALUMET HOTEL

THE CALUMET HOTEL. PORTLAND, OR. EUROPEAN PLAN. MODERN RESTAURANT. COST ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

HOTEL OREGON. CORNER SEVENTH AND STARK STREETS. Portland's New and Modern Hotel. Rates $1 per Day and Up. European Plan. Free Bus.

WRIGHT-DICKINSON HOTEL CO. Props. Centrally Located. Modern Improvements.

IMPERIAL HOTEL. Seventh and Washington. Phil. Metchan & Sons, Props. Long Distance Phone in Every Room. Rates $1.00-$1.50-$2.00.

HOTEL PERKINS. Fifth and Washington Streets, PORTLAND, OREGON. EUROPEAN PLAN. Rooms, $1.00 to $2.00 Per Day According to Location. First-Class Cook Restaurant Connected With Hotel.

NORTONIA HOTEL. ELEVENTH, OFF WASHINGTON ST. Portland's Newest and Most Modern Hotel—Absolutely Fire Proof.

St. Charles Hotel. CO. INCORPORATED. Front and Morrison Streets, PORTLAND, OR. EUROPEAN PLAN. ROOMS 50c to $1.50. FIRST-CLASS RESTAURANT IN CONNECTION.

THE CALUMET HOTEL. Park St. Bet. Morrison and Alder. A Strictly First-Class and Modern Hotel Containing 170 Rooms. Only American and European Hotel in Portland.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, featuring a large illustration of the hotel building and text describing its location and amenities.

Advertisement for HOTEL OREGON, located at the corner of Seventh and Stark streets, highlighting its modern features and European plan.

Advertisement for WRIGHT-DICKINSON HOTEL CO., emphasizing its centrally located position and modern improvements.

Advertisement for the IMPERIAL HOTEL, situated at Seventh and Washington, managed by Phil Metchan & Sons.

Advertisement for HOTEL PERKINS, located at Fifth and Washington streets, offering European plan accommodations.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, noted for being fireproof.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, featuring a first-class restaurant.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.

Advertisement for the St. Charles Hotel, located at Front and Morrison streets, offering European plan rooms.

Advertisement for THE CALUMET HOTEL, located at Park street between Morrison and Alder, a strictly first-class hotel.

Advertisement for the NORTONIA HOTEL, located at Eleventh and off Washington street, highlighting its modern amenities.