ROADS REFUSE TO OBEY

RAILROAD COMMISSION SUES THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.

Test Case to Be Made to Determine Constitutionality of Rules Ordered by Board.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 22.—(Special.)—Suit was commenced in the Superior Court of Thurston County today by the state against the Northern Pacific Railroad to compel the road to adopt and follow out the rules and regulations laid down by the State Railroad Commission, which went into effect February 1, governing the selling of tickets and handling of passenger traffic on all lines in the state. The case is a test suit and will be bitterly fought by the railroads, who hold that the rules in question, Nos. 1 and 2, are unconstitutional and the Commission has no right to enforce them. The complaint charges the Northern Pacific with violating rule 1 on all its roads and branches in the state, by charging and collecting from passengers who pay their transportation on board train, a sum in excess of the maximum rate provided by law, amounting to 10 cents on all fares up to $2, and issuing a rebate slip for this excess. This is prohibited by rule 1 of the railroad regulations as promulgated by the Commission.

Rule 2 makes the posting of copies of the rules necessary and the state alleges that the railroad failed to do this. Rule 3 prohibits the railroads from detaching a greater amount of mileage than that calculated at the rate of 3 cents a mile. The state asks for an injunction prohibiting the violation of rule 2 and a mandatory injunction and sufficient decree to compel the observance of all rules and regulations.

PRESBYTERY ENDS SESSION

Reports Show Gratifying Increase During the Year.

ASTORIA, Or., April 22.—(Special.)—The Portland Presbytery concluded its session this afternoon. The call of Vernon Church for Rev. G. W. Arms, Jr., was found in order and was laid on the table, to be taken up at an adjourned meeting. Letters of dismissal were granted to Rev. T. P. Howard, who goes to the Southern Oregon Presbytery. Rev. J. M. Ferguson, who goes to the Presbytery of Oakland, and to Rev. G. A. Blair, who goes to the Presbytery of San Francisco. The narrative of the state religion was read by D. A. Thompson, showing

MAKES NUDE SQUAW DANCE

DRUNKEN INDIAN STARTS CIRCUIS OF HIS OWN.

Strips Off Wife's Clothes and With Club Puts Her Through Stunts on Tacoma Bridge.

TACOMA, Wash., April 22.—Dancing about the Elsworth-street bridge this morning about 6 o'clock in a costume said to have been more becoming to Mother Eve, Mrs. B. Williams, an Indian squaw, furnished amusement for her intoxicated husband, who insisted that she dance a little faster. So bringing about the desired activity, Brave Williams agitated a heavy stick effectively over his wife's shoulders. Scores of men hurrying to work in the mills stopped to witness the unusual spectacle gnatfoot-in-dadnathoofewe spectacle of a nude squaw doing a ghost dance on a bridge. While enjoying a ride to the police station Mrs. Williams told the jailer that her husband in his drunken frenzy tore off her clothes and threw

STATE OWNS THE SHORE LANDS

Washington Supreme Court Disposes of Litigation Pending.

OLYMPIA, Wash., April 22.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court, in a decision rendered today sustains the state's ownership to shore lands of Lake Union specifically and by inference also to shore lands on Lake Washington and other navigable bodies of water, and thereby practically disposes of all the litigation pending and threatened by upland owners, who were seeking to defeat the purpose of the Piper bills passed last session by the Legislature by which the shore lands of these two lakes were to be sold and $1,000,000 of the proceeds to be used for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

RATS COST $3500 EACH

Heavy Expense to Stamp Out Traces of Plague in Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 22.—(Special.)—Nine plague-infected rats have been caught since the fight to stamp out all traces of plague in this city was started and it has cost the city just exactly $1,500. This makes the cost of catching and killing a plague-carrying rat in Seattle $350 each. Dr. Frank S. Bourne, in charge of the plague fight here, says that San Francisco has paid out more money in the campaign against plague rats than has Seattle, but more rats have been caught, so the cost for San Francisco has been reduced to $250 a rat. Of course, the campaign here has resulted in cleaning up the city and accomplishing other desired results, but the visible results have been nine infected rats at $350 each.
