

CAKE'S MAJORITY IS NOW 2620

Twenty-four Counties Have Completed Official Canvass of Primary Election.

BAILEY'S LEAD IS 12,615

Ellis for Representative in Second Congressional District Has Plurality of 4374—Close Race Between Derby and Jeffrey.

With complete official returns from 24 counties, complete unofficial returns from ten and incomplete returns from seven, H. M. Cake leads C. W. Fulton by 3620 votes.

The official returns have given Cake gains in Baker, Clackamas, Columbia, Curry, Douglas, Jackson, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa and Wasco. Fulton made gains in Harney, Lane and Tillamook.

J. W. Bailey's majority for Food and Dairy Commissioner with only three counties to return stands at 12,615.

In the First District for Railroad Commissioner, Campbell has defeated Carter by 3023 votes. Campbell polled 775 votes, Carter 3283 and Roberts 209.

In the Second District for Railroad Commissioner Atchison has 703, Hurlburt 641, Loucks 622, Jackson 525, Hamilton 389, Whiting 139. Atchison's plurality is 87.

With official returns missing from four counties Ellis, for Representative in the Second District, has 11,584, Geor 938 and Shepherd 899. Ellis' plurality is 352.

The race is close between Andrew Jackson Derby, of Wasco County, and John A. Jeffrey, of Multnomah County, for the Democratic nomination for Congress. The incomplete returns give Derby 160 and Jeffrey 149. The count in Multnomah is not complete as yet.

Complete returns, Jeffrey carries Multnomah by 60. He may win by a close margin.

The official count of Multnomah and Clackamas counties gives C. N. McArthur, the Republican nominee for joint Representative, a lead of 3717 votes over his opponent, W. C. Bell. McArthur carries Multnomah County by a majority of 2963 votes, and his majority in Clackamas was 188. His total vote was 5952, his total in this county being 8248, the highest vote on the Legislative ticket. McArthur's nearest rival for this honor is Ben Selling, who headed the ticket for the State Senate with 4823 votes, 1000 of the precincts of this county McArthur's name was written in as the Democratic nominee.

McArthur's run is considered remarkable. In view of the Statement No. 1 landslide. He is one of the three Multnomah County men nominated who subscribed to the "Republican vote or choice" pledge, the other two being John B. Coffey, for the Senate, and Robert S. Farrell for the House. It was rumored yesterday that independent Statement No. 1 candidates will be brought out against these three nominees, but it is not thought that any Republicans can be induced to make a run. If any independent candidates are brought out, they will undoubtedly come from the ranks of the Democrats. Statement No. 1 candidates who were nominated declare that they will support McArthur, Coffey and Farrell, and it is known that Mr. Cake and his friends will do likewise.

Following are the results by counties so far as obtained:

SEATTLE, Wash., April 22.—(Special)—The two sons of A. D. Devenish, president of the Montezano State Bank, took a 40-mile walk last week in order to spend Easter at home. The two boys, Lewis and Wick, 12 and 14 years old, are attending school at Leavenworth, having spent almost all of their allowance, they decided they must walk home, so with what money they had left they laid in a supply of staples and started on their natural tramp. When they reached Gate City Thursday the food was gone, and having no money, they put in the night in an empty boxcar. They finally arrived home late Saturday, having passed their father, who had gone to Leavenworth to get them.
