C. A. COGSWELL DIES

Drops Dead After Running for Streetcar.
LEADER IN CITY AFFAIRS
Had Been Resident of the State for Many Years and Was Member of Mayor's Executive Board.

After running from his Summer home, near the Sallowood Golf Links, to catch a city-bound trolley-car at Island Station yesterday morning, C. A. Cogswell, a member of the Executive Board, and a citizen widely known throughout the state, was stricken with heart failure and died almost instantly.

His death occurred at about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, at the age of 54 years. He was a resident of the state for many years and was a member of the Mayor's Executive Board.

GIRLS FALL FROM BRIDGE

Hole in Montgomery Gulch Span Is Cause of Serious Injuries.
A neglected hole in the bridge over the Montgomery Gulch at Williams avenue and Welder street was the cause of serious injuries to Constance Helen Porter, a 2-year-old baby, and Dorothy, her 12-year-old sister.

The girls were on the bridge when the hole gave way and they fell into the gulch below and narrowly escaped being killed yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The baby received a broken leg, and was taken last night to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where physicians found it necessary to put her under an anesthetic to dress her injuries. The older girl received no broken bones, but suffered painful internal injuries, which confine her to her home.

The two girls are the children of H. J. Porter, who resides at 363 Ross street, three blocks away from the scene of the accident. At the time of the accident the children were on their way to buy some articles for their mother. The baby was walking along holding to the older girl's hand. Their attention was attracted by some object several blocks distant and they walked into the hole, which was unguarded.

That they escaped death with such a great fall is considered miraculous, especially as the ground where they fell is rough with stumps and stones. Two strangers passing by responded to their cries and carried them home.

Mayor Lane and the members of the Executive Board feel keenly the loss sustained through the sudden death of Mr. Cogswell, and so expressed themselves.

The Mayor was deeply affected, and paid a warm tribute to his departed friend and co-worker by declaring him to have been one of the most useful citizens the state and city ever had.

In the death of Mr. Cogswell, Mayor Lane loses one of his staunchest supporters and valuable advisors. He was a member of the Executive Board, and was a member of the Mayor's Executive Board.

FIGHTS TO AVOID TRIAL

Finis Brown Wanted for Hold-up by Portland Police.

Finis Brown, now held by the Vancouver, Wash., authorities, and accused by John Miller, a farmer of Champego, of being one of the thugs who on Thursday night garrotted him in the back room of a saloon at Front and Clay streets and robbed him of $70, will attempt to prevent his return to this state.

Yesterday Captain Haly sent Detectives Hingler and Maloney to Vancouver to bring back the prisoner. Brown refused to accompany them and gave notice that he would fight extradition. Extradition papers were applied for at Salem yesterday afternoon and issued. They were forwarded to Olympia, Wash., where Brown will be represented by an attorney before the Washington state authorities.

Brown is wanted by the Portland police because the evidence they have against him in this case is strong and his conviction seems assured. He is also wanted on a more serious charge and it is said that evidence may be in the hands of the police by the time he is extradited, which may cause him to be first tried for perpetrating the second crime.

The man is regarded as one of the worst characters in the Pacific Northwest. He is known to the local police under the aliases of Fred Bonaparte and Ernest Hunter. He was arrested on January 11 on suspicion of having robbed several saloons, but for lack of evidence was allowed to plead guilty to vagrancy, for which he received a 60-day sentence from the Board, and was sent to the Bonaparte he served two years in the Wisconsin penitentiary, at Waupun for burglary.
