Ben Selling, candidate for State Senator and A. W. Orton, of the Representative tloket, presided as chairman and secretary, respectively. Republican State Central Committee

Will Meet Wednesday. The members of the Republican state

The members of the Republican state central committee have been called to meet in the Republican headquarters in the Marquam building at 2 P. M. next Wednesday, for the purpose of organizing for the campaign. The call for the meeting was issued yesterday by S. C. Spenicer, secretary of the committee, acting for the former chairman, G. A. Westgate, whose term has expired by limitation. Besides electing a chairman to succeed Mr. Westgate, the committee undoubtedly will formulate a programme of effective action for the campaign and probably may adopt a platform.

PARTY TIES TO BE CEMENTED

Republicans Plan Meetings an Banquets Next Week.

Unanimous support of the entire Republican ticket by the successful candidates in the primary election and the support of the successful candidates by the defeated aspirants are the objects sought to be promoted by political functions that will be held probably before the close of next week. The central idea that is to be emphasized is the absence of sore spots and a general declaration to support the and a general declaration to supp ces of the majority party for elecm in June. The Union Republican Club has planned

The Union Republican Club has planned a senuine old-fashioned love feast that will be held next Friday night. May 1. In the old Elks' Hall, on the top floor of the Marquam building, when the successful candidates of the Republican primaries are to be banqueted. At the same time the unsuccessful candidates for the same offices are expected not only to be present and assist in the entertainment of the party's nominees, but to piedge their allegiance to the candidacy of their late opponents. It is probable that the programme on this occasion will include addresses by the successful as well as the addresses by the successful as well as the defeated candidates, the sole purpose of the event being to insure harmony within the party and among the rival candidates for nomination in the late primary elec-tion.

A. G. Rushlight, unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination of Assessor, has proposed that the defeated candidates in the recent primary election tender to their successful candidates a banquet, probably some time next week. The plan proposes that the defeated candidates shall be the hosts and shall furnish the entertainment for their successful rivals. Aside from the pleasure such a banquet would afford, the real purpose to be served is to disprove the report that the Republican party is embarsassed by faulional strife. The date for this event will be announced when the details have been arranged.

BORAH BILL WILL PASS

Irrigation Measure Has Numerous Friends and No Opposition.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 24—Unless unexpected opposition develops, the Borah townsite bill should pass and become a law before the close of the present accesson of Congress. This bill, which permits use of moneys derived from the sale of lots in townsites on Government irrigation projects for the erection of schoolhouses, construction of sewer and water systems, etc., is heartily indorsed by the Reclamation Service, and there is comparatively little opposition. The arguments against the bill are more than offset by the benefits that would result from its passage, and the fact that the proposed law would benefit every town established on a Government project will secure it strong backing from West-ern men in both branches of Congress. In his report on the bill, made by direc-tion of the committee on trigation, Sena-ton of the committee on trigation.

in his report on the bill, made by direction of the committee on trrigation, Senator Borah says:

Under the present reclamation act there is no provision of law by which improvements can be made for the proper development of the towns during the period, before their incorporation and as a time when it is impossible to levy mass, and at a time when the greater part of the aurrounding country is held by settlers under homestead entries, and therefore not subject to taxation. The condition as it now exists under the reclamation act has been found to hamper and practically prevent the development of towns upon the adjacent reclamation projects. There are no means by which schoolhouses, sewer, or sidewalks of committees or other necessary public improvements and health such towns are in a large action and health such towns are in a large leavest helpiess. The satisfied in their development and growth is manifest to all she has observed the matter, and there is a demand from the towns upon the reclamation projects for this kind of legislation. Other Republicans Honored in Like Manner-Canvass of Democratie Ballot Is Completed.

County Clerk Fields completed the oficial canvass of the Democratic nomi nations yesterday afternoon. According to the count B. D. Sigler has been nominated to the office of County Assessor both on the Republican and Democratic ballots. He gained the place among the Democrats by a plurality of I. E. Ver-steeg receiving 148 votes and Mr. Sigler 149.

J. P. Goray, who ran for County Coro ter, won by a small plurality. Norden, Republican, received 124 votes and Goray 138.

An indication of the predicament of many Democratic voters when they went to the polls and found the names of hardly any Democratic candidates print hardly any Democratic candidates print-ed on their ballot is discovered in the fact that every Republican candidate for county offices received a part of the Democratic nominating vote. Evidently some of the Democrats simply took a Republican sample ballot and wrote in the Republican names, from County Commissioner to County Coroner. The official count of the Democratic inating ticket for county offices is

IRISH TO HOLD MEETING

Will Express Their Sympathy With Home Rule Movement.

In response to an appeal to Irish-Americans from the Home Rule lead-ers in Iroland, a mass meeting of Irish residents will be held tomorrow after-noon at 2:30 o'clock in Woodmen of the World Hall to express their sympathy with the campaign which is being carried on in the British Parliament at the present time to secure home rule for Ireland. Addresses will be made by prominent Irishmen and a musical programme will also be rendered.

It is reported to the Irish in this dered.

It is reported to the Irish in this city that a decidedly unfavorable state of affairs has developed in the Irish Home Rule situation since the death of Premier Campbell-Bannerman, who was an ardent Home Rule advocate, was an ardent Home Rule advocate, and strong sympathizer with the ambition of the Irish people for self-government. The elevation of Mr. Asquith to the head of the Liberal party and his changes in the present Cabinet have been taken by Nationalist members of the British Parliament as a move to sidetrack the Home Rule issue in spite of the fact that within the last month the House of Commons by a large majority passed a resolu-

the last month the House of Commons by a large majority passed a resolution favoring Home Rule.

Among the speakers at tomorrow afternoon's meeting will be Dr. Andrew C. Smith, M. G. Muniy, Wallace McCamant and E. S. J. McAllister. The committee on arrangements is composed of the following: J. J. McCarthy, John Keating, M. J. Murnane. Patrick Breslin, James O'Connor, R. A. Sullivan and Austin Kretman.

District Attorney Manning Does Not Fear Reversal by Supreme Court.

Prosecutor of Title Guarantee & Trust President Commended on Every Hand-Five Months of Hard Work Successful.

District Attorney Manning yesterday returned from Salem, where he successfully prosecuted J. Thorburn Ross, president of the defunct Title Guarantee & Trust Company, for the conversion of state school money. Mr. Manning naturally feels elated over the result of the case, which represented five months' work to him. But he was not the only resident of Portland who took an interest in the trial and was gratified with the result. All day yesterday he was kept busy at his office receiving congratulations from many friends and from depositors in the suspended bank who had followed the trial and felt confident of a verdict for the prosecution. day that he did not fear the result of the appeal to the Supreme Court which will be taken by the defense. He is confident that the case was tried clearly within the statutes.

When the bank, of which Ross was president, suspended last Fall and reports became current that its affairs were in a confused if not a criminal condition, including the alleged misappropriation of state funds, Mr. Manning immediately began an investigation of the institution. Determining the actual condition of the bank, he first successfully concluded negotiations by which all depositors were guaranteed their deposits and an Eastern bonding company entered an agreement to relimburse the state for its claims against the bank. After Mr. Manning had secured to the state and to individual depositors the full liquidation of their cured to the state and to individual de-positors the full liquidation of their claims, he caused the indictment of the efficials of the bank under the state law which prohibits the loaning of state school funds by banks. Repeated efforts by Mr. Manning to bring the defendants to trial were de-feated through the dilatory tastics re-sorted to by the defense, which inter-posed objection after objection and mo-posed objection after objection and mo-posed objection after objection and mo tions without number. These obstructive tactics were exhausted finally and then a motion was presented for a change of venue. This was resisted by Mr. Manning, who maintained that the bank officials could be given a fair and impartial trial in Multinomah County, but a majority of the judges of the court decided adversely and the case was transferred to Marion County, where it was tried before Judge Burnett. The trial began Monday and went to the jury at J c'clock Thursday afternoon. A verdict of guilty was returned an hour later.

VINDICATES A PREACHER

Case of Rev. Mark Arthur, Presbyterian, Spaulding, Idaho.

MOSCOW, Idaho, April 23.—(To the Editor.)—Some weeks ago there appeared in the leading papers of the Northwest an article stating Rev. Mark Arthur, passor of the Presbyterian Church of Spaulding, Idaho (Indian), had been arrested and placed on trial on the charge of criminal libel. I fear that the intent was to injure the good name of Rev. Mark Arthur among his many friends in Washington, Idaho and Oregon. In the interests of justice the facts should be known.

The case was tried before Justice of the Peace George E. Erb in the Second Precinct, Lewiston, Idaho. After hearing the testimony, the court decided that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant the holding of the defendant and diminised the case and discharged Mr. Arthur. To know the source of the charge is sufficient to satisfy all fair-minded people of the linocence of this faithful minister. When it is proven by

The Northwestern Exploration & Development Company has just closed a deal by which they take over this immense body of timber, and we will put in a mill and manufacture and market this very valuable lumber.

In order to secure the necessary capital to install a mill of sufficient capacity, the Board of Directors has decided to sell a limited amount of its stock at 20 cents per share, par value $1.00.

Conservatively estimated, each 20 cents invested in a share of this stock is secured by 1000 feet of standing timber, which has an intrinsic value of not less than $100.
