

DEAR DESTROYS
DUPTAL BISS

Duc de Chauvines Is Suddenly Taken Away From American Bride.

GRIEF PROSTRATES HER

After Quiet Evening, He Expires in Wife's Arms—She Keeps Lonely
All-Night Vigil—Shouts
Hastens to Her.

PARIS, April 24.—In the presence of his bride of less than three months, Emmanuel Theodore Bernard Marie d'Albert de Chauvines, ninth Duke of Chauvines and of Piquigny and Marquis of Danvers, died suddenly from heart failure at 11 o'clock Thursday night in his apartments in the Hotel Langham in the Rue Boissard. The physicians summoned to attend the duke in his sudden collapse officially gave the cause of death as embolism of the heart.

The Duc de Chauvines and the Duchess, who was Miss Theodora Shonts, youngest daughter of Theodore P. Shonts, of New York, were married in New York on February 16 of this year. The wedding was a brilliant social function and the end of the brief honeymoon was sudden and tragic. Since the arrival of the couple here a month ago they have lived comparatively quietly at the Hotel Langham, taking an occasional automobile ride in the afternoon and in the evening dining with intimate friends or going to the theater.

Suffered From Weak Heart.
The duke for years has suffered from a weak heart and for some time has been the subject of fainting spells. Several times since his arrival here he consulted Dr. Henri Icosesco, in an effort to obtain relief.

Yesterday evening the duke and the Duchess, both in the best of spirits, returned from a drive in the Bois de Boulogne. They dined in their private apartments and an hour afterward the duke complained of feeling ill and retired.

Dies in His Wife's Arms.
About 11 o'clock he was suddenly stricken, gasped for breath and immediately lost consciousness. The Duchess was seated with him and screamed for aid. A maid who responded to her cry was hurriedly despatched for Dr. Icosesco, while the hotel management summoned another physician. The two doctors arrived simultaneously at the bedside of the sufferer and administered the most powerful stimulants, but their efforts were in vain.

The Duchess was holding the duke in her arms when he expired. She was overcome by grief and could not be persuaded by some of her American friends who visited the apartment to leave the bedside of her dead husband, and kept vigil there throughout the night.

Shouts Hurries to Daughter.
Theodore P. Shonts was notified by cable of his daughter's bereavement and a message was received from him today, saying that he would take the first steamer leaving New York for Paris.
The duke's family was notified this morning, and his sister, the Duchess d'Uzes, who was in Biarritz, started immediately for Paris. Today Mrs. H.
Millington Drake and other friends did what they could to comfort the dis-tricted widow, whose grief calmed somewhat during the night.

When the death of the Duc de Chauvines became generally known today a steady stream of the duke's friends, including a number of members of the French nobility, called at the hotel and left cards of condolence.

Rumors of Mystery Dispelled.
The refusal of the hotel authorities during the afternoon to give particulars concerning the death of the duke led to reports that there was some mystery surrounding it, but these reports were dispelled by M. Jeanton, a police physician, who made an examination of the body in the presence of other physicians and officially certified that death was due to a natural cause and that there was no necessity for an autopsy.

Tonight the body of the duke was placed in a double oak coffin and tomorrow it will be transferred to a crypt in the Church of St. Philip de Roule, where it will remain pending arrangements for the funeral, which, it is expected, will not take place until after the arrival of Mr. Shonts from New York.

Old Nobility Will Rally.
In accordance with the traditions of the French nobility, the funeral will be a pretentious function and will attract to Paris the representatives of the most ancient families in France, with which the duke's family is allied.

The Duc de Chauvines was born in Paris in 1878. Besides his residence in the Paris Monnaie quarter, he had a chateau in the Department of the Sarthe. He was well known for his interest in athletics and all forms of outdoor diversions, and came of an old and distinguished family.

The duke and Miss Shonts were married in New York, February 16 of this year.
Thirty-four guests, and in every respect a notable and brilliant social event. The first month after the marriage was spent in the United States, and the couple sailed for the other side on March 17, on board the steamer Teutonic.

The duke inherited a fine patrimony both from his father and his grandmother, along with his titles, but he was generally understood that he expended much of his fortune and he was said to have been financially embarrassed before his wedding with the American heiress.

RESUMES CRUISE TODAY

Battleship Fleet Makes Next Stop at Santa Barbara.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 24.—The scattered divisions of the American battleship fleet will reassemble early tomorrow morning and continue their journey toward San Francisco, where the great review of the combined Atlantic and Pacific fleets is to be held on May 8. The 18 battleships, as has been announced, will be in the harbor for just a week and their going marks the close of what is generally regarded here as one of the most important periods in the history of the city. It has been a week of sailors ashore and public regard most of the vessels. The days and nights have all been filled with merrymaking.

A run of seven hours tomorrow will bring the fleet to Santa Barbara for a five days' stay. Flower shows, flower parades, flower-battle dances of the flowers, informal dances on the canvas-covered boulevard fronting the ocean for

HAYWOOD IS "FIRED"

Dusted From Executive Board of Federation.

DEBAUCH CAUSES DISGUST Employed to Organize Branches in East, He Preaches Socialism.
Drunk, Escapade at Denver Climax of Disgrace.

DENVER, Colo., April 24.—(Special.)— William D. Haywood, for many years the secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, has been ousted from the executive board of the organization by the members of that body. Announcement of this action appeared officially in a statement published in the official organ of the Federation—the Miners Magazine—today.

For some time he has been East, lecturing on Socialism and soliciting members for the Federation. He was paid for his work as a lecturer, but was supposed to spread the Socialist propaganda. It is apparent that Haywood's activity in that capacity has not met with the approval of the executive board.

Haywood, who was recently summoned from Chicago to Salt Lake City by the death of his mother, stopped at Denver on his return and went on a long drunk which caused his removal. During this debauch he was ordered out of one of the toughest saloons in Denver for becoming a nuisance.

ADMIRAL EVANS A NEW MAN Marvelous Change Worked by Treatment at Hot Springs.

fleet championships, light-weight and heavyweight, and middle-weight. Trifling taking the first of these and Tighe the latter. Arthur Rollins, of the Kentucky, captured the waterweight belt.

Maine. This squadron is under orders to leave San Francisco June 5, and proceed to the Atlantic Coast by way of Honolulu, Guam, the Philippines and the Suez Canal.

Two More Days at Bay City.
WASHINGTON, April 24.—Orders were issued at the Navy Department today changing the date of the sailing of the Pacific fleet from San Francisco for the give the people an opportunity to see the ships over Sunday.

Oil of Nutmeg Poison.
Medical Record.
Poisoning by the oil of nutmeg is a comparatively infrequent occurrence, although perhaps not so rare as is commonly supposed. Dr. Wallace, a few years ago, made somewhat extensive investigations into the matter, and concluded that cases of poisoning resulted exclusively from the use of the crude nutmeg or mace. Professor A. R.
Cuehny gave an address on the subject before the British Royal Society of Medicine in which he said that as far back as 1568 Lobelius related a case in which a woman was rendered delirious by the ingestion of nutmeg. The symptoms are drowsiness, stupor and diplopia; delirium is often present, and on occasions the first symptom is burning pain in the stomach, precordial anxiety or rigidness. In the case of a boy who died from the effects of eating two nutmegs the symptoms resembled those caused by carbolic indies. The speaker demonstrated that a powerful poison was contained in the oil of nutmeg, and stated that from experimental work he had come to the conclusion that the symptoms were to be attributed to the action on the central nervous system. This is depressed, but exhibits some indications of stimulation in the form of restlessness, slight convulsive movements and tremor.
The oil also exerts a marked local action, whether given by the mouth or hypodermically.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
A Great Public Necessity
PROVEN BY THE THOUSANDS
Who have taken it and been cured,—especially needed in Spring.

You Have Been Housed Up, and you have housed up your blood, during the winter. You are pale and nervous, and have no appetite, feel tired and all worn out.

Your Blood is Impure and Impoverished—the number of red corpuscles has decreased, and the vital fluid lacks color, is thin and weak. As a consequence your liver does not act properly, your kidneys and bowels fail in their duty, and general debility results.

You Must Purify, Enrich and Revitalize your blood, now, and that is why Hood's Sarsaparilla is a necessity at this time of year.

It Will Cure You of all spring ailments, that tired feeling, dizzy sensation, dimness of vision, headache, coated tongue, pain in the back, nervous headache, as well as pimples and other eruptions, rheumatism, catarrh and scrofula.

Used Since 1876—"I commenced to use Hood's Sarsaparilla in 1876, and have used it in my family ever since as a spring medicine, with good results." Mrs. E. M. DeLester, Needham, Mass.

That Tired Feeling—"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and cannot say too much in its praise. I recommend it to every one having that tired feeling in Spring." Mary J. Baker, Hortonville, Mass.

This Great Medicine is commended to you with an honest desire to aid and benefit you and with a firm belief that it will do all that is claimed. What it has done in the past is an assurance of what it will do. Get it today and sharpen your appetite.

Under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, no change is necessary in Hood's Sarsaparilla to conform to the law or to public sentiment. It is perfectly safe, pure, genuine and reliable.

Sarsatabs are making new friends daily. While last year sales were doubling, this year they are trebling. Sarsatabs are Hood's Sarsaparilla in tablet form and have identically the same curative properties. Of druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. 100 Doses One Dollar. C. I. HOOD CO., Lowell, Mass.

BEAUTY AND BRUTE PART

Mrs. Starr Granted Divorce From Wealthy California Clubman.

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., April 24.—Mrs.
Mabel V. Starr, the young and beautiful wife of Sidney L. M. Starr, wealthy clubman, was granted a divorce yesterday in Judge Lennon's court, at San Rafael, after a very brief recital of crimes which convinced the Judge at once that separation was necessary.
Mrs. Starr was almost hysterical on the witness stand.

A decree was granted after the court had heard the evidence of Mrs. Starr and her mother, which occupied only 15 minutes.

Mrs. Starr testified that they were married on July 8, 1899, and that since March, 1907, she had been living with her mother. With tears streaming from her eyes, she related how her husband had been accustomed to residence, but so isolated from other main away from their apartments in the St. Francis Hotel until an early hour in the morning, night after night, only to return in an intoxicated condition, and then to strike and otherwise mistreat her, as his mood varied.

In consequence of this treatment she had gone to Honolulu, following a three months' attack of nervous prostration, remaining there for some 60 days and returning to San Francisco during February, 1908. Immediately following the fire of April, 1908, Starr had again resorted to the use of liquors, accompanied by a repetition of his former abuse, evincing no inclination or disposition to reform.

Starr offered no evidence, but instead the courtroom his attorney denied the charges. A friendly settlement of alimony will be made.

Mrs. Starr is one of three inseparable beauties, each of whom began suit for divorce within a few days of one another. The others are Mrs.
Harry Blood, of Alameda, and Mrs. Lee Blaisingame, of Oakland. They have been constant friends since girlhood, have always attended the same social functions and were married in the same year.

Los Angeles.—R. B. Davison, cashier of the Los Angeles & Redondo Railroad Company, was held up in his office Thursday last and robbed of $400. The robber overlooked about $7000.

FROMN ON SCOTT'S JUNKET

Senate Military Committee Against Army Post Inspection Trip.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, April 24.—Notwithstanding that Senators and Representatives will be busy in the campaign, Senator Scott of West Virginia is trying to arrange a pleasant junket at Government expense, for the benefit of Senators on the military committee. Senator Hale recently made some rather caustic remarks about the maintenance of unnecessary Army posts, though he had no purpose of seriously pressing his objection. Senator Scott seized upon this opportunity to propose an extended tour for the military committee, which would take them to every Army post in the United States, and possibly into some of the outside possessions—the Senate contingent fund to pay the expenses.

In an off year the committee might stand in for such a junket, but Senator Scott would have difficulty in mustering a quorum to make such an extended tour this summer or fall. Personally, Senator Scott is fond of travel; if he can't travel at Government expense, he pays his own bills; and it looks very much as if he would have to dig down into his commodious pocket-ets for the price of his vacation this year. His committee has not warmed up to his junket proposal.

Scratch Kills Heaviest Engineer.
Philadelphia Inquirer.
It took eight strong men to carry the casket containing the remains of Master Lantry Jr., 38 years old, into his former home. Lantry weighed 400 pounds, and was doubtless the heaviest locomotive engineer in the world. He was employed on the Atlantic City Railroad and pulled the throttle on a 60-minute flyer. He was so broad that he could not sit on the seat in the engine cab. He always stood when on a run between the cities. He had railroaded for 26 years without the slightest accident.

Lantry lived in Atlantic City during the Winter season. While his wife and child were recently visiting relatives he scratched the back of his neck with a collar button and then blood poison developed. His condition became so alarming that a Philadelphia specialist was sent for. The latter advised an operation. While Mr. Lantry was under the influence of ether and about to be operated on, he died.

Germany now has five commercial high schools at Leipzig, Aix, Cologne, Frankfurt and Berlin.
