

COMPLETES ITS FIRST CENTURY Great Gathering of Catholic Hierarchy in Diocese of New York.

PONTIFICAL MASS IS HELD

All but Two Archbishops With Most of Leading Bishops of Nation and Other High Dignitaries of the Church Attend.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Not since the last plenary council of Baltimore has there been such a gathering of the Catholic hierarchy as that which assembled today in St. Patrick's Cathedral and offered public thanksgiving for the completion of a hundred years of Catholicism in New York. With two exceptions every archbishop in the country was present, and all of the leading bishops and numerous heads of religious orders.

Procession of Surplices.

At exactly 11 o'clock hundreds of surpliced clergy filed out of the college in pairs and were followed by some 50 bishops and their chaplains in the many signora clad in their purple vestments. These were followed by representatives of the numerous religious orders, the Jesuits and Dominicans, the Franciscans and the Passionists, the Carmelites and the Benedictines and Abbott Orest, the head of the Trappists of Gethsemane, N. Y.

Reviews Church History.

The cardinal was escorted to the archbishop's throne and there vested for mass. At the end of the gospel Cardinal Gibbons walked slowly to the altar, bowed first to the representative of the pope, Mr. Falconio, then to the Irish cardinal. A moment later Cardinal Gibbons mounted the altar and delivered a masterly and comprehensive discourse, in which he reviewed the history of the Catholic Church in New York and paid tributes to the Irish immigrants.

Letter From Roosevelt.

Letters of congratulation were received from numerous public officials including President Roosevelt. After the services the clergy of the archdiocese gave a dinner to the visiting prelates in the Cathedral College. Addresses were made by Mr. McCready, Cardinal Legate, Archbishop Ryan and other prelates. Mr. Falconio, the apostolic delegate, was the celebrant at pontifical vestings and Archbishop Glennon, the youngest archbishop in America, preached the sermon.
