SEVEN KNOTS CUT

Desertion and Cruelty Grounds for Divorce Decrees.

ALL CASES UNCONTESTED

Six Wives and One Husband Apply to Judge Cleland for Relief From Galling Ties—Two Complaints Filed.

Five divorces were granted by Judge Cleland in the State Circuit Court yesterday on the ground of desertion, and two because of cruelty. All the cases went by default. Anna C. Heatley testified that Lloyd E. Heatley had a habit of staying away from home until unseemly hours of the night. She said that on December 15, 1906, while he was clerking in a store she found him at 11:30 P. M. at the store in the company of a woman she had never seen before. She testified further that one day, while her husband was writing to his mother she suggested that it would be well if he would tell her that he had been drunk the night before. Mrs. Heatley said she was sitting on the bed at the time. Her husband grabbed the bottle of ink, she said, and threw it at her.

In November, 1907, said Mrs. Heatley, her husband left her, and said in the presence of her mother that he was going to California, and would never live with her again. The couple married at Santa Rosa, Cal., February 16, 1906. Mrs. Heatley will resume her maiden name, Scott.

Rose Labell secured a divorce from Frank Labell.

She said he was in the habit of "kicking her like a brute" whenever the fancy struck him. Once he even resorted to the razor strop to beat her, and at another time threw water in her face. She said the only way she could get money to pay household expenses was to "go through" his trousers pockets while he was asleep. She was given the custody of the three children, ranging in ages from 13 to 3 years. The couple married in Multnomah County, December 5, 1895.

Ethelyn L. Bennett secured a divorce from Alva W. Bennett on the ground of desertion. She said they married in Portland, July 18, 1905, and that he deserted her at San Diego, Cal., November 1, 1905. Then he joined the Army, and deserted after four months. He was sent to the Government prison on Alcatraz Island, San Francisco Bay. Mrs. Bennett was permitted to resume her maiden name, Miller.

Other divorces granted were as follows: Eva C. Lewis from Linton S. Lewis, married at Lewiston, Idaho, January 16, 1897. He deserted January 5, 1907.

Ellen Ingman from Olaf Ingman; married August 14, 1898, at Milwaukee, Wis.; deserted February 16, 1907.

Nettie Walters from Robert A. Walters; married April 22, 1901, at Fulton; deserted December, 1905.

W. M. Winans from Blanche Winans; married April 11, 1906; deserted July 23, 1906.

HUSBAND DENIES MARRIAGE

Emory Harpole Declares Wife's Sensational Allegations Untrue.

Not only does Emory Harpole deny that he ever treated Mrs. Anna Harpole with cruelty, but even asserts that he was never married to her and that he is not the father of her 8-year-old girl, Beryl. A motion has been filed in the Circuit Court by attorneys for Mrs. Harpole to compel him to pay $200 for the prosecution of the suit. Mrs. Harpole's complaint alleges that her husband first treated her with cruelty and afterward deserted her.

She asserts that they were married at Salem, April 25, 1899, and that he ordered her away from home at Condon in November, 1906. She says Harpole is worth $4000. She has been compelled to work in a factory at $10 a week, she says, paying $14 a month to keep the child in St. Mary's Academy.

TOOK TO DRINK LATE IN LIFE

Godfried Reisenzahn Sued for Divorce After Many Years.

That her husband has, in the last year, contracted the habit of going on prolonged sprees is the allegation of Mary Reisenzahn, in a suit for divorce from Godfried Reisenzahn, which was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday. The couple were married in Kelberg, Germany, in January, 1882, and moved to America two years later. In 1892 they came to Oregon. Mrs. Reisenzahn does not complain as to her husband's conduct before last year. She says she has been compelled to take in washing to support herself and that she is now employed as a laundress at St. Vincent's Hospital.

The couple have three children living, one being married. The wife asks that she be decreed the owner of a one-third interest in a 160-acre farm near Buxton, said to be worth $3000, besides being granted the custody of the children and $3000 permanent alimony.

Emma Scheurer has filed suit in the Circuit Court to obtain a divorce from William Scheurer, whom she married February 27, 1901. She alleges that he deserted her November 11, 1906.

TOBACCONISTS VIOLATE LAW

Juvenile Court Judge Threatens the Indictment of Dealers.

Five cases in which dealers were accused of having sold tobacco, principally cigarettes, to minors have come before the Juvenile Court during the last week. Judge Gantenbein says that the cases of children smoking are becoming so common that something must be done to put a stop to it, and that the quickest way to do this is to indict the tobacco-dealers. The state law covering this point is explicit. It reads as follows:

It shall be unlawful to sell, barter, trade, give, or in any manner furnish to any minor under the age of 18 years, any tobacco, cigars or cigarettes in any form, or any compound in which tobacco forms a component part, without the written consent or order of such minor's parent or guardian; and when such minor has no parent or guardian, then in that case consent may be given by the County Court, sitting for the transaction of such county business, upon proper application in the county in which said minor may have his residence. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than $5 nor more than $50.

CANNOT DECIDE CASE TODAY

Court's Opinion in Vehicle Tax Suit Not Yet Ready.

The suit of George Long against the City of Portland, in which an injunction is sought to prevent the city from collecting the vehicle tax under an ordinance recently passed by the City Council, will not be decided by Presiding Judge Gantenbein today. He thought early in the week that he would have time before Saturday to consult all the authorities bearing on the subject, but this has not been possible, so the decision will not be handed down until next Wednesday.

The case is important, as the question of whether or not the referendum can be invoked against city ordinances is involved in the suit. A petition was circulated and the required number of signatures secured for the submission of the vehicle tax question to the voters on June 1. Until the vote is taken the city cannot make collections, according to the contention of the plaintiffs. Officials of the city government believe that should the decision hold that the state referendum law applies to measures passed by the City Council it will play havoc with the business done by the Council in the last year.

Judge Cleland, of the Circuit Court, will render decisions in the following cases this morning:

P. A. Marquam against the United States Mortgage & Trust Company and others, motion of plaintiff for leave to file second amended complaint and motion of defendant for a final decree.

Carl Fritsche against Bertha Fritsche and others, demurrer to complaint.

John Dean against Amelia M. Robinson, motion for a decree.

Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company against Multnomah County, demurrer to complaint.

Maurice Barrell against Colburn Barrell, on the merits.

Decisions by Judge Gantenbein will be rendered in the following cases:

R. E. Marshall against P. J. Cook, demurrer to complaint.

D. C. Rogers against City of St. John, demurrer to complaint.

Moy Bow Wing against Carrie Howe and others, demurrer to amended answer.

Charles A. Benbow against the steamer James John, motion to elect.

C. E. Dubois against the Suburban Lumber Company, demurrer to plea in abatement.

Sued by Map-Makers.

The suit of J. P. Wicks and Peter Stevenson, of the Portland Blue-Print Company, against E. A. Tyroll, of the Portland Block-Book Company, is on trial before Judge Bronaugh, of the Circuit Court. The plaintiffs are seeking to recover $410.25 for making 200 cloth maps of Portland. It is the contention of the defendants that the maps were defective.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The depression over British Columbia has developed into a storm of considerable intensity during the last 12 hours and southwest storm warnings were accordingly issued at 6 P. M. to all display stations in this district. Rain has been general over Western Oregon and Western Washington during the day, but none has as yet fallen east of the mountains, though the weather is threatening. Light to moderate rains also fell over California. Temperatures over the Pacific Slope were much lower than last evening, but over the plateau there was little change.

The indications point to rain over this entire forecast district Saturday. It will be cooler east of the mountains.

FORECASTS.

Portland and vicinity—Rain; fresh southerly winds.

Western Oregon and Western Washington—Rain; fresh southerly winds.

Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho—Rain; cooler; fresh southerly winds.

Sale of Farm Land in W. C. Noon Estate

The farm land of the W. C. NOON ESTATE, situated in Columbia County, and comprising over 1500 acres, will be sold by the undersigned, Executors, at private sale. Terms, 20 per cent of price when sale is made, and balance when deed is obtained, in about 30 days thereafter.

This farm is situated at Warren and really comprises three separate places: Copeland place, of about 720 acres; Fullerton place, of about 560 acres, and the Home place, of about 300 acres. Either will be sold separately.

Over four miles of navigable water frontage. Quite a quantity of timber on the places, enough to pay for nearly half of some of them. Barn on home place to hold 100 cows and ten horses. Also granaries, 3 silos, creamery with latest machinery; tank tower for storage of water; calf and hog barns; chicken house with enclosure of five acres. Also dwelling house and barns on different places.

Main dwelling-house at Warren is only a seven-minute walk from railroad station.

THIS PROPERTY MUST BE SOLD TO CLOSE ESTATE. ORDER OF COURT OBTAINED, althorizing sale. A fine opportunity for investment.

Possession given when 20 per cent deposit is made.

Address W. C. Noon and T. J. Armstrong, Executors, at No. 32 First street, North, Portland, Or., or Northup & Northup, Attorneys, Washington Bldg., Portland, Or.
