

HEINZE CAUSES A LAWYER'S ARREST

Charges E. E. Brennan, of Butte, With Attempting to Extort $40,000.

SETS TRAP IN OFFICE

Concealed Detective Overhears Conversation in New York and Then Serves Warrant—Accused Man Once in Magnate's Employ.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Edward E. Brennan, a lawyer of Butte, Mont., was arrested in the office of F. Augustus Heinze late this afternoon, charged with attempting to extort $40,000 from Mr. Heinze. Brennan is 31 years old and his people are said to be prominent residents of Indianapolis. When he was arrested he was held for 48 hours for further examination.

According to a detective of the District Attorney's office who made the arrest, Brennan came to New York several days ago, after having been in communication with Heinze for some time. The complaint which led to Brennan's arrest was made by Heinze to the District Attorney's office yesterday.

Threatened to Inform.

He said that an attempt was being made to extort money from him and that Brennan had told him that he (Heinze) had violated the laws of Montana in some of his copper transactions there. It is charged that Brennan threatened to inform the law if Heinze if not paid $40,000.

The first threats were made by letter, according to Heinze, and getting no satisfaction in that way, Brennan came to New York and visited Heinze in his Broadway office. The detective assigned to the case had Heinze make an appointment with Brennan today. Before the appointed hour the detective concealed himself in a closet where he could see and hear all that was said.

Heinze Gave Him Notes.

According to the police, after a conference Heinze made out three demand notes for $15,000. One note was for $15,000, and two notes for $12,500 each. After these notes had been made out and passed over to the Butte man, the detective placed him under arrest.

Although he had no bondsman in court when bail was fixed at $5000, Brennan said that he thought he could furnish it without any trouble.

Brennan San Francisco Man.

BUTTE, Mont., May 7.—Attorney Edward E. Brennan was counsel for A. B. Clements, former cashier of the Aetna Banking & Trust Company, in whose failure Mr. Heinze was involved. Clements was acquitted of a charge of violating the state laws upon bank incorporations. Brennan was formerly San Francisco attorney, removing to this city two months after the earthquake there. He is a partner now of Attorney E. E. Booth, of Butte, a prominent Republican leader.

JAPAN FILES PROTEST

Objects to Continuance of Boycott by Chinese Merchants.

PEKING, May 7.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Minister to China, has handed in another communication from his Government to the Chinese Foreign Board, protesting against the continuance of the Chinese boycott on Japanese goods arising from the Tatsu Maru incident.

BOYCOTT CANNOT LAST LONG

Japanese Bring Pressure to Bear on Chinese Viceroys.

SHANGHAI, May 7.—The Chinese boycott of Japanese goods, which came about as a result of the humiliation inflicted upon the Chinese people by the Japanese government, in securing that the Chinese have considered an unfair settlement of the Tatsu Maru case, will soon die a natural death. The movement was started by the Cantonese merchants, who endeavored to carry the propaganda into the various parts of China by sending urgent telegrams asking the viceroys to join the boycott. This movement did not succeed on account of the strong position taken by the viceroys, who took several steps to prevent its growth. It succeeded in stopping the Cantonese merchants in Tientsin, Shanghai and Hankow from joining. This attitude by the viceroys doubtless was a result of Japanese pressure upon China. Two societies, one calling itself "The Society of National Disgrace," and the other a woman's organization, were formed to help the movement. Their establishment is of interest, as showing the national spirit as everywhere manifest in China.

Will Not Banish Emperor.

TOKIO, May 7.—Not even a shadow of truth exists for the rumor of the banishment of the Korean Emperor by Japan, high officials of the Foreign Office simply ridiculing its absurdity. The former Emperor, on the earnest advice of Prince Ho, once resolved to come to Tokio to see how the Crown Prince, who is here prosecuting his studies, was progressing, but afterward changed his mind.

tended by a staff, was in command. The splendid array of quick, well-drilled men drew spontaneous applause from the densely packed sidewalks, from the reviewing stands and from the windows of the many tall buildings that fronted the streets along the line of march. The picturesque bluejackets were commanded by Captain Seaton Schroeder, of the Virginia, who soon is to be elevated to the rank of Rear-Admiral.

The broad thoroughfares over which they marched seemed fairly choked with the sailor men as far as the eye could reach, and from the first company to the last the cheering continued. The rolling gait of the sea had been left behind today, and the bluejackets, with eyes to the front, marched in straight marked their firing at Magdalen's targets. American ensigns and ship flags bearing the names of 28 of the greatest States of the Union sparkled in the brilliant sunshine of a cloudless day and uttered in a breeze salt laden with the breath of the sea.

The landing of the great force of sailors and marines involved problems of small boat seamanship and executive ability that was at once a test and triumph of the efficiency of the Navy.

Tonight the streets are thronged with the liberty men of the fleet. The parks are filled with holiday crowds and are gay with music and illuminations. At the Fairmount Hotel the Governor and his staff entertained at dinner in honor of Secretary Metcalf and the flag and commanding officers of the fleet. Admiral Evans was unable to attend, his place being taken by Rear-Admiral Thomas, who responded to the welcome to the Atlantic fleet. A number of informal speeches were made.

Changes Wrought Since Fire.

The route of the parade today lay up Market street from the famous ferry terminals to Van Ness avenue and up the latter to Washington street, where the countermarch began. Officers not marching with ship commands rode in carriages, of which there were 43 in line, and had the best opportunity to observe the many changes wrought by the great fire. Market street was in the heart of the fire and Van Ness avenue practically marked its western boundary, so there was evidence in every block of the new order of things. On their march of a mile and a half up Market street and of three-quarters of a mile on Van Ness avenue the sailors were given an adequate idea of the upbuilding of the city

But Convention Only Instructs Delegates at Large—Bitter Fight Over Election, Which Williams Finally Wins.

BRYAN MEN HINT AT FRAUD

Say Republicans Voted for Johnson in Minnesota Caucuses.

BOSTON, May 7.—With some opposition to instructions in favor of William J. Bryan for Presidential candidate, although such instructions were adopted finally, and with a more decided contest over the selection of delegates-at-large, the Democratic state convention today elected an acrimonious fight began. The nomination of a Senator in this manner has been urged by a faction of the party composed chiefly of Gentiles and nicknamed "The Insurgents." It has been opposed by Senator Smoot and others in control of the regular organization. The regulars have maintained that the move was hostile to Mr. Smoot, whose term expires next Spring.

The speeches, virtually all of them, were in favor of the resolution, but the votes, in like proportion, were against it. Even the regulars were surprised at the completeness of the victory, in view of the fact that the field of argument had been yielded to the enemy. It was a personal triumph for the Mormon Senator.

When Temporary Chairman Daniel D. Houtz said in his opening speech that he had met many "who believed in retiring President Roosevelt from office—four years hence," he opened the flood gates of Republican enthusiasm. It was evident that the assemblage was in accord with those whom the temporary chairman had "met."

SCUTTLED BY HER CREW?

Australian Steamer Sinks at Sea Under Suspicious Circumstances.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 7.—Steamer Aorangi, which arrived this morning from Australia, brought news of the sudden sinking of the steamer Bega, an Australian coasting vessel under suspicious circumstances, and investigations were being held to show whether the vessel had been scuttled by striking seamen, as she was carrying a non-union crew during the recent strike of the coastwise shipping unions.

The Bega was steaming in a smooth sea at night, when she suddenly began to roll, listed to port and foundered in 20 minutes with the sea rushing into her open ports. There were 47 crew and passengers, including 23 women and children on board, and excepting an old man who died from shock, all were saved by the boats and rafts.

News was brought from New Caledonia of the loss of the Dutch ship, Emanuel, Ex Hugo Nolenaar, on the main reef of the F. Terenba, near Noumea. The vessel came down soon after being struck and the hull is full of water and considered a total loss. She was in ballast bound to New Caledonia.

MAKES SUDDEN ESCAPE

Fossil Prisoner Drops His Baby and Leaps Through Window.

FOSSIL, Or., May 7.—(Special.)—A most sensational escape of a prisoner from the county jail occurred here last night. Charles W. Young was about to start his sentence. His wife and little baby called to bid him goodby. Young stood holding the baby, when the Sheriff's attention was distracted for a few moments.

Young dropped the baby, gave a dash through the door and leaped through an open window to his liberty, taking a drop of seven feet. Search was made all night, but up to a late hour today he had not been found.

Chicago.—Mrs. John Alexander Dowle was awarded $400 by the appraisers of the personal property of the late founder of the city, which amounted to $1200. There is also some real estate.

Confusion of Cries for Harmony.

The main contest came on the selection of four delegates and principally over the name of George Fred Williams. For two hours Faneuil Hall resounded with shouts, cries, speeches and motions from various party leaders, and the chairman had difficulty in maintaining a semblance of order. At one time he was obliged to call the police to clear the platform. Some of the speeches were extremely bitter, but all speakers pleaded for harmony.

Compromise on Instructions.

Previous to the meeting of the convention there was a spirited contest within the committee on resolutions over the instruction plank. A compromise was effected and, while the plank was retained, it was modified so as to apply only to the four delegates elected at today's convention. The Bryan advocates wished the instructions to embrace the entire state delegation to Denver. The platform says: "The aim of the Massachusetts Democratic Party is a united party to elect William J. Bryan President of the United States. To this end we instruct the four delegates elected in this convention to cast their vote in the National convention for William J. Bryan."

TART MEN WIN AFTER FIGHT

Elect Kentucky Delegates Against Fairbanks Men's Protest.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 7.—After having controlled the organization and seated their delegates in all save a few of the contested counties, during an all-night session of the committee on credentials, the Tart men were apparently about to put through their state delegates at large without a hitch at today's session of the Kentucky Republican convention, when the programme was endangered and the slate at one time apparently broken by a harmony speech made by Senator-elect William O. Bradley, the Fairbanks leader.

Utah Republicans Support Tart.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 7.—National issues figured but slightly at the Republican state convention today. The 423 delegates cheered mightily a resolution declaring Theodore Roosevelt Utah's first choice for the Presidential nomination and William H. Tart its second choice.

State convention, and from 15 counties

Bryan will have 183. There are still 34 counties to be heard from. It will require 483 votes to control the convention, and on the showing of the returns so far the Johnson men have control.

The Bryan managers claim that in counties which have heretofore been wholly Republican, the Republicans went into the Democratic caucuses to vote for Johnson and were talking today of the possibility of calling a separate convention May 14.

sent to the House of Commons this Spring by the Premier, Mr. Asquith. Instead of by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Mr. Asquith announced that Great Britain's surplus of 1907-08 amounted to $23,600,000, which, he said, would be largely applied to the reduction of the national debt. The national debt, the Premier said, had been reduced by approximately $90,000,000 during the past year. A further reduction of about $75,000,000 will be effected during the current year, and Great Britain's debt would stand at the same figure as 20 years ago.

Some other countries, Mr. Asquith said, which were supposed to enjoy a happier fiscal system than Great Britain, were obliged to borrow yearly to make both ends meet. It was not an unhappy reflection on British conditions that in three years the country had been enabled to pay off between $200,000,000 and $250,000,000 of its debt.

Mr. Asquith estimated the total expenditure for 1908-09 at $744,345,000 and the revenue on the existing basis of taxation at $738,854,000.

Old-Age Pension Scheme.

Coming to the main feature—the matter of old-age pensions—Mr. Asquith said it had been decided to rule out all contributory schemes and provide the pensions from the national treasury. In order that lunatics, criminals and persons now being relieved should be ineligible under the new system, it had been decided to start with a pension of $1.25 a week to persons over 70 years of age in possession of an income under $20 a year. The Premier estimated that the pensioners would not exceed 500,000 and the cost of the scheme would be $30,000,000 a year. It will come into force January 1, 1909. Stringent conditions will be laid down for forfeiture and suspension, and if this was socialism, the Premier declared, it was socialism of a kind that both parties accepted.

As the scheme will not go into effect until January 1, the cost for the current fiscal year will be only $4,000,000, leaving a balance of $18,500,000 out of the estimated surplus of $24,500,000. The Premier said he proposed to reduce the duty on sugar from 4s 2d to 1s 10d per hundredweight, with a resultant loss in revenue of $17,000,000. This, with the old-age pensions, practically exhausts Mr. Asquith's estimated surplus.

Contrary to expectations, the Premier had no new taxes to propose.

Captain Saves From Drowning.

SAN PEDRO, Cal., May 7.—Captain Dettmar, of the steamer Marshfield, rescued John W. Buckley, superintendent of the San Pedro Lumber Company, from drowning last night. Mr. Buckley in going ashore slipped off the plank into the water between the vessel and the wharf. Captain Dettmar seized a boathook and finally rescued Buckley, who was unconscious and was nearly drowned. The captain and his mate worked an hour to resuscitate Buckley.
