INTEREST IN ROSE FESTIVAL
PUBLIC ALREADY BEGINNING TO DISPLAY ATTENTION.
Donations of Trophies for Various Features of Parades Are Received.
Letters of inquiry, telephone messages, and personal calls, showing that widespread interest is being taken in the various competitions of the approaching Rose Festival parades, are reported by the Festival management. Many voluntary offerings of silver trophies, loving cups and other valuable mementoes, to stimulate interest in the displays at the coming Rose Show, have been received. The donors' enthusiasm for the Rose Festival as a permanent annual event in Portland is indicated by the daily letters of inquiry being received by the Rose Festival committee.
The voluntary offerings, from private sources, of cups and trophies, to be of novel and original design, and to attest the contributor's enthusiasm for the Rose Festival as a permanent annual event in Portland in the engraving, will materially assist the carnival management, as the numerous classes to be entered in the various parades, such as decorated carriages, motor cars, pony cars, tallyhoes,

DEBATE ON SINGLE TAX
PROPOSED AMENDMENT DISCUSSED AT MONTAVILLA.
Walter Thomas Mills Speaks for It, and Judge M. C. George Against.
Large Audience Hears Talk.
In his address last night, in opening the debate with Judge M. C. George, at the Oddfellows' Hall, in Montavilla, on the single tax amendment, Walter Thomas Mills, speaking for the amendment, contended that the present system of taxation is wrong and vicious and no change could be for the worse. His argument was based on the theory that by removing the tax on manufacturing concerns, houses and barns and machinery and tools, it would result in industrial establishments pouring into this state and that improvement would be made generally.
Mr. Mills held that the present system of taxation is wrong, in the nature of the wealth is in the cities, but that in the payment of taxes the farmer pays about three-fifths of the taxes and the cities two-fifths. By adopting the single tax amendment, he said, all these inequalities in taxation would disappear.
Mr. Mills spoke for 45 minutes. Judge George followed in a talk of one hour. He held that the present law, enforced, would tend to equality in taxation, and read the law to show that it means that property of all kinds should bear its just proportion of taxation. He pointed out that the proposed amendment is not a single tax measure, but a step in that

CRITICISES WATER BOARD
B. M. Lombard Before Council Committee to Oppose Opening Street.
The City Water Board was severely criticised yesterday afternoon, during a meeting of the Council Committee on Streets, when B. M. Lombard, a well-known and wealthy real estate dealer, charged the members of the Board with ulterior motives in seeking to secure an order opening Halsey street, from Twenty-seventh to Thirty-seventh streets. He was present to oppose such action, and in the course of his remarks, declared that the whole plan was a scheme of the Board to force someone else to pay for an improvement to get a pipe line through. The matter was laid over.
"There is absolutely no need for a street there," said Mr. Lombard, in addressing the members of the Streets Committee. "It is simply a scheme of the Water Board, and is just in line with nearly everything they do. I have made several propositions to the members about that matter and they have paid no attention. It is a case of ulterior motive on their part; a scheme to make someone pay for opening the street, and should not be granted."
