ELLIDTT'S WIFE TESTIFES

Tells of Confession Her Husband Makes to Her of Crimes-Defense Will Rest Case This Morning. Procedure Is Very Rapid.

PRINEVILLE, Or., May 8 .- (Special.) -Nine witnesses for the state in the case of C. Sam Smith were examined this morning in the Circuit Court, and while a large mass of purely circum-stantial evidence was secured, which pointed to Elliott's sincerity, nothing ras uncovered that directly connected Smith with the crime of arson. The testimony showed that the two men were upon terms of intimate acquaint-ance and had been seen together upon the day of the burning of ex-Congressman Williamson's property, but there was nothing to indicate Smith's complicity with Elliott in committing the

The last witness was Mrs. Lark Elliott, who told that her husband had confessed to her the day after the burning the shearing plant that Sam Smith and he had done the work. She corroborated her husband's testimony throughout and was a good witness for

Smith Advises His Son.

George Taylor, the 12-year-old son of one of the jurors, teld on the stand this afternoon that he had overheard a conversation between Sam Smith and his son, Stanley, yesterday after-noon in which the defendant instructed the boy to stand pat and not give any thing away, and the boy promised to be careful. The testimony was admitted and sprung a sensation on the people in the courtroom.

The prosecution closed its case at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon and, after a brief interval, the defense took up its work, those present freely ex-pressing themselves that the prosecution had made only a fair case. The defendant's daughter, Miss Ceole Smith, was a good witness for the defense, denying everything, and cross-examina tion falled to shake her.

Land-Fraud Trials Brought In.

There was some reference made this afternoon to the land-fraud trials of three years ago, when Smith was in dicted on information given by Elliott's charging the then Sheriff with tampering with Government witnesses. same matter was referred to yesterday, having been brought up to show that old spite might have some bearing on this case. The general line of procedure of the defense seemed to be to show that Williamson wanted Smith out of the way so as to secure possesout of the way so as to secure possession of the latter's property at his own figure. On the other hand, there was much testimony to show that Smith was envious of Williamson's prosperous condition and lately made remarks intimating this to different persons. It was the aim of the counsel to point out the witnesses' answers, so far as pos-sible, in these two directions. There was no conspiracy, however, substanrow evening.

For a case of such magnitude, involving, as it does, the integrity of a man highly respected in the community, the Smith case has progressed rapidly. Drawing the jury occupied only two hours yesterday morning, and the rest of the day was taken up by the testimony of Williamson and Elliott. Nearly 20 witnesses were examined today.

TACOMA. Wash. May 8.—(Special.)—Afflicted with attacks of mental aberration during which he is unable to control his actions and will go places and do and say things exactly opposite to his desires. John-Herman, a surveyor, whose home is in Oregon, this affernoon made application at police headquarters for protection, asking that his physicians in Portland be notified of his clans in Portland be notified of "I am troubled with spells of tem porary insanity," said Herman, "and during one of these attacks I ran away from the Mountain View Sanitarium, at Portland, yesterday. When these spells imagined that some one was after me at the sanitarium, and so I quietly skipped out. I had money and boarded a train for Tacoma. When these attacks are not on my mind is as clear as any one's. My reason for applying for pro-tection is that I am afraid another attack will come on and I might go further away."

Physicians at the sanitarium phoned he authorities here to hold the patient until some one called for him. Herman BASEBALL CLUB ORGANIZED Wallowa County, Oregon. He had been in the Mountain View Sanitarium about three weeks when he escaped.

HOLD-UP MEN TAKE $14

At Point of Revolver Compel A. R. Williams to Deliver.

A, R. Williams, living at 847 Cleveland avenue, was made the victim of highwaymen last night, a few minutes after midnight. Mr. Williams was stopped at the corner of Ninth and Glisan streets by two men, who, at the muzzle of a revolver, halted him in fa dark place under a tree and rifled his pockets. The robbers got $14 and some small change. Mr. Williams hurried to the police station and informed the police of the robbery. Captain Balley hurried Patroimen Tenant and Hensen to the scene in the hope of catching the men in the vicinity. Patroiman Hensen is not on regular patrol duty, not having fully recovered from the wound received in the battle with Rathke, Ives and a muiatto named Hull, on the East Side a few weeks ago, in which Hull was killed and Rathke and Hensen were wounded. Tenant also participated in the East Side battle. Hensen accompanied his brother officer last night on the man-hunt voluntarily. A diligent search of the neighborhood, however, failed to reveal any trace of the robbers. Mr. Williams gave an accurate description of his assailants and said that one of them was a negro.

About seven years ago it is said Olaf Lambo was in her service, and upon her looking for another to take his place she was asked where he was, and replied that he had gone to Norway to witness the coronation of the King.

Lamphere made a statement to Mayor Darros, partner of his attorney, a day or two ago, that a man from Chicago, whose name he didn't know, came to the Guinness farm several months ago and remained there for several days. He disappeared suddenly, leaving a trunk and a few belongings behind. Lamphere's questioning Mrs. Guinness as to what had her visitor, she replied that he had gone South for his health, and that probably he would not return. She ordered Lamphere to carry the trunk and other effects of the stranger to an upper story of the farmhouse. Nothing ever heard of this person after he left the Guinness place.

SINISTER FACT REVEALED

Mrs. Guinness Collected Double Life Insurance on Sorenson.

CHICAGO, May 8 .- (Special.) - A sinister fact in connection with the death of Max Sorenson, the first husband of Mrs. Guinness, was revealed today when it became known that he died just one day before an insurance policy, which he had been carrying for some years, would have expired and two days after a second policy, which he intended to substitute for the first, had become

A theory that part of the Guinness farm at La Porte was a private burying ground was advanced today by John arson, a nephew of Mrs. Guinness, residing in this city. The records of the land show that from 1851 to 1873 the land was owned by Dr. B. R. Car, of La Porte, and Larson believes that the bones are those of people buried there by the physician.
The La Porte authorities are now trying to ascertain whether or not Dr. Car had a private burying ground on the place.

DELAY IN FIGHT FOR RATES

Baker City Will Await Outcome of Present Controversy.

Business men of Baker City will not press their fight for a revision of dis-tributive rates over the O. R. & N. lines out of that city until the controversy be-tween the Portland Chamber of Com-merce and the O. R. & N. for a reduction in the same class of tariffs between this city and points east of The Dalles has been decided in the courts. A com-mittee representing Baker City's commercial organizations and consisting of William Pollman, J. W. Stuchell and D. W. French yesterday filed with the Oregon Railroad Commission a petition for the dismissal, without prejudice, of their complaint.

The constitutional rights of the Rail-road Commission to order the reduction in tariffs that has been ordered on complaint of the Chamber of Commerce has been raised by the railroad people who are expected soon to file a suit in the Federal Court to enjoin the enforcement of the new rates until the constitution-ality of the Commission's action can be
