

JOHNSON; NO SECOND CHOICE

Minnesota Democracy Only Has Compliments to Give Bryan.

BOLT DOES NOT HAPPEN

After Vain Attempt to Have Their Man Named as Second Choice, Bryan Men Calmly Take Their Medicine.

ST. PAUL, May 14.—The Democrats of Minnesota today formally endorsed Governor John A. Johnson as Presidential candidate, and at the same time, by a vote of 72 to 166 refused to declare in favor of William J. Bryan as a second choice.

The followers of Mr. Bryan did not carry out the threat which they have so often made during the last 10 days, that they would bolt and hold a rump convention if their contests were defeated before the committee on credentials, or if they were not able to secure a partial endorsement of their leader. They made a sturdy fight for their man and when they had been overwhelmingly defeated, remained quietly in their seats and made no motion to leave.

Several days ago they had gone to the length of leasing a hall two squares from the Auditorium, in which the convention of today was held, for the purpose of endorsing Mr. Bryan and naming a contesting delegation to Denver. The hall was ready for them Friday, but none of them went near it.

Johnson Men Generous.

The Johnson men were generous in their victory and declared in their platform that, while they entertained an affection for and confidence in the integrity and ability of William J. Bryan, they believed that the best man better calculated to bring success to the Democratic party and was first entitled to the support of Minnesota. The convention was a flattering tribute to Mr. Johnson and the enthusiasm for him was unbounded.

The platform as adopted adheres to the principles of Jefferson and Jackson and pledges faithful support to the candidate for President selected at the Denver convention. In conclusion, the platform says:

Indorsement of Johnson.

While maintaining an affection for and confidence in the integrity and ability of Hon. William J. Bryan, we now propose as the party's choice one who, equally worthy, gives greater promise of successful candidacy and is first entitled to our support. In Governor John A. Johnson Minnesota presents to the Nation as Democratic candidate for President a man of ability, integrity and honor, a constructive statesman, who holds no brief for any class, who from early youth has been of such purity, vigor and earnestness as to win him the love, respect and confidence of all who know him. In public life he has, because of his virtue, won the admiration of the people of his state and Nation, and the commendation of life or political faith. We, therefore, nominate as delegates to the National Democratic convention to vote as a unit for him, and to continue so to vote as long as he remains in office, the nomination of John A. Johnson as the candidate for President.

Want Bryan as Second Choice.

A minority report was presented on the Bryan plank by P. J. Knox. He asked that his report be added to the majority report of the committee on resolutions. The minority report was as follows: Resolved, That in pledging our adherence to the candidacy of Johnson, we do not disparage or overlook the great service to the party, the Nation and the world that great commoner, brilliant orator and fearless reformer, William J. Bryan, has rendered to the Democratic party. We instruct the delegates to the National Democratic convention at Denver, in case the nomination of Johnson becomes impossible, to vote for Bryan without variation or exception until a candidate is nominated. The motion of Mr. Knox to adopt the minority report was greeted with loud cheering by the Bryan men and a chorus of "no," "no," from the Johnson men. Before the conclusion of Mr. Knox's speech, Knox was interrupted by cries of "sit down," and "shut up."

No Second-Choice Girl.

T. D. O'Brien, chairman of the resolutions committee, replied in favor of the report as read, saying: This is not a question between Johnson and William J. Bryan, but the Democrats want to put forward a man who will be the strongest candidate for President of the United States. No man who will tell him and tell her that, if she won't have him, he will ask her sister the next day. If Bryan is nominated at Denver, we will give him honest support, but Minnesota is for Johnson and we should let the country know it.

Democrat on Party Issues

Chamberlain Explains His Position to Forest Grove Audience. FOREST GROVE, Or., May 14.—(Special.)—Governor Chamberlain addressed a large audience here tonight in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate. He arrived from Beaverton by automobile at 6 o'clock and was entertained at the Laughlin by a Democratic committee. In addressing the people he said he did not care for the patronage of Congress, but would go there in the interests of the people. He pledged support to the Roosevelt policies and said he did not care whether Bryan, Roosevelt or Taft was elected President. He also made a prediction that if Roosevelt was not nominated that Bryan would surely be the next President. He said he was a Democrat and would on party matters in Congress, stand by them. He gave considerable of his speech to the criticism of H. M. Calks, his opponent. He leaves tomorrow for Carlton and North Yamhill.

Bryan's Daughter to Go on Stump.

CHICAGO, May 14.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Omaha says: In case W. J. Bryan receives the Democratic nomination, his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Leavitt, will take the stump in Colorado, Wyoming and several other Western States, and will campaign in her father's interests. This information was given out in Omaha yesterday by Mayor Dahlgren, who has just returned from Denver, where he has been with other Democratic National committeemen, completing arrangements for the convention. Mrs. Leavitt will confine her efforts to women, and will only stump those states which have woman suffrage laws. She is a forceful and fluent speaker.

Perhaps Another Murder.

SPOKANE, May 14.—The dead body of an unknown man, with his head terribly crushed, was found near Paha, in Adams County, this morning, about 40 feet from the Northern Pacific track. Two men who were seen with the dead man at Paha last night, have been arrested but they have made no statement.

PANDEMONIUM IN MONTANA

TAFT INDORSEMENT FORCED UNDER GAG RULE.

Roosevelt and Hughes Men Make Bitter Fight, but Chairman Denies Them Hearing. BUTTE, Mont., May 14.—The Montana state Republican convention in this city today indorsed the policies of President Roosevelt and instructed its six delegates to the National convention for Secretary Taft, despite the objections of supporters of Governor Hughes and Mr. Roosevelt, who constituted no small part of the convention. Chairman G. M. Miller of Livingston, carried the Taft forces through with an iron hand. When General Charles G. Warren, of Silver Bow, moved to lay the resolutions indorsing Mr. Taft on the table, he was promptly ruled out of order by the chairman, amid the protests of the delegate, who shouted that he would not be bound by the gag rule. Amid a pandemonium of cries and noise, Mr. Miller put the motion to adopt the resolution indorsing the Secretary of War, the chair declared it carried. No chance was given for a roll call by counties.

In the committee a bitter fight was made against the resolution, which was carried by a small margin. O. B. Bannon, of Fossil, who succeeded in gaining recognition, pleaded for independence. When he shouted that three-fourths of the Republicans in his county were for Mr. Hughes, he was howled down by a roll call by counties. The following delegates were chosen to the Chicago convention: Charles R. Leonard, Silver Bow; T. A. Marlow, Lewis and Clark; E. H. Blair, Yellowstone; A. J. Bennett, Madison; J. G. Baird, Teton; Colonel T. F. Malone, Custer.

One resolution states that the Republican party of the State of Montana pledges its support for the passage of a law modifying the power of courts to issue injunctions, urged by President Roosevelt in his recent message to Congress. Colonel Thomas Marshall was elected National committeeman.

ASK FUGITIVE WARRANT

Detectives Try New Tack in the Fullerton Case. SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—The detectives who brought to this city from Seattle Robert W. Fullerton, accused of wronging Miss Gladys Hobart, of New York, made a new move in the case today without waiting for Judge Seawell's decision on the prisoner's application for release on a writ of habeas corpus. Application was made to Police Judge Short for a warrant charging the prisoner with being a fugitive from justice from the State of New York, and asking that he be held until such a decision as the necessary steps can be taken for his return to the place in which the original accusation lies. The complaint filed today makes no mention of Miss Hobart.

Arguments in the habeas corpus proceedings were heard today by Superior Judge Seawell, Attorney Peter F. Dunne appearing for Fullerton, and Assistant District Attorney Cook for the prosecution. Judge Seawell asked the attorneys to submit the matter on briefs next Monday. He will render a decision at that time. Fullerton will remain in the custody of the Sheriff until the case is disposed of here.

Debs received 152 votes. The poll of the votes had proceeded until 194 had been counted and upon that showing it was moved by Victor Berger, of Milwaukee, that the nomination be made unanimous. The motion went through with a deafening shout.

For Vice-President, Hanford received 106 votes. Other candidates were: Seymour Steedman 34, A. M. Simons, Chicago, 29 votes; John Sington, Pittsburg, 15 votes; G. W. Woodby, California (colored), 1 vote; Caleb Lipscombe, Sedalia, Mo., 1 vote.

Washington Republicans Make It Part of Platform.

Elks' Quartet Responds When Result of Vote on Resolution Is An- nounced—Taft and Roose- velt's Policies Indorsed.

SPOKANE, May 14.—The dramatic and unexpected feature of the Washington Republican State Convention today was the adoption of a local option plank by a vote of 506 to 258. A minority report, signed by only four of the 27 members of the platform committee, declared:

"This convention records itself in favor of a reasonable local option bill to be enacted by the next Legislature," and it was adopted with loud cheers. Then came a unique incident: The Elks' quartet of Spokane was in the big armory and had entertained the delegates with a number of songs. A delegate called for the singing of "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" The famous old temperance song was readily given, and a large number of the delegates joined in the song.

The convention adopted unanimously the following resolution for Taft: We recognize in Hon. William H. Taft, of Ohio, a statesman of lofty patriotism. He has proved his genius for public affairs; he is experienced in the public service and is in sympathy with the aims and desires of the people to governmental principles. We want the Roosevelt policies continued and we believe Mr. Taft is pre-eminently the man for the task. We pledge him the support of the Republicans of the State of Washington if he is nominated and we instruct the delegates from this state to vote for his nomination as long as his name shall be before the convention.

With a minor change, under which two of the men slated last night changed from alternate to Presidential Electors, the list of delegates and Presidential Electors as telegraphed last night to the Associated Press was ratified by the convention today. As this state has a direct primary law, the convention had no nominations to make.

RIOT IN ALASKA CONVENTION

Anti-Hoggart Forces Withdraw from Separate Session.

SEATTLE, May 15.—Special cable to the Times from Ketchikan, Alaska, says: "Amid riotous scenes of disorder and confusion the Alaska Republican Convention split last night, with the result that contesting delegations will be sent to the National Convention in Chicago next month. The break came as a result of the credential committee, controlled by Governor Hoggart, refusing to seat the regular delegates from Nome and Fairbanks, and admitting the contesting forces. When they saw things were going against them, the antis assembled in one corner of the hall and proceeded to hold a meeting of their own. L. T. Shackelford, of the Governor's faction, made a lunge for W. T. Perkins, of Nome, for the purpose of putting him out of the hall. A general melee ensued, in which many of the delegates participated.

Above the din, Chairman Murane ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to eject Perkins, and another mix-up ensued. This time it was rougher than before. Finally, cooler heads prevailed and order was restored. The antis decided to retire, holding their convention in other quarters.

The Hoggart convention nominated J. W. Garson, of Nome, for delegate in Congress on the Republican ticket, while the antis indorsed Thomas Cale, present incumbent, who was elected on the Miners' Nonpartisan ticket two years ago.

The Hoggart delegates elected to attend the National Convention are L. P. Shackelford, E. R. Burkhardt, George Shea, E. W. Johnson, Judge S. H. Reid and B. A. Dodge. The contesting delegates of the antis consist of W. T. Perkins, John G. Held, R. S. Ryan, E. W. Johnson, Harry White and C. G. Wulff. Both conventions ratified the platform adopted at Juneau, indorsing W. H. Taft for President several months ago. The Hoggart forces added a plank favoring amendments in the mining laws. The antis declare that all Alaska appointees shall be appointed by municipal control shall be held locally.

NAB HALIBUT POACHER

BRITISH COLUMBIA OFFICERS SEIZE SEATTLE BOAT.

Find Schooner Francis Cutting Fish- ing Within Three-Mile Limit. Steamer Valuable Prize.

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 14.—Found fishing inside the three-mile limit at the north end of Vancouver Island, the American steam halibut schooner Francis Cutting, owned by the Seattle Fish & Cold Storage Company, was seized by the Canadian Fisheries cruiser Kestrel and brought to Vancouver today.

The Kestrel left recently for her summer station, but Commander Newcombe kept a watchful eye and early Tuesday morning sighted the Francis Cutting with her dories out engaged in hooking the British Columbia halibut into American boats. The Kestrel ran alongside and claimed the steamer as a prisoner. No resistance was made, and Commander Newcombe put one of his officers in charge of the prize. The dories were aboard and a line made fast and the long tow to Vancouver started.

Commander Newcombe wired Ottawa this morning and the Dominion government will decide if the vessel is to be confiscated, the owners having the opportunity of fighting it in the courts if they wish to. As the Francis Cutting is a well-built steamboat worth about $20,000, the capture is an important one. The last prize taken by the Kestrel was the Seattle gasoline schooner North, of 46-horse power, brand-new, and on her first trip. She was captured at Quatsino, about two and a half years ago and confiscated by the Dominion government. Her owners fought the case out in the courts and lost and the North was sold at auction.
