TROUBLE IN PARTY

Democrats Break on Selection of Delegates.

INMAN CAUSE OF DISSENT

Wood-Perry Faction Said to Suspect That Proposed Delegate to National Convention Is Not Bryan Supporter.

Members of the central committee were organized through the efforts of Chairman Thomas and his friends in the primary election and it is not representative of the Democratic voters of the county. It was for this reason, they asserted, that a county convention was desired that the party voters might select, indirectly, the delegates that are to go to Denver from this state. The minority element of the central committee alleges that the forces in control of the organization propose to push the candidacy of Messrs. Watson and Inman as delegates to the National convention. Of the eight delegates from this state, the Democratic state convention usually apportions two to Multnomah County, two to Southern Oregon and two to Eastern Oregon, while the remaining two are selected from the state at large. The dissident members of the committee will accept Watson, who is known to be a warm personal friend of Bryan, but Inman's Democracy, when it comes to supporting Bryan, they insist is questionable. The committee is a unit on one thing and that is that the Democrats of this state shall send a delegation to the Denver convention with instructions to support Bryan first, last and all of the time. While the Democrats here do not regard Governor Johnson as a dangerous rival, they do not propose to support Bryan first, last and all of the time. It is charged against Inman that in 1898 he was a strong McKinley supporter and the disappointed committeemen profess not to have any satisfactory knowledge that he has since returned to the Democratic camp and can be depended upon to stand by the wishes of his party as expressed in the state convention, with or without specific instructions. However, the 35 delegates have not selected any choice for delegates and by the terms of a motion adopted at the meeting Saturday night, will not make any recommendations until the day of the Denver convention. The other side is reported to be suspicious of Inman's Democracy and declares that the present organization of the central committee was effected to boost the candidacy of Inman among other things. The anti-Inman crowd in the committee meeting did not stand any more chance of accomplishing anything than did the handful of Bryan delegates in the late Republican state convention. The county organization, by its committee on resolutions, proposed a resolution directing that the central committee select Multnomah County's quota of 38 delegates to the state convention. Mr. Peery proposed an amendment providing that the central committee should select delegates from Portland and all Oregon points to Newport and return May 18 and 19. WOULD CONTROL SESSION

STATEMENT ONE FORCES FIGHT FOR LEGISLATURE.

Democrats Are Allied With Foes of Anti-Statement Republican Nominees.

Vigorous efforts to give control of the next Legislature to the Statement No. 1 forces are being made by Democrats and by Republican foes of anti-Statement Republican nominees. And because H. M. Calk, Republican nominee for United States Senator, refuse to join the fight on the anti-Statement nominees of his party, a considerable part of the combined forces are fighting him. Although Senator Bourne professes to be a steadfast champion of Statement 1, his followers say he is supporting the Republican ticket, even including the anti-Statement nominees. Bourne's attitude is declared inconsistent by the combined Democrat-bolting Republican forces, but the Bourne men make answer that he pursued the same policy two years ago. Lacking but three or four members of a majority of the next Legislature—provided all the Statement One nominees shall be elected, which seems certain, the Statement One men are striving to win the needed members, chiefly in Washington and Yamhill Counties. There is a combined movement against the "Republican voters' choice" nominees of the Republican party. Opposition candidates have been nominated in mass convention and an organized effort is being made to elect them. The same work is being done in Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler Counties. With Yamhill County is joined Tillamook in joint legislative districts. In these six counties are ten Republican nominees to Statement One and pledged to vote for the Republican choice for United States Senator. In these counties the two sets of candidates are as follows: Washington County—Anti-Statement No. 1, for Representatives, S. A. D. Meek, Charles Hines, H. D. Green, Statement No. 1, C. E. Hedge, William Schumacher, N. L. Burnell. Anti-Statement No. 1, for State Senator, Dr. W. D. Wood. Statement No. 1, Arthur N. Cutting. Yamhill County—Anti-Statement No. 1, for Representatives, F. K. Jones and J. W. Bower. Statement No. 1, John G. Eokman, Republican; M. F. Corrigan, Democrat. Tillamook-Yamhill—Anti-Statement No. 1, for Representative, A. G. Beale. Statement No. 1, Sam Laughlin. Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler—For Representatives, R. F. Pike and B. N. Donnelly (anti-Statement No. 1); W. T. Jackson and W. T. Martner (Statement

SOUVENIR BOOK ISSUED

"A Week of Roses" Designed as Programme for Festival.

A neat little souvenir book-programme for the Rose Festival has been issued by Miss Marion Cook, called "A Week of Roses." It is designed not only to take the place of a programme, but after the schedule of each day's events, is a place for memoranda, where the visitor may jot down his impressions of Portland and the Rose Festival. On alternate pages are views of Portland taken from unusual vantage points. Appropriate to the week are verses descriptive of the various kinds of roses that are grown in Portland. Most of these are from well-known poets. The little books will be on sale at many places, and a window display has been put in Gill's book store. Miss Cook is the author of "Where Flows Hood River," a book of verse that is having a good sale locally.
