AMUSEMENTS.

HEILIG THEATER (Fourteenth and Washington)—At 8:15 tonight, Francis Wilson in the comedy, "When Knights Were Bold." STAR THEATER (Park and Washington) The Allen Stock Company in "The Greys" tonight at 8:15. Matinee Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday at 2:15.

THE OAKS—Tyrolean yodlers and open-air acts.

COTTEL SAYS HE'S HAUNTED.—Councilman Cottle wears a dejected, haggard expression on his usually beaming countenance these days. He says he is deeply troubled, since introducing his colleague's proposed ordinance, forbidding spiritualist-mediums, clairvoyants and kindred practitioners to engage in their business here, he says he has suffered intensely.

DEATH OF FRANK H. CLARY.—Frank H. Clary died at his residence, 790 Lovejoy street, yesterday at 12 o'clock, aged 53 years. His wife and three daughters, Misses Anna, Katherine and Florence Clary, survive him. Mr. Clary was a native of New York State and came to Oregon from Lansing, Mich., three years ago.

WILL DELIVER PIPE WHERE WANTED.—At a special meeting of the City Water Board yesterday morning, a representative of the United States Cast Iron & Steel Company, of Chicago, announced that his employers would agree to deliver at any point in Portland a shipment of 100 tons of steel pipe.

DR. LANDON ON "LORD'S SUPPER."—At the meeting yesterday of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association, Dr. Warren H. Landon, president of the Presbyterian Theological Institute of Oakland, Cal., read a paper on "The Institutional Character of the Lord's Supper."

GERMAN ALLIANCE PICNIC.—At a meeting last night, the German Alliance decided to choose another date for its picnic at The Oaks, which had been scheduled for May 23. It was the opinion of the members present that the date fixed is too close to the present day and another date will be chosen later.

REAL ESTATE CLUB TO MEET.—The Peninsula Real Estate Club will meet this morning at 9 o'clock in the engine house on Albina avenue to consider plans to make that portion of the city prominent during the Rose Festival.

RECEPTION TO TAYLOR-STREET CHURCH LADIES.—The reception to be given to the ladies of the Taylor-street Church by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon of this week has been postponed until some future time, owing to the death of A. A. Clary, an honored member of Grace Church.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY BOARD MEETS TODAY.—The regular meeting of the Women's North Pacific Board of Missions will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church. Reports will be rendered and letters read from missionaries in the field.

ARCHITECTS COMPETING FOR A $500 PRIZE in design for North Albina High School must file their names with School Clerk Allen, City Hall, and receive programme for competition before 5 o'clock P. M., Wednesday.

OPENING OF THE JEWETT FARM, WEDNESDAY, MAY 20.—Guests can come by the North Bank Railroad, or by either of the steamer lines, and will be met by hacks. Absolutely no connection.—The closing of the J. M. Achesson Company store does in no way affect Hamburger's Millinery Department; same is open as usual.

STREAMER BARKLEY LEAVES FOR CASCADE LOCKS and The Dalles daily, except Friday. Leave Alder-street dock 7 A. M. return 9 P. M.

FOR RENT—A few nice offices in The Oregonian building. See Superintendent, room 20.

BUSINESS MEN'S LUNCH, 11:30 to 2. All home-cooking. Woman's Ex. 132 10th st. Dr. McCracken, dentist, Rothchild bldg.

OBJECT TO STEEP GRADE.—The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company objects to the steep grade on Gladstone avenue, through Kentworth, and may change its Woodstock branch by routing its cars directly north to the Waverly-Richmond line. An inspection of this new route was made Saturday. An effort is being made to change and cut down the grade where it is objectionable. The high point is near the Kentworth Presbyterian Church, and it was not known that the grade at this point had been raised until the improvement of Gladstone avenue was started. Then it was ascertained that the change had been made. T. H. Compton and others are now working to get the grade changed and a waiver is being circulated among the property owners to get their consent.

AID SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING TONIGHT.—The 23rd annual meeting of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society will be held tonight in the parlors of the Associated Charities, 265 Jefferson street, at 8 o'clock. A most interesting meeting is anticipated, as the programme will include, besides the reports of the officers, an address by Professor T. C. Davis, of the Portland High School, and a paper on "Ethics in Charitable Work" by Mrs. Millie R. Trumble. It is sincerely trusted that all those interested in charitable work will make it a point to be on hand. Manager Baker invited about 30 of the older children to attend the report of smallest in their care, very much enjoyed the performance and the management desires to thank Mr. Baker for his kindness.

VIOLATE HEALTH ORDINANCE.—On warrants issued by Judge Cameron, of the Municipal Court, at the request of City Health Officer Pohl, two persons were arrested last night because of their failure to report cases of smallpox in their care, in violation of the city health ordinance. One of the men accused is Dr. O. A. Thornton, of 76 1/2 Thurman street, and the other, F. W. Urquhart, of 19 Thurman street. Dr. Thornton is accused of failing to report the case of one of his patients, and Urquhart is accused of failing to report the case of his own 11-year-old daughter. The physician was released on $30 bail. Urquhart was released on his own recognizance.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO MEET.—The executive committee of the Peninsula Rose Festival Association will meet tonight with the association at the Library rooms at Peninsula Station. This committee represents all sections and is as follows: W. J. Peddicord, L. E. Selburg, M. E. Thompson, F. D. Gilpatrick, J. M. Lovelley, M. C. Van Fossen, J. E. Gregg, G. P. Lent, J. F. Hendricks, George B. Frank, L. B. Savvie, C. E. Patton and H. A. Ruble. A full attendance of all interested is desired at this meeting. It is desired to interest every resident in the movement to take part in the Rose Festival.

FOWL PLAY SUSPECTED.—A. Reed, said to be a sober and industrious carpenter, has mysteriously disappeared from the Union Hotel, 81 North Sixth street. The case was reported to the police yesterday morning by the proprietress of the hotel, who had been waiting since May 8 for Reed to return to his unoccupied room and claim his belongings. Fowl play is suspected, since Reed usually carried considerable money on his person. The police have detailed two officers to look into the case. Reed is described as about 24 years of age, of light complexion and clean shaven.

EXCEEDED SPEED LIMIT.—A complaint charging that car No. 310, on the S line, exceeded the speed limit Saturday on Corbett street was issued by the Municipal Court yesterday forenoon on complaint of Patrolman Burke. The complaint recites that the car was operated at a greater speed than 12 miles an hour, endangering the lives of passengers and pedestrians. John Doe Lewis is named as the motorman and the case will be heard Tuesday.

CHARGES THEFT OF WHISKY.—Guy Switzer, keeper of a Sixth-street saloon, was arrested late yesterday afternoon on a charge of larceny. The charge was preferred by Jerome Steward, who says he bought Switzer's stock and then, while he was out securing a bill of sale, Switzer appropriated 34 bottles of whisky and 100 cigars. Switzer was released on bail.

PLAN ANNEXATION RALLY.—The Mount Scott Annexation Club will hold an annexation rally tonight at Woodstock Hall. Annexation will be voted on at the June election. E. S. J. McAllister and others will make addresses and there will be a musical programme. Frank Hennessy will sing and there will be other numbers on the programme.

RECEPTION TO TAYLOR-STREET CHURCH LADIES POSTPONED.—The reception to be given to the ladies of the Taylor-street Church by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church on Wednesday afternoon of this week has been postponed until some future time, owing to the death of A. A. Clary, an honored member of Grace Church.

WAVERTY-RICHMOND CLUB.—The Waverly-Richmond Improvement Association will meet tonight at the home of M. J. Morse, East Twenty-eighth and Tazewell streets, for general business, and to act on the invitation to send a delegation to the federation banquet.

OPEN AS USUAL.—The closing of the J. M. Achesson store does not affect Hamburger's Millinery Department; same will continue in business in their present location.

THE ONLY PLACE WHERE YOU CAN GET THE kind of meat you want, so fresh and pure, is at Smith's. Read Smith's ad—back page.

WEAR UNITED HATS, 32, 7th and Wash.

EXCURSION CANCELED.—The excursion to Ilwaco and North Head on the steamer Potter, that was announced for tonight, for the purpose of witnessing the fleet, has been called off. Telegraphic advices from headquarters report conditions as not altogether favorable at the other end of the line, and rather than risk the comfort and pleasure of the excursionists, it has been decided best not to attempt the trip.

Flour Millers Want Oregon Wheat.—Flour millers of Utah and the Middle West want Oregon wheat. With a shortage in that territory, the flour manufacturers have petitioned the railroads for reductions in the rates that will permit the shipment of Oregon wheat by rail for milling in the East. The O. R. & N. line east of The Dalles to Utah commences points. The rate will be 40 cents on wheat and 50 cents on flour. The reduced tariff will also apply to points west of Utah where rates are now
