PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT

Big Night Parades and Grand Water

A mistaken impression as to the character of this feature of the festival was held for some weeks, in that it was supposed that only ships in the harbor would take part in the review. This is not the plan that is being carried out. While the shipping will take an important part in the display, the parade from the Madison bridge to the Steel bridge will be participated by all wannes of craft. pated in by all manner of craft.

Floats and scows are to be anchored at intervals along the course, on which a continuous glare of redfire will be pro-duced, and from which rockets and bombs will be sent up. It is said at head-quarters that views of the water parade may best be obtained from docks and reached with the Board of Education.

Mr. Biglow was out with the finance committee yesterday and met with encouraging success. He was informed yesterday by City Attorney Kevanaugh that the $500 appropriation made for the East Side decoration would not be avail-able, as it was illegal, but that will not interfere in the least with the preparations under way.

City Attorney Gives Opinion on Rose Festival Donations.

Another interesting conflict of views that hide fair to bring about a long fight between Meyor Lane and the majority between Mayor Lane and the imajority faction in the City Council made its appearance yesterday morning, when City Attorney Kavanaugh gave an opinion as to a recent appropriation of funds for decorating East Side streets. Mr. Kavanaugh naugh holds the action of the legislative body to be illegal, and in this connec-tion it is said that the Council's appro-priation of 1989 for a floral arch at Sixth and Hoyt streets is likewise with-out due authority under the charter. The floral arch is being built by N. C. Gorman, and he said without hesitation yesterday that he will proceed to com-plete the work, which will be June 1. It is, therefore, simply a matter of who will pay the contract price, which is Mayor Lane holds that, under the charter, the Councilmen are liable for any such appropriation of public funds and that they must pay the bill, while others declare that the Mayor and
