After naming a committee on agenda that is to say, things to be done at the annual convention in June, the commitannual convention in June, the commit-tee conference of the Episcopal church for the diocese of Oregon concluded its deliberations and adjourned yesterday will compile a report of the proceed-ings of the conference to be submitted to the convention for its ratification at its meeting Tuesday, June 23. The members of the committee are: Rev. Barr G. Lee, J. H. Amos and Dr. S. E. Josephi. The sessions of the June con-vention will be held in St. Stephen's church. The International Clericus will onvene today in the Pro-Cathedral of St. Stephen's church and the opening sension of the Primary Council of the Highth Missionary Department, the most Important of the sories of meet-ings for the week, will be held in Trin-ty church tonight.

The sensions of the conterence were resumed yesterday with carnest ad-dresses on the Board of Missions and its work. Rev. John Dawson, of the Church of the Good shepherd, empha-sized the fact that stipends of all mis-sionaries should be increased to a minsionaries should be increased to a min-imum of $346 per annum, and that no discrimination should be made. In an earnest and vigorous address he pointed out the missionary opportunity at Al-bina and the growth of the East Side. Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of St. Mary's church of Eugene, followed, ex-plaining the reason why parishes at educational centers are for the present receiving assistance. He emphasized the importance of earnest efforts being made among the students at Eugene, who, he said, are responsive.

Veteran Missionary Talks.

Rev. William Horsfal, for 18 years the single missionary of the Episcopal church in Coos and Curry countles, where he is in charge of eight missions. The remarks of Mr. Horsfal served to arouse the enthusiasm of his auditors on the subject of missions, and the speaker was warmly applauded. Frank speaker was warmiy applauded. Frank Splittle, lay delegate from Astoria, brought up the subject of general clergy relief, and explained the plan of raising $5.003,000 as a permanent en-dowment fund for this society. Rev. F. W. Williams, for the Sunday School Commission, presented a report which was discussed fully. was discussed fully.

bishop of Salt Lake, attended the con-ference and made short addresses. An important feature of the proceed-ings was the report of the finance com-mittee, which disclosed a condition that The members of this condition that gave the representatives of the church in this diocese great encouragement. The members of this committee were: Dr. George B. Van Waters, James Laid-law and C. N. Huggins. Their report follows:

"We note with gratification that the parishes and missions of the diocese have in most cases paid their assessments in full, and that a considerable number have given more for the dio-cesan missions than the bishop asked for and that the amount of contributions by the diocese for its missionary fund

Bishop to Visit England.

Rishop Scadding made the following announcement regarding important gatherings of Episcopal bishops in Cannot Appropriate City Funds for England in June and July:

gatherings of Episcopal bishops in England in June and July: This year the Lambeth Conference mests at Lambeth Palace in London. It is a gath-ering of all the bishops of the Auglean Church all over the world for conference, and is hold only once in the years. It is by years since thegon was represented, Bishop Moris having attended in 1885. Tortunstey the cash value of a life in-marance policy, carried by the Bishops, which becomes paid up this year, enables him to mean the expenses of the tip, and makes it possible for the dioeses of Oregon to be rep-resting by the bishop at both the Pan-Ar-pather the dioeses of the langest the balantic conference, to be held in July. #### Notice to Mariners.

S. B. Colvin, of Florence, Lane Co., Oregon, was advised by his doctor to come to Portland and be operated upon. He arrived here a few days ago and registered at the Esmond Hotel and while there learned of Van Damme's kidney cure tea. He secured two bot-ties and was greatly relieved, and decided that an operation was not necessary. Before he left for home he took a supply of the tea for himself and wife, and since then he has written, saving that he was feeling fine.
