FIGHT CLOSE AT ST. JOHN

"Wets" Oppose Prohibition While Clarendon Tavern Remains Open.

St. John citizens are nearly evenly divided on the question of "wet or dry," with the wets perhaps a little in the lead, because of the fact that St. John will be practically wet, even if voted dry, while the revenue from the saloons will be lost. License will be sold across the river at Clarendon tavern and other road houses, and also in Portland, thus giving those desirous of drinking free access to liquor at all times, while St. John will still have to pay the cost of policing the town against imported "jags."

A petition has been prepared for presentation to the Board of Trade at University asking voters in precinct 8 to vote wet in order that they may not force St. John to go dry against the wishes of its citizens.

Small tax shone at Rosenthal's.

FRANK L. SMITH MEAT COMPANY

226 Alder St., Between First and Second Sts. "FIGHTING THE BEEF TRUST"

There is not a food on the face of the globe that needs to be as fresh as fish. Smith's fish arrive daily and are sold immediately. From the fish-hook to the frying-pan is Smith's hobby. Special attention is called to our Shad at 6c per pound. We sell many hundred pounds every day.

It is extraordinarily good at this season of the year. Eat it now.
