SEVEN MEET DEATH

Gasoline Launch Explodes and Passengers Drown.

EXCURSION BY MOONLIGHT

Happy Party on River in Arkansas Broken Up When Tank of Launch Explodes—All Stunned and but Few Can Swim.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 20.—A dispatch to the Gazette from Clarendon, Ark., says:

Seven prominent young society people were drowned last night when the tank of a gasoline launch in which they were going for a moonlight excursion exploded, wrecking the boat. Other members of the party were rescued with difficulty. The drowned were:

Miss Lillian Winfield, of Clarendon, Ark.
 Miss Alma Pette, St. Louis, Mo.
 Mattie Counts, of Clarendon, Ark.
 Miss Bessie Palmer, of Kansas City, Mo.
 Miss Alma Burton, of Helena, Ark.
 Joseph McManus, of Clarendon, Ark.
 Dr. A. L. Houston, of Clarendon, Ark.
 One of those rescued, Miss Mary Givett, was severely burned.

The boat left Clarendon early in the evening, bearing a merry party, who had planned to go several miles down the river. When about five miles below Clarendon the tank of the launch exploded. Few could swim and some were stunned by the force of the explosion and went down before the swimmers in the party could make an effort at rescue.

The survivors were found on the river bank by runners dispatched from here because of the prolonged absence of the party.

The boat was a gasoline launch about 30 feet long and capable of seating 20 or 30 people. It was owned by E. A. Farber, one of those on board, who saved the lives of several of the women.

CONVENTION HALL READY

Denver Completes Preparations to Entertain Democrats.

DENVER, Col., May 20.—Preparations for the National Democratic Convention have been practically completed. Work on the new auditorium has been hurried until nothing remains to be done but to place the seats in position. Those in charge of the convention for the national committee say that the requests for seats are easily twice as numerous as at any convention the Democratic party has ever held.

Admission tickets to the general public will provide for seats in certain specified sections to which the ticket holders will be directed by ushers. In this manner confusion and noise will be eliminated. It is estimated that at each session of the convention 14,000 people will be provided with seats. The National Committee will hold a meeting in Denver in the latter part of June and decide upon the temporary chairman. The decorations for the National Convention will be the most elaborate that have ever been attempted in Denver. Electrical effects will be conspicuous in the decorations, and flags and bunting will be used in a lavish manner.

Native School for Chinese.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A Chinese school where the children of local Chinese may be educated in Chinese is to be built in this city at once. A site has been purchased, plans drawn and teachers selected. It will be the only school of its kind in this country. The school will be built with $50,000 of the $100,000 relief fund sent to this Chinese colony after the fire of April 18, 1906. Mr. Lian, of Pekin, who has been appointed a special commissioner to supervise the work, is now in the city. Mr. Lian says the reason the Chinese Government was prompted to undertake the project was the fact that there is no school in this country where Chinese scholars can acquire a practical or higher education in the Chinese language.

BODY IS WOMAN'S

Coroner Settles Doubts as to Mrs. Guinness' Death.

NEW EVIDENCE IS FOUND

Lamphere's Movements on Night of Fire Traced and His Alibi Destroyed—Verdict on Victims of Murderess.

LA PORTE, Ind., May 20.—Coroner Mack late this afternoon rendered an official verdict declaring the adult female body found April 28 to be Mrs. Belle Guinness, and that she came to her death through felonious homicide, the perpetrator being unknown.

The coroner intimated today that he would find that the causes of death of the 14 victims of the Guinness farm are unknown.

The body of Jennie Olsen, of Chicago, was laid at rest this afternoon beside the body of Andrew Heiglein, another alleged victim of Mrs. Guinness.

turned to the home of Elizabeth Smith after setting fire to the Guinness house and then made a second start for the Wheatbrook farm, where he was employed, is a new theory advanced by the state. The prosecution professes to have discovered evidence that not only was Lamphere seen to go toward the Guinness house at about 2:30 on the morning of April 28, but that after returning to the Smith house he made a fresh start for the country about an hour after the first departure, but that on his second trip he took the Guenther road, from which he could have seen the fire.

If the state is able to fully support this theory it will be a blow to Lamphere's defense, for the accused is somewhat relying on an alibi that would show that he went north that morning on the Guenther road about an hour after the fire was started.

ATTACKS A YOUNG GIRL

Aged Pin Peddler Assaults Daughter of Ellsworth Pickel.

M'GREGOR IS COLLECTOR

Report has been made by Ellsworth Pickel, who resides at 1029 East Madison street, that an old man, posing as a peddler of pins and needles, called at the Pickel residence yesterday and made an attack on his 14-year-old daughter, who happened to be alone in the house at the time. The identity of the man is not known, but a description of him has been furnished the police, who are now looking for him.

According to the story told to the police, the attack was deliberate and had been well planned. Finding the young girl alone, the old man plied her with questions about her neighbors. The girl who had answered the door bell and stood talking to the man in the hallway, finally resented his pertinent questions and told him that she had been brought up to mind her own business. "You have, have you," cried he, and with that he grabbed her by the throat. The girl struggled free and screamed. Her cry was heard by Mrs. Green, a neighbor, who hastened over in time to see the old man run away.

The police are said to have discovered the identity of the man and will probably make an arrest in the case today. So many cases of attacks upon young girls have been reported to the police within the past few days that an edict has gone forth from police headquarters that any person found accosting children on the street or peddlers who are too insistent with their wares are to be summarily arrested.

KILLS NEWSPAPER MAN

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, May 20.—The President today sent to the Senate the nomination of William F. McGregor, of Astoria, to be Collector of Customs at that port. This evening the Senate confirmed the nomination.

Mr. McGregor was selected by Senator Fulton over a month ago, and endorsed by the delegation, but the appointment was held up because of a letter written to the President objecting to the appointment. The writer of this letter, whose name cannot be learned, was instructed to send on any facts he had tending to disqualify Mr. McGregor, but he never replied. After waiting a reasonable time, the President nominated Mr. McGregor.

Out of compliment to Mr. Fulton, the nomination was confirmed the day it came in.
