R. H. DUNN SERIOUSLY ILL.—Since last Monday Richard H. Dunn, of real estate dealers, has been confined to his home, 107 Belmont street, as the result of a paralytic stroke. He had been at a sanatorium for some days under treatment for stomach trouble, but was advised to return home when his ailment assumed a serious nature. He has been engaged in the real estate business in Portland for 25 years and is 59 years of age.

OREGON LIFE IN FINE SHAPE.—Consulting Actuary Paul L. Woolston has completed an examination of the Oregon Life Insurance Company of Portland, on behalf of the Oregon insurance department and in a letter to General Manager Samuel of the company, Commissioner Benson sets forth that the company is in fine condition in every respect. A complete copy of the report can be examined at the office of Oregon Life.

RETURNS WITH HIS BRIDE.—Rev. and Mrs. John Glen, who were married last week in San Diego, Cal., have arrived in Portland, and are now installed in the parsonage of the First Free Methodist Church, East Ninth and Mill streets. Dr. Glen was pastor of this church for three years and then spent one year as an evangelist. His bride, Mrs. Clarkson, of San Diego, where he was pastor for several years.

RALLY TONIGHT AT NASHVILLE.—Voters of the Nashville section reached the city of Scott line, are to meet tonight in the hall on Millard avenue. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Democratic County Committee, and the principal speaker is to be John H. Stevenson, Deputy District Attorney. Mr. Stevenson will be followed by short talks by District Attorney, Commissioner Tom Ward, E. S. J. McAllister and others.

PYTHIAN SISTERS' CONVENTION.—The district convention of the Pythian Sisters will be held today in Knights of Pythias Hall. The district conveners are Mrs. C. J. Portland, Hillsboro, Tillamook and St. John. The convention will meet at 10 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Mae Gevirtz, district deputy, will preside at the afternoon session which will also be held. This convention is held as a school of instruction.

COURT W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE.—Among the subjects to be discussed at the County W. C. T. U. Institute, Friends Church, East Thirty-fifth and East Main streets, tomorrow, will be "Christian Citizenship," by F. B. Rutherford, and "Health and Heredity," by Dr. Esther Pohl. In the evening Walter Thomas Mills will address the institute on different phases of the temperance question.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB.—The East Side Business Men's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, on the second floor of the Healy building, corner Grand and East Main streets. Final arrangements for the parade of march of the automobile parade and the programme of the East Side night of the Rose Festival, June 4, will be made.

WILL LECTURE TO WOMEN.—Miss Jean S. Edmunds, of New York, will give an illustrated talk to the women of the Church of Good Tidings, corner East Eighth and Couch streets, at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Miss Edmunds' experience as a nurse in the Philippines and in the foreign mission field insures an interesting hour for all to attend.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. MEETS.—At the meeting of Central W. C. T. U., yesterday afternoon, Mrs. M. L. Christian concluded a parliamentary drill. It was announced that a county institute will be held at Sunnyside Friday. Next week there will be a musical programme in charge of Mrs. O. P. U. Jamieson and Mrs. J. L. Cobb.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING.—The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Women of Woodcraft Hall. There will be no programme visitors are not expected. A business meeting and the annual election will be the order of the day.

BODY SENT TO KANSAS CITY.—The body of Mrs. Lillian O. Nelson was shipped to Kansas City, Mo., last night, that being the former home of Mrs. Nelson who died at 225 East Yamhill street, May 8, at the age of 24 years. Mrs. Nelson is survived by her husband, James A. Nelson.

FUNERAL OF LEO A. HEITKEMPER.—The funeral of Leo A. Heitkemper, who died at his home 27 Grand avenue Monday, was held yesterday morning from St. Francis Church, East Oak and 10th streets. He was 25 years old, had lived in Portland ten years and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Heitkemper.

MEMORIAL PRISONS PROMPTLY.—Blissing Granite Company, Third and Madison streets, have 200 monuments and markers ready to letter, and a large force of skilled workmen capable to letter and erect your orders in time for Memorial day.

LECTURE ON YELLOWSTONE PARK.—A free lecture on Yellowstone Park will be given at the Marshall Street Presbyterian Church, Marshall and 10th streets, by Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Sellwood, Friday at 8 P. M.

In the Gospel Hall, 48 East Eighth street, South meetings are being conducted every evening this week (except Saturday) at 7:45 by C. W. Ross, of Kansas City, Mo., and James H. Ross, of Everett, Wash. * BROOKLYN CLUB DEFERRING.—Officers for the year will be elected at the meeting of the Brooklyn Republican and Improvement Club tonight, which will be held at 577 1/2 Milwaukee street, corner of Powell.

NOSE BROKEN IN ACCIDENT.—William Johnson, a young man employed as a driver by the Portland Electric Light Company, met with a strange and extremely painful accident yesterday afternoon in the yards of the company's plant. Johnson was unloading wood from a wagon operated by an automatic unloading device which is turned by a crank. While turning the crank handle, it flew out of his hand and the great weight of the loaded wagon bed pressing down on the wooden beams sent it backward with terrific force. It struck Johnson in the face, breaking his nose and other bones and frightfully disfiguring him. Bleeding and unconscious he was carried to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where it was announced that, although in a serious condition, he probably would not die from his injuries.

CAUSES NEIGHBOR'S ARREST.—Joe Verando, an Italian, and Carl Schachinger, a German, are neighbors on the Patton Road where they both own property on the same landlord. Last night Schachinger had Verando arrested as a result of a neighbor's quarrel. The landlord although having secured Verando's property, provided but one gate for the two houses and this gate directly in front of Verando's door. The German family always has been very friendly and no other alternative save climbing the fence, to which the women objected. Verando has frequently objected to the use of this gate save by his own family and this contention culminated yesterday in the interchange of back-door compliments and a warrant for the Italian's arrest.

CASES LAWYER VERTZ ILL.—Daniel C. Millett, a prominent lawyer of Chehalis, Wash., is a patient in the Good Samaritan Hospital, dangerously ill with a complication of heart troubles, which are said to threaten his life. Mr. Millett had been ill at his home in Chehalis for some time, but his condition grew so much worse yesterday that he was being held and him removed to this city and to a private room in the hospital. Mr. Millett is well known throughout Washington and has many friends in this city.

LAWYERS TO DINE MAY 26 Bar Association Will Hold Dinner at Commercial Club. Lawyers J. F. Boothe, Harrison Allen, Frank Schlegel, A. P. Tift and John K. Kollock compose a committee appointed by the Multnomah County Bar Association on entertainment for the next regular monthly meeting of the association, which is to be held on the night of Tuesday, May 26, shall be marked with several new features. It will be a subscription banquet and will be given at the Commercial Club, beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

The committee, at its next conference, will select one of the members of the association to act as toastmaster on the occasion. Judge Thomas A. McBride has been invited to deliver the principal address, and shorter speeches are expected from Judges O'Day and Bronaugh, Robert G. Morrow, District Attorney Manning and Judge George Cameron. The committee announces that those who have been requested to speak will be requested not to introduce political matters into their addresses.

In the way of music for the occasion, it has been decided to have an orchestra present, and an invitation is to be given the University Glee Club to attend and contribute to the evening's enjoyment.

PLAY TO MUSIC STUDENTS Artists of New York Orchestra Please Large Audience. The New York Symphony Orchestra, under the distinguished leadership of Walter Damrosch, is already nearing Portland, having reached San Francisco last Sunday and opening there to a tremendous throng of people on Monday afternoon. But it was in Los Angeles that one of the most inspiring sights of the tour took place. Mr. Damrosch has played in many thousands of people, but the matinee in Los Angeles to the music students, and young lovers of the beautiful, was given to an audience numbering exactly 300. "A most wonderful sight, indeed a wonderfully inspiring one," wrote Mr. Damrosch, "and one which I shall never forget. They sat as if entranced, as if in hope and belief; they were, and their eager, happy faces still smile at me in memory."

The three concerts to be given in Portland will open Wednesday night, June 3, at the Armory, and will be followed by a Thursday matinee and close with a Thursday night performance. The tour is under the direction of Lois Stearns-Wynn Comant, who has announced that as soon as the programmes, which will contain the analytical notes, are off the press, they will be given to the public.

BEAUTIFUL RUGS, Made in the Orient, Will Be Sold at Large Discount. A very attractive invoice of Persian and Turkish rugs have just arrived, which were recently purchased by Atiyeh Bros., 284 Washington street, at a great concession in price. The same reduction will be given to purchasers here, an inducement that ought to crowd this store by lovers of these gems of the weaver's art, combining as they do, rare artistic taste and matches durability. There are 200 different makes and sizes in the collection, which would attract unusual attention even if sold at regular prices. Let us show them to you.
