

John Nordeau will have to stand trial in the Municipal Court today because he ome yesterday

Pullman cars filled with Chicago real es-tate men here for the Festival." said President Whitemore last night, "and so far as we have been able to learn, none of the local hotels have made any bid for a general circulation in Plate and Soc-rates. The island is owned by the Turks, but is controlled by the British. The ma-jorily of its inhabitants are Greeks. The ruling body, according to Rev. Mr. Liv-ingston, is a Parliament, where speeches and addresses are translated into three toogues. The Greek women, says the missionary, are as pretty as the white women, us a rule, and are much better educated than the women of Turkey. Rev. Mr. Livingston was for several years inspector of Greek schools at Cyprus. He declares that the Eastern Mediterranean has cause to be grateful to American missionaries for the admir-able examples of institutions of learning at Beyrout. Visiting Tarsus, the mis-sionary spent a few days as the guest of Dr. Christie, the well known American missionary. of the local hotels have made any bin for accommodating this crowd of visitors. I also know of two or three large tour-ist parties of Easterners, one from New England, one from New York, and another from the South, each comprising not less than 100 people, who will be here. A num-ber of Eastern Oregon communities have asked us what rates would be made for visitors and we have every reason to missions. nomah. feel easier ber of Eastern Oregon communities have asked us what rates would be made for visitors, and we have every reason to belleve that Baker City, Sümpter. Pen-dleton, Heppner and other towns in that region will send large delegations here, and what are we going to do with them unless previous preparations are made?' Nearly 50 automobile entries for the com-petitive motor-car contest to be held June 4, were made within the hast two days, and it now looks as if this turn-out will be one of the most brilliant features of the entire week's programme. Denver and Salt Lake entries have already been re-ceived and applications have come from the Spokane Automobile Club. What Se-attle and Tacoma will do is largely prob-lematical, although that a good many motor-car owners of the Sound country are planning to make the trip from both Seattle and Tacoma to Portland, after the formal ceremonies of welcoming the war-ship fleet is over. Loccal automobile and 50-mile races on Wednesday, but also in the grand competitive motor-car run on Thursday. Master Fish Warden Harry C. McAllisable examples of institutions of learning at Beyrout. Visiting Tarsus, the mis-sionary spent a few days as the guest of Dr. Christie, the well known American missionary. Rev. Mr. Livingston is a Britisher and is a graduate, with an M. A. degree, from Oxford and Melbourne. He is tired of for-eign countries and hopes to remain for a while, if possible, in America. He is thinking of locating in Oregon. The mis-sionary has followed President Roosevelt's administration and thinks him an admir-able man. Rev. Mr. Livingston was a delegate to the recent peace congress and abbors war or fighting of any kind. He is much opposed to the so-chiled capitalis much opposed to the so-called capital-ist class of this country and declares that the morals of the English business man are much higher than those of his Amer-tcan brother. Rev. Mr. Livingston reg-istered at the Hotel Danmoore. Thursday. Master Fish Warden Harry C. McAllis-ter, who is chairman of the water car-nival committee, has just returned from Astoria, and reports that there will be not less than 50 and probably 100 entries from the down-river town in the marine pageant in the local harbor on Wednes-day night. He says he found the Astoria poople very enthusiastic and that every commercial and pleasure craft, large and small, of all classes, would be sent up to Portland for the marine carnival, so far as conditions would permit. DAILY CITY STATISTICS Deaths. PEDERSEN-At Portland, May 20. Zohl Pedersen, a mattre of Norway, age 30 years. Interment, South Bend, Wash. HANG-At Portland, May 20, Hang Lee, a native of China, age 56 years. HUNTER-At Portland, May 20, Mary Portland for the marine carnival, so far as conditions would permit. Collaborating with Harbormaster Speler, Chairman McAllister is endeavoring to persuade the 40 or 50 dock-owners along the beach to clean up and dress up their property for the Festival week. Most of them say they will not only have a house-cleaning day, but will decorate in Festival colors: but what is more essential, ac-cording to the committee, is to have everybody join in the movement. As a sample of the real Festival spirit, the improvement clubs in more than half Births. WILSON-To the wife of Charles Wilson 661 Commercial street, May 2: a son STAHLBUM-To the wife of John Stahl-bum, 50 Union avenue North, May 20; a daughter. Marriage Licenses. Marriage Licenses. BAEE-SNEWELA-Frank Baer, 25, city: Mary Snevela, 21, city. MIESSIG-MIDDAUGH - Otto Musasig. Over 21, city: Lala Middaugh, 21, city. GULLICKSON-LAYMAN-O. F. Gullek-GULLICKSON-LAYMAN-O. F. Gullick-son, 20, city: Blanche E. Layman, 25, city. SEWARD-ROSS-W. M. Seward, 38, city: Stella M. Ross, 32, city. CUSHING-LAMB-A. G. Cushing, 25, city: Jeanette D. Lamb, 25, city. Articles of Incorporation. UNIT SHARING ASSOCIATES-Incorpor-ators, George F. Rogers, Walter Thomas Mills and J. Benton Lindsay: capitalization, $25,000. Building Permits. As a sample of the real Festival spirit, the improvement clubs in more than half the districts on the East Side have un-dertaken the work of cleaning up their own territory. Some time ago the Cham-ber of Commerce inaugurated a "house-cleaning" movement, but the committee did nothing, and so the East Side or-ganizations have gone shead and cleared up their front yards, their back rards and their street frontages. The work is still going on. Building Permits. A. F. FUCHS--To alter and repair one-story frame dwelling on Wygant street, near Grand avenue, $600 A. E. GUSZILOW--To erect one-story frame dwelling on East Salmon, between East Thirty-Brat and East Thirty-second, $1500 Building Permits. going -

Greek and Roman Churches, he says, are doing much to help the extension of re-ligion. The work of the Greek school-masters he describes as being most

"We are to have not less than four praiseworthy. Foreign missionaries are alded by these people and everything put vim into his campaign. In Jackson County, where there is a large new ele-ment of population, he has made a vig-orous campaign. In Multhomah County his supporters are putting forth their energy. Elsewhere Cake is working ac-

DALLAS, Or., May 21.-(Special.)-The work on the registration books of Polk County was completed yesterday, and shows a total voting force of 2005, an in-

There is no colgma in the statement, but it is literally true. Nordeau went to his home at 314 East Forty-seventh street, deposited his personal effects in the hall and proceeded to make himself the hall and proceeded to make nimses comfortable. Mrs. Nordeau ordered him out. She called attention to the fact that she se-cured a divorce from him several weeks ago and that accordingly she didn't care to entertain strange men at the house. She said she was in no mood for recon-cultation, that she had been relieved of the necessity of loving, honoring and obeying and that she wished he would depart at once. Nordeau didn't want to go.

M. B. Meacham, a lawyer who se-cured the divorce for Mrs. Nordeau, was notified of the visitation, and he went to the Municipal Court and secured a warrant for the arrest of Nordeau, charging the one-time head of the house-hout with tregnanting. A few minutes charging the one-time head of the house-hold with tresparsing. A few minutes later Patrolman Wilson went to the place where Nordeau was lately lord and master and ejected him bodly. The of-floer took the intruder to the police sta-tion, where he was booked and locked nding his appearance in court this

M. Barde, of 638 Fourth street, will also favor the courtroom with his pres-ence because of baving left his automo-bils in the street over night, as ex-pressly prohibited by the city ordinances. Mr. Barde called on the police yester-day, following the issuance of a war-rant for his arrest, to report that the suito was left out for use in case of emer-gency, Mrs. Barde being ill. Fearing her condition might necessitate the imme-diate services of a physician during the night, he had the machine all in readi-ties. Accordingly he said he thought he ought to be relieved from prosecution. Patrolman Stark Lottle investigated this and reported to headquarters that he thought the excuse was hardly well warranted, and so the charge was not dropped. M. Barde, of 628 Fourth street, will

Three other automobile drivers were Three other automobile drivers were in trouble because of having engaged in experiments seemingly to overcome mo-mentum to such a degree as to baffle the seless of sight. Fred A. Krebs E. W. Manning and E. A. Jeukins were all before the court charged with having driven their machines at a pace which suggested they were pursuing builets and from a high-nover rifle.

suggested they were pursuing binlets nred from a high-power rifle. Krebs and Manning pleaded guilty and Jenkins was found guilty after a brief trial. The court gave them a scathing lecture on the evils and dangers of scorching and turned them loose under suspended sentences.

Receives American Pilgrims.

ROME, May 21 .- The Pope today reved 200 German-American pilgrims, led by Mr. Oelkers, president of the Central Association of Catholics of North America. Mr. Oelkers read an address in German, expressing loyaliy and its sin German expression results and a contribution of Peter's petice for the Fapal Jubilee. The Pope made his reply in Italian, thanked the pligrims warmly for their greeting and blessed them and their families.

Long Term for Record Deserter.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.-Fifteen years' imprisonment in the United States Military Prison is the fate of David Sheehan, who has been and is the most notorious deserter the Army has known, Sheehan first entered the Army they? In Republican support also. Chamberlain has been campaigning for the Republican vote that twice elected him Governor, in many parts of the state, but will wind up his fight in the county where he needs a majority most-Mult-nomab

If it were not for Multnomah County's votes, the Democrats we

MANNING TALKS TO VOTERS

Democratic Campaign Rally at Nashville Largely Attended.

A campaign rally was held at Nash-A campaign raily was need at Nash-ville under the auspices of the Demo-cratic county central committee last night, which was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd of voters. Dis-trict Attorney John Manning, who is a cradidate for an enthusiastic.

wrecked Title Guarantee & Trust Com-pany bank he was frequently inter-rupted by prolonged applause. In ad-dition to the candidates, short talks were made by John H. Stevenson and Edward Cahalin. The Gregon quartet contributed severai pleasing musical numbers during the evening.

POSSE TRAILS SUSPECT Will Arrest Frank Peterson for

Shooting Charles Stevens.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., May 21.-(Special.)-A Sheriff's posse tonight is hunting the country between this city and Wapato for Frank Peterson, sus-and Wapato for Frank Peterson, sus-pected of being the man who this morn-ing fired at Charles Stevens, rancher of Wapato, with a Winchester riffe, wound-ing Stevens in the arm. The crime was committed in an alfalfa field half a mile from the reservation town. The would-be assassin, with an unknown friend, took up a position on the bank of the irrigation canal, com-manding a view over the alfalfa of Ste-vens' home. The latter came out of his house about 9 o'clock and began hoeing in his cantaloupe field. Almost immedi-ately the shot was fired. ately the shot was fired.

ately the shot was fired. Peterson is suspected because he has had trouble with his wife, from whom he has separated, and he has been heard to assert that she was becoming too friendly with Stevens. Peterson has a small ranch in the Selah and lately has been working in Wapato.

Says Court Misconducted Itself.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 21.-Lieutenant Charles McCulloch, serving a two years' term in the military prison at Fort Lea-venworth for a crime committed in Cuba, today appiled for a writ of habeas corpus in the United States Circuit Court here, on the grounds of misconduct of the court-martial which sentenced him.

could reach him he fell backward into the flames. His name will not be known until the entire list of employes has been checked up. From the plant of the box factory the flames spread to the Suez Ornamental Glass Company and in this place also several men were injured by jumping from the windows. The lumber yard of shows a total voting force of 2905, an in-crease of 382 over the registration of 1906. The votes are divided as follows: Republican, 1638; Democratic, 331; Social-ist, 127; Prohibition, 85; Independent, 55; not designated, 54; Populist, 2. This gives the Republican vote a majority of 371 over all other registered votes in this county. county.

The laws of Norway compel a man who chops down one tree to plant three.

Perfect fitting glasses $1 af Metzger's.

