UGLY WORDS LEAD UP TO SHOOTING

Michael Campbell Gives Himself Up and Explains Deep River Tragedy.

CORONER JURY'S VERDICT

Lays Crime of Murder on Prisoner for Death of John McClellan. Campbell Thinks He Will Soon Be at Liberty.

ASTORIA, Or., May II.—(Special.)—Michael Campbell, who shot and killed John McClelian at Deep River yesterday, came to Astoria at noon today and surrendered to Sheriff Pomeroy. This evening the prisoner was turned over to Sheriff Planders, of Wahklakum County, and taken to Cathlamet.

The Compar's turn which held an In-The Coroner's jury which held an inquest over the body of John McClellan at Deep River today returned a verific that the shooting was with intent to kill and charged Campo. with the crime of murder.

Six witnesses were examined and their testimony was substantially identical, so far as the circumstances attending the shooting were concerned.

McClellan Calls Him Vile Names.

McClellan Calls Him Vile Names.

Witnesses testified that McClellan was on the deck of the launch as the craft approached the landing and Campbell stood on the wbarf; that McClellan called to Campbell. "You lied," following this with a vile epithet, evidently referring to the latter's testimony at the time of the lawsuit, which caused the bitter feeling between the men. Other remarks followed and finally Campbell replied. "I'll get you yet." As McClellan turned to speak to men on the boat, Campbell pulled his gun and fired four shots, three of them striking McClellan in the back, killing him almost instantly. The physicians who performed the autopsy testified that three bullets took effect. One entered just behind and near the top of the right shoulder, ranged down and came out close to Another entered near the top and just behind the left shoulder, but it was not traced, while the third bullet entered at the small of the back and ranged upward, coming out at the right breast. It is supposed this bullet struck McClellan as he was fallier to the deak of the launch. falling to the deck of the launch.

Crime Weighs Lightly on Prisoner. About 6 o'clock last evening, a few hours after the shooting occurred. Campbell left Deep River in a small boat and went to Bear Cliff, from where he took the steamer Potter for Cathlamet for the purpose of giving himself up. Finding the Sheriff had come to Astoria, he and a friend chartered a launch this morning, came across the river to Clifton and thence by train to this city, where he was across the river to Clifton and thence by train to this city, where he was locked up in the county jail.

Campbell would not talk freely concerning the shooting, but he did not appear to realize the seriousness of his crime, and spoke as though he expected the whole affair would be settled so he could return home within a week.

While he made no denial of having that Mr. McClellan, Campbell controlled. shot Mr. McClellan, Campbell contended that his act was justifiable. He told of the lawsuit some months ago, which was the beginning of the trouble, of how McClellan had beaten him shortly after-ward and that McClellan had bounded and abused him at every opportunity Explains Shooting in Back.

He claimed that when he went to the boat landing yesterday afternoon he did not know McClellan was in the vicinity; that McClellan immediately began calling him vile names, saying "I'll fix you yet." until he (Campbell) became so exasperated that he drew his gun and shot.

He accounts for the fact that McClellan was shot in the back by saying that lan was shot in the back by saying that as he fired the boat swung around and away from the wharf. It is expected a formal charge of murder, will be filed against Campbell at Cathlamet tomorrow.

II. M. Cake Speaks on Issues of Senatorial Campaign.

ONTARIO. Or., May 21.-(Special.)-H. M. Cake speke before a large and at-tentive audience at the Opera-house her-tenight. He was met by a committee and driven to Vale, returning to speak at Ontario in the evening. He said that the election of United States Senators by the people marks a new era in the stais and country. A Senator he said, should represent the sentiment of the state in politics. A state is no longer Republican which sends a Democrat to the Senate, he asserted. It is a question of party. The speech was dignified and free from presentality.

Klamath County Scene of Contest Between Wets and Drys.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., May 21 .-(Special.)—Klamath County will vote on local option as a county measure, at the election on the first day of June, and the outcome is not certain. There is a great deal of activity on behalf of the supporters of the proposition to close the saloons, and likewise every power of the liquor interests will be exerted to defeat the measure. Owing to the large number of new people in the county it is more difficult to correctly canvass the precincts than in communities where committeemen know the antecedents and history of each voter.
