CLUB FAVORS EARLY-CLOSING. - The Multinomah Improvement Club adopted a resolution at its meeting Wednesday night, in the hall on Mississippi avenue, indersing the movement to have all stores close at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoons. The club also censured the City Council for accepting the remonstrance against the improvement of Kashy street after it. for accepting the remonstrance against the improvement of Kerby street, after it had been found that the remonstrance did not have enough signatures to make it effective. It was announced that the remonstrance was first filled against the improvement and, being found insufficient, was returned to the opponents of the improvements who obtained more stems. provements who obtained more signa-tures. It was decided to ask the Water Board to replace the four-inch main on Maryland avenue, between Fremont and Shaver streets.

Discuss Health of Children.—The North Central School Home Training Circle met yesterday afternoon in the school building and discussed the health of children, with special reference to adenoids and their effects. At a former meeting, a locture was delivered on this subject and it was considered of so much importance that it was again taken up. The article on adenoids, written by Dr. Woods Hutchinson and recently published, was read by one of the teachers. It was the opinion of those who spoke that mothers cannot exercise too much care over the bealth of their children while attending school, and that special care should be exercised over the eye-sight and throat. Mrs. George Evans presided.

STREET CONTRACTS AWARDED.—Routine business occupied most of the session of the street committee of the executive board yesterday afternoon. A large packet of petitions from contractors in various parts of the city asking for extension of time in which to complete their work was waded through, some of them being granted while others were laid on the shelf. The following awards were made on bids submitted for various municipal work: Barber Asphait Paving Company, improvement of East Twentieth street, $122.85; Star Sand Company, improvement of Harding street, from southwestern line of Goldsmith street to northeast line of River street, $281.72; Pactific Bridge Company, improvement of Knott street, $10,54.60. This figure was 19 per cent in advance of the estimate of the City Engineer, but was granted on his recommendation after considering an increased cost for crushed rock. R. J. Debuhr, improvement of Garfield avenue, $552.42 and the Barber Asphalt Paving Company, improvement of East Seventeenth street, $15,542.4. This bid was also 19 per cent in excess of the renteenth street, $17,54.24. This bid s also 10 per cent in excess of the y Engineer's estimate. Secretary Names Officens the meeting of the City and County dical Society held Wednesday night At the meeting of the city and County Medical Society held Wednesday night the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Andrew C. Smith; vice-president, Dr. W. T. Williamson; secretary, Dr. George S. Whiteside; treasurer, Dr. J. C. Elliott King; board of councillors, Dr. N. W. Jones, Dr. Caivin S. White and Dr. Ernest F. Tucker. Nine delegates were also chosen to the state medical convention which is to be held in this city in July. The sentiment of the society was favorable to a continuation of the crusade inaugurated last year against unilcensed practitioners, and the newly elected officers expressed their intention to prosecute all offenders against the law of the state which requires all who practice medicine or surgery in the state to appear before the State Board of Medical Examiners.

PORTLAND SYMPHONY ORCHES-TRA AT HEILIG TONIGHT.

Soloists Will Be Madame Marquardt, Harpist, and Arthur Alexander, Tenor.

of the Portland Symphony Orchestra day, and was by far the best of any this season. From all indications the house will be crowded and the interest shown in this last concert should be very gratifying to all concerned. This will be by far the most pretenlous programme given by the orchestious programme given by the orcheatra.

Music-lovers are all more or less familiar with Schubert's beautiful symphony in B minor—known as the unfinished symphony. This will be the big number given by the orchestra. Mme. Marquardt, the harpist, who is to be one of the soloists, was delighted with the work of the orchestra at the rehearsal Tuesday morning, and is much interested in appearing with the orchestra.

Arthur Alexander has always said Portland should and could support its Arthur Alexander has always said Portland should and could support its own orchestra, and of course was surprised at the progress made in so short a time. Mr. Alexander will be heard with the orchestra in Seigmund's love song from "Die Waukurte" (R. Wagner). Of equal interest, however, is the announcement that Mr. Alexander will sing two numbers, accompanying himself in his own inimitable manner at the piano. The great success of his London season just past has in no way lessened his interest in musical affairs locally.

Portland can justly be proud of this young genius, who has delighted London genius, who has delighted London.

Portland can justly be proud of this young genius, who has delighted London audiences. A stranger must surely travel on his merits when he can have London at his feet in one short season. Mr. Alexander will return East after a short visit on the Coast to fill engagements in New York and then will return to London in the Fall.

Portland is indeed fortunate to have two such clever artists as soloists on the programms Friday night, and those who have not heard the orchestra should certainly hear this last concert. Both musically and socially this prom. Both musically and socially this prom-ises to be a notable event. The prices are within reach of all and musical students should take advantage of this opportunity to hear the splendid programme to be given.

At the last concert many went into the gallery and found it very satisfactory for a musical programme.

The following is tonight's programme:

WILL BUILD TO LINNTON County Grants the United Railways

Company Two Franchises.

The County Court has granted to the United Railways Company two franchises—one to construct a line along the Macadam road, and another to build a line on the St. Heiens road. On the latter line the work will be commenced within 60 the work will be commenced within 69 days, and be completed in a year. The franchise provides for tracks on the cast side of the road, beginning at Nicolai street, and running to the Columbia County line. A 5-cent fare to Linnton must be provided by the company, and the grade level of the street must be conformed to in laying the track. Furthermore, the road must be widened by the corporation to 80 feet.

The franchise to construct a line on the Macadam road provides that the road shall be built from the city limits to a point opposite the south line of Riverview Cemetery. Besides a revenue of $500 a year until 1921, and $250 a year thereafter until 1933, when the franchise expires, the company is to provide the county with all the crushed rock and gravel needed for repairing the county roads. The franchises will expire in 1933.

Walter Damrosch Has a Wide Acquaintance Among Musicians.

The personal acquaintance of Walter Damrosch, the distinguished leader of the New York Symphony Orchestra, which will play three times in Portland. June 3 and 4, is unusually extended, his friendship with famous artists reaching throughout the world. It was List himself who introduced Mr. Damrosch to Richard Wagner when 'Parsifal' was first produced at Bayreuth. Von Buelow treated him like a son after the death of Dr. Leopold Damrosch, his father. His friendship with Mottl and Weingartner began 20 years ago, and has continued until flis day.

Among the great artists who have played under Mr. Damrosch's baton are Sarasate, Ysaye, Cesar Thomson and Kreisler, violinists; Von Buelow, Rosenthal, Josefy, d'Albert, Bauer and Carreno among the planists; while many famous singers made their first American appearances with Mr. Damrosch, among them Ternina, Gadski and Alvarez.
