REST OF RECEIPTS PROFIT

EXPENSES OF CATHOLIC CARNIVAL ARE ALREADY MET.

Record-Breaking Attendance on the Fifth Night—Clowns Draw Big Crowds.

The fifth night of the Catholic Young Men's Club street fair and carnival was marked by the largest attendance of the week, for weather conditions were all that could be asked for the first time since the doors of the fair were thrown open last Monday. In spite of the unfavorable weather the attendance has been excellent and the expenses of the carnival have practically been paid, which means that the rest of the show will net the club promoting it a goodly sum as clear profit. Last night was set aside for the St. Joseph Society, an organization composed of the German Catholics of this city, and they turned out in force. Before the night was well advanced the other nationalities present were well aware that the sons and daughters of "der Vaterland" were in attendance. All the booths and side-shows came in for the usual large patronage, and were enthusiastically enjoyed. The funny gyrations of the clowns in the big tent, where the dog show holds forth, were a source of considerable delight to the young folks, and each little one present would listen to no argument against seeing the clowns, dogs and monkeys, with the result that the fond parents were forced to take them to the big show. Webfoot Camp, No. 65, Woodmen of the World, gave an interesting and entertaining drill in the spacious auditorium. The evolutions of this well drilled organization elicited considerable applause. Tonight is the night that will attract the young folks, for a grand ball is to be given in the splendid auditorium of the Catholic Young Men's Club, and Mrs. Rose Weinberger's well balanced orchestra has been secured for the occasion. Monday night the Ancient Order of Hibernians will have its inning at the carnival, and in addition, the Democratic candidates will hold a rally which will be addressed by several prominent speakers including District Attorney John Manning, John A. Jeffreys and others. Olympia Beer, "It's the water." Brewery's own bottling. Phones, Main 871, A 3447. Hagan shoes at Rosenthal's.
