COLONEL SNELL MANAGED MASHER

Millionaire Rode on Cars Merely to Ogle Any Pretty Girl.

HAD TWINGES OF REMORSE

Expressed Sorrow at Ill-Treatment of Family—Salacious Letters Positively Identified as Maybel McNamara's by Expert.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 25.—Colonel Snell in the role of a masher was described by Thomas Sylvester, a streetcar conductor, in his testimony today in the suit to break the will of the eccentric millionaire.

"Colonel Snell rode many times each day in the streetcar, simply to ogle pretty girls and women," testified Mr. Sylvester. The witness said Snell would address them in cool effrontery, insist upon buying their fares and would follow them from the car if they gave him the slightest encouragement.

Mr. Neal, ex-Sheriff of De Witt County, in his testimony said that Snell, about three months before his death, in conversation with him, exclaimed: "I would give half my fortune if I had treated my family differently."

It was Neal's opinion that Snell was insane.

Positive identification of the famous letters alleged to have been written by Maybel Snell McNamara, of Kansas City, the reputed grandmother of Colonel Snell, was made today. The writer never signed her real name to these letters, but invariably used the name de plume, such as "Four Baby" or "Babe H."

CHARACTER AND AN EFFORT WAS MADE AT THE

last trial to secure their admittance as evidence. Judge Cochran overruled the motion; just what Judge Philbrick will do cannot be learned. He will not pass upon the question until the letters are formally offered.

Snell Chucked in Reading Them.

The witness identified a lot of checks which were written by Maybel Snell, but which were signed by Colonel Tom Snell. These checks were made payable to Maybel Snell and the aggregate was reported not far from $100,000.

Richard Snell, who is contesting the will, identified certain letters as those he had discovered in the room occupied by his father in the Snell mansion in Bloomington, which was known as the "den."

The letters were in a small brass-bound trunk which was always kept locked and jealously guarded.

Colonel Snell died in this room, where it was his custom to sit for hours, read over these letters and chuckle loudly over those that pleased him.

STRIKE MAY END TODAY

But Referendum Is Called on Cleveland Car Franchise.

CLEVELAND, O., May 25.—The strike of the street railway conductors and motormen may be declared off tomorrow. This was predicted tonight by both sides to the controversy after the vote of the men now at work not to submit their seniority rights to arbitration. The vote of the men was decisive, 106 to 119.

The negotiators for peace therefore have nothing material to announce.

President Dupont of the Municipal Traction Company, after the announcement of the vote, stated he would give employment to all strikers up to 5 o'clock tomorrow evening. The strikers will meet at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning to consider this ultimatum. Officially they will meet to consider the question of going ahead with the work of arbitration.

The company is operating a normal number of cars and it is predicted that the men will vote to return to work under the company's offer. If they do, the strike will end in a victory for the company.

Tonight a petition calling for a vote of the citizens of Cleveland under the state initiative and referendum law upon the legality of the franchise under which the Municipal Traction Company is operating was presented to the City Council. Some maintain that the Municipal Traction Company franchise becomes inoperative upon the presentation of the petition. Attorneys differ upon this point. The petition bore 25,000 names, it is said.

Thirteen strikers were arrested this evening on the charge of participating in riots and destroying property. Two were held for dynamiting cars. Otto Potockke, a striking conductor, is alleged by the police to have confessed that he got dynamite at the strike headquarters.

Police Arrest 104 Suspects.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Spurred to action by the murder of Robert C. P. Holmes, who was held for dynamiting cars, Otto Potockke, a striking conductor, is alleged by the police to have confessed that he got dynamite at the strike headquarters.

All were searched, but none of the Holmes jewelry was found. Though they were held as suspects, the police admit that there is a possibility of getting a clew to the Holmes mystery through the wholesale arrests.

DENIES SECRET WEDDING

LAWYER IS PREPARING MARRIAGE CONTRACT.

Says Mme. Gould Will Retain Absolute Control of Her Own Fortune Under Its Terms.

PARIS, May 25.—M. Cachard, attorney for Mme. Anna Gould, who is at present engaged in preparing the contract for Mme. Gould's marriage to Prince Helle de Sagan, authorizes the Associated Press to deny absolutely the story that the couple were secretly married at Hoboken, N. J., on the evening of their departure from America last month.

As already stated in these dispatches, the couple's opposition to the marriage has been withdrawn. The marriage will take place soon, the French law requiring that the bans be published 10 days in advance of the wedding.

There will be both civil and religious ceremonies, the latter under the Protestant rite. The couple will be married under what is known in France as the "separation of property regime," each party to remain in absolute control of his or her own fortune, which in the event of death shall not pass to the survivor, but to the heirs of the deceased.

After the marriage the couple will reside in France, the idea of selling Mme. Gould's magnificent mansion on the avenue Malakoff and her country seat, the Chateau Marais, and living abroad, as contemplated, having been abandoned.

Count Borli de Castellane, the divorced husband of Mme. Gould, is preparing the moment the bans are published to bring suit to transfer the custody of the Castellane children to himself on the ground that Prince de Sagan is not fit to be their stepfather.

The Count, however, is not yet apprised of the exact situation, as he imagines that Mme. Gould is still hesitating with regard to the marriage. Statements upon the continued opposition of George Gould, who, he says, is expected in Paris within a fortnight.

There is an intimation from sources friendly to Mme. Gould that Count Borli would not dare bring suit for the custody of his children, as it would assuredly provoke the revelation of certain damaging matters affecting him, which heretofore have been held in reserve.

STORY UNTRUE, SAYS JUSTICE

Denies Tying Knot for Mme. Gould and Prince.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Justice of the Peace William Budenberg, of Hoboken, whose name had been mentioned in connection with the reports that Prince de Sagan and Madame Gould were married in New Jersey, denied positively today that he performed the marriage. The statement from Budenberg was brought forth by a summons on a complaint directing him to appear before the Board of Health and explain why he had not filed a certificate within 30 days if he had in fact officiated at the marriage.

KILLED AND PUT IN BARREL

Murdered Woman's Body Is Found Floating in East River.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The body of an unidentified woman, supposed to have been murdered, was found today floating

IN A BARREL IN LITTLE HELLGATE, BETWEEN

Wards and Randall's Islands. The woman's eyes were discolored and her nose was bruised. Nearby to Thomas Jefferson Park, where many Italian outings are held.

The body was that of a woman probably under 40 years of age, attired in dark clothing and a heavy winter coat. There were no rings on the fingers and the color and condition of her hands seem to indicate that the woman had been accustomed to hard work. There was a deep gash across the face such as might have been caused by the blow of a hatchet. This so mutilated the features as to make identification difficult.

It is believed that the body had been in the water only a short time. The body had been fastened into the barrel by a stout rope secured around her waist and then fastened around the outside of the barrel. The barrel and its contents were picked up in mid-river by a tugboat.

INCOME TAX FOR FRANCE

Chamber Votes to Levy It on Dividends on Securities.

PARIS, May 25.—The Chamber of Deputies today, by a vote of 249 to 170, adopted that section of the income tax by which dividends from rents and all other French and foreign government stocks are made liable to taxation.
