BY W. J. PETRAIN.

In a game replete with sensational base running and fielding, the Portland ball tossers, with Big Eddie Kinsella on the mound, took full out of the cheap Seals, but not until it had been found necessary to play 12 innings. The score was 4 to 2, incidentally it was the first extra inning contest at Vaughn street this season, and the 15th wherein genial Jack O'Connell has officiated as umpire since April 4.

Portland got off about by annexing two in the third, and after San Francisco had corralled a shut in the fourth, and had taken the lead by chasing another over in their half of the ninth, it remained for John Bassey to display his base running proclivities in our half of the ninth and tie up the contest again. Two errors in the field, which the stocky left fielder tore around the sacks with the greatest of disregard for Claude Berry's throwing arm.

The Seals opened up for Portland by hitting one over Hildebrand's head for two sacks. McCredie followed with a neat sacrifice, which sent Johnson to third. Bert Whalen proved equal to the emergency, and picking out a nice one, sent it clipping the dusts to left field and Johnson tapped the plate ending the contest.

A number of sensational fielding stunts were thrown into the mixtures. The work of Bassey, Hildebrand and Melchior in the outfield, and Johnson, Cooney, Zeider and Mohler in the infield, was of the circus order on several occasions. Bassey's base running was the premier attraction however, for it made possible a victory when the gloomy aspect of defeat hung heavily over the park. Catcher La Lange, of the San Francisco club, broke his finger in the second inning and had to retire from the game. The score:

Society at the Golf Tournament

IDEAL weather attracted a large gallery to the Waverly golf tournament yesterday, several parties going out to the clubhouse in motor cars, which was served on the gallery at tea-tables. The links were in superb condition, the fields like a carpet of velvet, while the players, attired in spring costumes and picturesque hats, added to the attractiveness of the ensemble. Many congratulations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, the winners of the medal, who at the last moment were prevailed upon to enter the contest. Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and William Ladd made the second highest scores.

Among those present were Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Miss Sallie Lewis, Mrs. John C. Ainsworth, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Miss Ise Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. U. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. GOLF TOURNAMENT AT WAVERLY LINKS

Play for State Championship Opens Under Ideal Weather Conditions.

GAMES HOTLY CONTESTED

Gallery Large and Keen Interest Is Shown—Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty Win Foursomes.

The Scores.

Perfect weather, a large gallery and hotly contested matches in the foursomes marked the first day's play of the state tournament at the Waverly Golf Club links yesterday afternoon.

It was not until the last set of fours had handed in their score that Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, who had defeated Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, were declared the winners. They received hearty congratulations for their victory, which was a surprise, because Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty are comparatively beginners at the game. They were seated in the cool shade of the clubhouse veranda. There was eager interest in the contests that were being played over the links and eager inquiries as to the score as each set of fours finished in front of the clubhouse. Two of the sets were tied, and until Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty came in with their score, the second to the last to finish the day's play, it looked as if Mrs. Allen Lewis and Mr. Murphy, who had defeated Mrs. Ainsworth and Mr. Spohn, and Mrs. Flanders and Mr. T. Kerr, who had bested Mrs. Koehler and Mr. Mackay, would have to play off a tie, for both sets had made the round in 28.

In addition to the mixed foursomes that were played, there were several individual matches. One of the matches was between Charles S. Fee, passenger and traffic manager of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and H. C. Bowers. Mr. Fee is on his way to Chicago. Every time Mr. Fee comes to Portland he makes it a point to stop over long enough to visit the golf links because he thinks the Waverly links are the best in the country. Just what the score was in his match with Mr. Bowers was not given out, but he was beaten, and Mr. Bowers clucked merrily when Mr. Fee said: "It doesn't make any difference what the score was. It's enough that Bowers beat me in the worst game that I ever played on the links."

Which is which? You think you can tell the difference between hearing grand-opera artists sing and hearing their beautiful voices on the Victor. But can you? In the opera-house corridor scene in "The Pit" at Ye Liberty Theatre, Oakland, Cal., the famous quartet from Rigoletto was sung by Caruso, Abbot, Homer and Scotti on the Victor, and the delighted audience thought they were listening to the singers themselves. At Rector's, the noted Chicago restaurant, when some of the grand-opera stars sang, with piano accompaniment, the diners listened with rapt attention and craned their necks to get a glimpse of the singers. But it was a Victor. In the rotunda of Wanamaker's famous Philadelphia store, the great pipe organ accompanied Melba on the Victor, and the people rushed from all directions to see the singer. Even in the Victor laboratory, employees often imagine they are listening to a singer making a record while they really hear the Victor. Why not hear the Victor for yourself? Any Victor dealer will gladly play any Victor Records you want to hear. There is a Victor for every purse—$10 to $300. Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.
