SIX ROSE FESTIVAL PARADES.

There will be six big parades during the Rose Festival next week. Three of them are day parades and three will be illuminated parades held at night. Here they are: Daylight Parades. Wednesday, June 3, at 10 A. M.—Monster parade of decorated automobiles. Thursday, June 4, at 10 A. M.—Magnificent street parade of floral decorated saddle horses, ponies, carriages and vehicles, competitive floats, equestrian clubs, etc., including the beautiful Japanese "Cherry Blossom" procession. Saturday, June 6, at noon—Grand parade of Woodmen of the World, more than 4,000 uniformed members to be in line. Night Parades. Tuesday, June 2—Illuminated parade, "The Spirit of the Golden West." This parade takes up the entire history of the Oregon empire symbolizing it in magnificent pageants. Wednesday, June 3—Venetian Water Carnival, procession of illuminated public and private craft; this will include entries from all the warships which will be in the harbor at that time, in addition to the 400 other entries already listed. Friday, June 5—Allegorical and historical parade of electric floats including the wonderful Chinese Dragon.

The lines of march of two of the Rose Festival parades have already been mapped out by the committee in detail of having the wires elevated at a number of crossings, this part of the preliminary work has been completed. The decorated horse and carriage and feature float parade will be one of the most expensive of the street pageants of the week and will move over 57 blocks. It will require something like two hours in passing a given point, and will negotiate the following course: It will form at the Armory, Tenth and Couch streets, will proceed on Tenth street to Morrison, on Morrison street to West Park, West Park to Madison, Madison to Park, Park to Morrison, Morrison to Sixth, Sixth to Yamhill, Yamhill to Fifth, Fifth to Morrison, Morrison to Third, Third to Couch, Couch to Sixth, Sixth to Ankeny, Ankeny to Seventh, Seventh to Stark, Stark to Fourth, Fourth to Washington, Washington to Park, Park to Morrison to Twelfth, Twelfth to Washington and disband.

There will be at least 600 entries of decorated saddle horses vehicles and floats in this parade and it has been figured out that blocks will be needed to carry the entire line of march without "countering." The route has been covered by the committee and it will take not less than two hours to complete the march.

Chairman R. D. Inman and his fellow-committeemen have gone over a number of routes proposed for the competitive automobile parade. The route selected will enable all entries to pass under trolley wires and will negotiate streets which are properly paved. It is as follows: From the Armory, Tenth and Couch, out Couch to Twelfth, out Twelfth to Morrison, down Morrison across the Morrison-street bridge to Grand avenue, north on Grand avenue to Hawthorne, north on Hawthorne to Union, Union to Clay, Clay to Grand, north on Grand avenue to Burnside, west on Burnside across the bridge, west on Burnside to Seventh, Seventh to Stark, east on Stark to Second, Second to Washington, out Washington to Fourteenth, Fourteenth to Alder, Alder to Second, Second to Morrison, out Morrison to Twelfth and disband.

Cover Business District.

No two of the street pageants will cover the same route, but every business street

AUTOMOBILISTS' ATTENTION.

A meeting of the Portland Automobile Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the convention hall of the Commercial Club for the purpose of discussing a matter of great importance in the coming Rose Festival. Attendance of every member of the club is earnestly requested and desired. All owners of automobiles who may not be members of the club are also urgently invited to be present. It is intended at this meeting to make final arrangements for the great automobile parade to be given during the Rose Festival. All decorations for automobiles will be desired, be furnished by the committee. R. D. INMAN, President Portland Automobile Club.

In the downtown district where the thoroughfares are passable will be included in the lines of march. All of the parades will cover Washington and Morrison streets for nearly a dozen blocks. Before the routes of the night parades on Tuesday, "The Spirit of the Golden West" and on Friday, "The Allegorical, Mythological and Historical Parade," can be announced the Festival management will have to arrange with the streetcar company to elevate their power cables at several points because of the height of several of the floats entered.

Important East Side Meeting.

The East Side Business Men's Club will hold an important meeting tonight in the rooms of the East Side Athletic Club, in the Healy building, corner Grand avenue and East Morrison street, to finish up all details for the part the East Side will have in the Rose Festival. Reports will be submitted by the finance and all other committees. Announcement of plans for handling the crowds on Grand avenue on the night of June 4, on the occasion of the children's parade, on the drill of Multnomah's team and the procession of masqueraders, will be made. It is desired that there should be full attendance of all committeemen and all citizens interested.

CATCH DAYLIGHT BURGLARS

Men Who Robbed Thomas Cullen's House Are Apprehended.

The two burglars who made the police jump by robbing the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cullen, 453 Morrison street, in broad daylight on Tuesday afternoon and who calmly walked out of the house with more than $500 worth of stolen property, were apprehended last night and lodged in jail. Not only were these thieves caught but all of the stolen property was recovered that had been taken from the Cullen residence, besides other loot, which convinces the police that, although these burglars had been in the city a very short time, they had been operating boldly and freely. The owners of the other stolen property have not been discovered.

The men accused of the crime gave the names of Milton McMurray, aged 19 years, and Jack Lund, aged 20 years. They were both well dressed and gave evidence of some refinement and education. They said that they had arrived in the city on Friday last and were looking for work. They answered the description exactly which was furnished by the domestic employed by the family living next to the Cullen residence. Although the entire detective staff was at work on this case the capture was effected by Detective Smith unaided.

DAMROSCH IN SEATTLE

Conductor and His Great Orchestra Meet Overwhelming Success.

Last night was a gala night for Seattle and its musical devotees. Walter Damrosch and his splendid New York Symphony Orchestra opened their brief concert season there before an audience which filled to overflowing the big Moore theater. Their success was, as always, an overwhelming one—a triumph for conductor and orchestra. The three concerts to be given here in Portland at the Moore theater will only be the beginning of Damrosch's series of musical triumphs, as they undoubtedly are the absorbing topic of interest and enthusiasm everywhere. The Post-Intelligencer said of the orchestra:

If those present were not enthusiastic from mere anticipation, it took but a wave of the bat to bring them to a state of rapture and a response from his splendid organization to kindle enthusiasm which brought the audience into complete sympathy with the director and his orchestra. Mr. Damrosch's work is perfect. He is free from mannerisms that distract his hearers. When he directs the orchestra he gets the attention of those present. And his control of his organization is little short of marvelous. He is a master of crescendo and diminuendo, and it is in these his orchestra works as one instrument.

CHANGED BY THE OPERATOR

Famous Cassidy Telegram Will Cause Prosecution for Forgery.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—United States District Attorney Baker today made public the report on his investigation in the matter of the insertion of the word "not" in the telegram sent by Representative J. Stott Cassiday of New York to State Senator Cassidy, at Albany, regarding the vote on the then pending anti-race track bill. The report holds that the telegram was not altered, but that a telegraph operator, Julian E. Timberlake, caused a false telegram to be made and wired to Mr. Cassidy, inserting the word "not" in transmitting by wire the original message from the House corridor at the Capitol. The report holds that the crime of forgery was committed, the act being in violation of Section 848 of the District of Columbia code. The report says Timberlake made a statement in which he admitted that he caused the alleged false telegram to be sent to Senator Cassidy. The case will be presented to the grand jury at once.

MONITOR IS SHELL-PROOF

piercing an iron plate target at its base, it cut one of the supporting pipes and injured others. The second hole was from the same gun and cut two tubes a little higher up and on the other side of the mast. The third shot missed and then the order was given to fire a four-inch explosive shell high up near the top of the mast. This shook the structure and tore asunder a number of the tubes, but the mast seemed as stable as ever. The fifth and last shell was a solid shot from the big 12-inch gun, aimed so as to hit the mast on its outer rim on the side leaning toward the water, the structure having purposely been tilted at an angle of ten degrees to make it easier to fall. This terrific shot tore holes through many of the supporting tubes, but the mast still stood firm. The advantage of the mast is declared to have been fully demonstrated. Its points are that it is practically indestructible with shot or shell and has the still further advantage of weighing half of the old mast.

QUEENS OF OPERA

Two Prime Donne Sing for the King and President.

BUT FALLIERES IS WEARY

Head of French Republic Feasted at Banquet in London and Guest at Opera, Where Is Gorgeous Display.

LONDON, May 27.—Covent Garden was resplendent tonight in brilliant decorations for the coming of the King and Queen of England and the President of France. It was a gala occasion, and by the King's command, and Melba and Tetrazzini sang. Sir Edward Grey, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, gave a banquet to M. Fallieres early in the evening at the Foreign Office, the guests including the Prince of Wales, the Russian and French Ambassadors and the chief ministers of state. There were no speeches and the whole party drove from the Foreign Office to Covent Garden. Again huge crowds gathered and the orchestra cheered the various processions, the French President and the Prince of Wales, from Marlborough House. The theater presented a superb spectacle. "Marseillaise" Greets His Ears. On the arrival of the royal party the audience rose en masse, the orchestra playing the French national anthem. M. Fallieres was the first to enter the royal box. He was followed by King Edward, Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of the royal family. The Queen was attired in black, her corsage being encrusted with diamonds. She wore a superb tiara of diamonds. It was the general remark that President Fallieres looked extremely fatigued. He sat silent throughout almost the entire performance. Melba and Tetrazzini both were in splendid voice and were accorded a generous reception. At the close of the performance the audience again arose and remained standing during the departure of the royal family.

Americans to the Front.

Among the Americans at the opera were Ambassador Reid in evening dress and Mrs. Field; Mrs. Lewis Harcourt, Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. John W. Mackay and Mrs. Frank J. Mackay. Many gala suppers were given after the opera at all of the principal hotels, making a most common display of magnificent dresses and brilliant uniforms. The French and English national anthems were played and sung amid scenes of greatest enthusiasm and mutual good will. President Fallieres, who spent the greater part of this morning in receiving diplomats and representatives of the English civic society at St. James palace, drove across London this afternoon to take lunch with the Lord Mayor and the authorities of the City of London in the historic Guild Hall. His presence was marked by a series of ovations by the crowds which lined the thoroughfares through which he passed. President Fallieres was received at the Guild Hall by the Prince of Wales, Sir John Charles Bell, Lord Mayor of London, and Lady Bell.

TRIES TO END HER LIFE

Mrs. Nellie Morgan Despondent After Long Debauch.

Penniless and overcome by the remorse of many days' debauchery, Mrs. Nellie Morgan, 28 years of age, tried to commit suicide at midnight last night, at 67 Seventh street. She had locked the door and then turned on the gas and was unconscious when found by Pauline Vessey, who was called by Mrs. A. Harding, the landlady. Mrs. Morgan had been in the house only one night. She was taken to the police station where she recovered and was locked up charged with being drunk. An investigation made by the police revealed the fact that the woman, of whom little is known, had been ordered out of the house, 31 Second street, for unbecoming conduct and had applied to Mrs. Harding for assistance. Mrs. Harding recognized her as the daughter of friends she had known more than 20 years ago in San Francisco and out of charity took her in.

This is the Way to Keep Well without Cascarets

Live outdoors, and let your work be exercise. Else walk ten miles a day. Eat little meat, no white bread, no rich pastries. Eat many green vegetables, plenty of fruit, and bread made of whole wheat. Do that, and you'll have little need of a laxative while you keep young. But when you grow old, and the bowels become less active, you will need this help anyway. Cascarets are for those who live indoors, who eat rich foods, who eat and drink too much. This vegetable laxative does for them exactly what proper living would do. It causes no irritation, as pill cathartics, salts and castor oil do. Its action is just as natural—just as gentle—as the action of laxative foods. So choose your own way. Give Nature the aid of proper food and exercise, else the help of Cascarets. One way serves as well as the other. But some way is essential. For one cannot keep well unless the bowels move freely once every day. Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure to get the genuine, with C.C.C. on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

Don't Build Dough-Faced Boys. You can't build sturdy boys and girls out of white flour bread or soda crackers. If you tried to live on white flour products alone you would soon become a flabby idiot.

Shredded Wheat contains all the food elements for making healthy tissue, good brain and sound teeth. A food to grow on, to play on, to work on.

For breakfast heat the Biscuit in oven, pour milk over it (hot milk in winter) and a little cream. If you like the Biscuit for breakfast you will like toasted TRISCUIT (the Shredded Wheat wafer) for luncheon or any meal with butter, cheese or marmalade. At your grocers.
