ASTORIA, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late C. W. Carnahan. It is expected his bond will reach Washington and be approved, so that he can assume the office about June 15.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—The only accident to mar the pleasure of the day at Hermiston occurred about 2 o'clock this afternoon when Percy Rippey sustained a broken leg as the result of a collision between a horse that he was riding in a race and one ridden by Ross.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—Pickpockets reaped a harvest during the stay of the fleet. One of the first thiefs to be reported was when F. B. Clarke, president of Hill's North Bank Road, had a wallet containing $1800, chiefly in checks and papers, stolen from his pocket.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—After stripping off his coat vest, shoes and hat, a man believed to be Andrew Main, a stonecutter, about 40 years old, committed suicide this afternoon by jumping into the bay from the Brantford Mill Company's dock at the foot of Bell street.

ASTORIA, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—W. F. McGregor received official notification today of his appointment as Collector of Customs for the district of Oregon.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 27.—(Special.)—A runaway horse, owned by William Cheney, caused the runaway last Saturday night in which Mrs. Fred Henrich was seriously injured. Robbins succeeded in stopping the horse, and after righting the buggy he proceeded on to the meeting with Mr. Jack.

ASTORIA, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—While en route to Fort Stevens after some rock barges late last evening, the steamer Daniel Kern collided in the lower harbor with a fishing boat manned by Henry Tark and his boat-puller, Frank Jakola. The small boat was cut in two and both men thrown into the water. Tark was drowned, but Jakola managed to swim to a log boom, from where he was rescued by another fishing boat. Tark was a native of Finland, 38 years of age and unmarried. He had fished on the Columbia for a number of years. His body has not been recovered.

ASTORIA, Or., May 27.—(Special.)—Governor Chamberlain has something to say to you tonight at the Empire Theater.
