

FEW GOOD SCORES IN GOLF TOURNEY

Miss Flanders and C. R. Spooner Lead in the Qualifying Rounds.

GRASS IS HARD HAZARD

Several Surprises in Men's Championship, in Which Eight Players Are Paired for the First Round This Morning.

By defeating Mrs. J. C. Alsworth, Miss Flanders won the qualifying round in the women's open championship, 18-hole match play, and C. R. Spooner, of Seattle, won the handsome silver cup and the qualifying round in the men's open championship yesterday afternoon at the Waverly Golf Club state golf tournament.

Eight qualified, but taking the scores altogether, the playing throughout was disappointing. The long grass that has been allowed to grow on one of the hazards, proved a serious stumbling-block to both the women and men who played in the second day of the tournament.

The threatening weather kept away many spectators, and only a few who were not scheduled to play spent the day at the clubhouse. The air was cold and raw, and those who did visit the links did not stay long.

The eight to qualify in the men's championship play were Mr. Spooner, 87; Mr. Webb, 90; Mr. Andrews (Seattle), 91; Mr. Shevlin, 93; Mr. Linticum, 95; Mr. Young, 99, and Mr. Ayer, 99. In the drawings for today's play, for the Oregon championship, Mr. Webb is paired with Mr. Spooner; Mr. Young with Mr. Linticum; Mr. Ayer with Mr. Shevlin, and Mr. Voorhees with Mr. Andrews.

The eight that failed to qualify and who will play this afternoon for the flight cup are Mr. Murphy, who will meet Mr. Vantyle, of Seattle; Mr. Castleman and Mr. Tidmarsh, of Seattle; Mr. Zan and Dr. Morrison; Mr. Treat, of Seattle, and Mr. Lewis. The surprise of the day's play was the fact that Mr. Murphy failed to qualify in the first eight. He was way off his usual game, and like the others, drove into the grass and had lots of difficulty getting out.

In the drawings for today's play for the women's championship of Oregon Miss Flanders will meet Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Berry will meet Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Goehler will meet Miss Lewis, and Mrs. Dougherty will meet Miss Kochler.

The programme for the third day's play of the tournament follows:

- 8 to 10:30 A. M.—Men's open championship; 18 holes, match play, first round.
10 to 11 A. M.—Women's open championship; 18 holes, match play, second round.
11 to 12 P. M.—Men's open championship; 18 holes, match play, second round.
12 to 2 P. M.—Women's open championship; 18 holes, match play, third round.
2 to 5 P. M.—Men's open championship; 18 holes, match play, third round.
5 to 8 P. M.—Women's open championship; 18 holes, match play, third round.
8 to 11 P. M.—Nine-hole putting; daily prize.

OREGON TO PLAY MULTNOMAH

Teams Will Meet in Double-Header on Election Day.

The ballplayers representing the University of Oregon will meet the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club nine on election day, June 1, at the Vaughn-street grounds. Both teams have made splendid records so far this season, and the Portland fans will have the opportunity of seeing the best collegiate and amateur club talent in the Northwest perform on the diamond.

The Multnomah Club will have an exceptionally strong team in the field. Numbered among its players will be Kenny Fenton, captain of this season's victorious St. Albans team, and Hulskaam, who played four years as an outfielder on the crack baseball team at Yale. The teams will line up as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Team, Position. Oregon: De Neffe, Morris, P., Henkle, Howard, Bost, ... Multnomah: ...

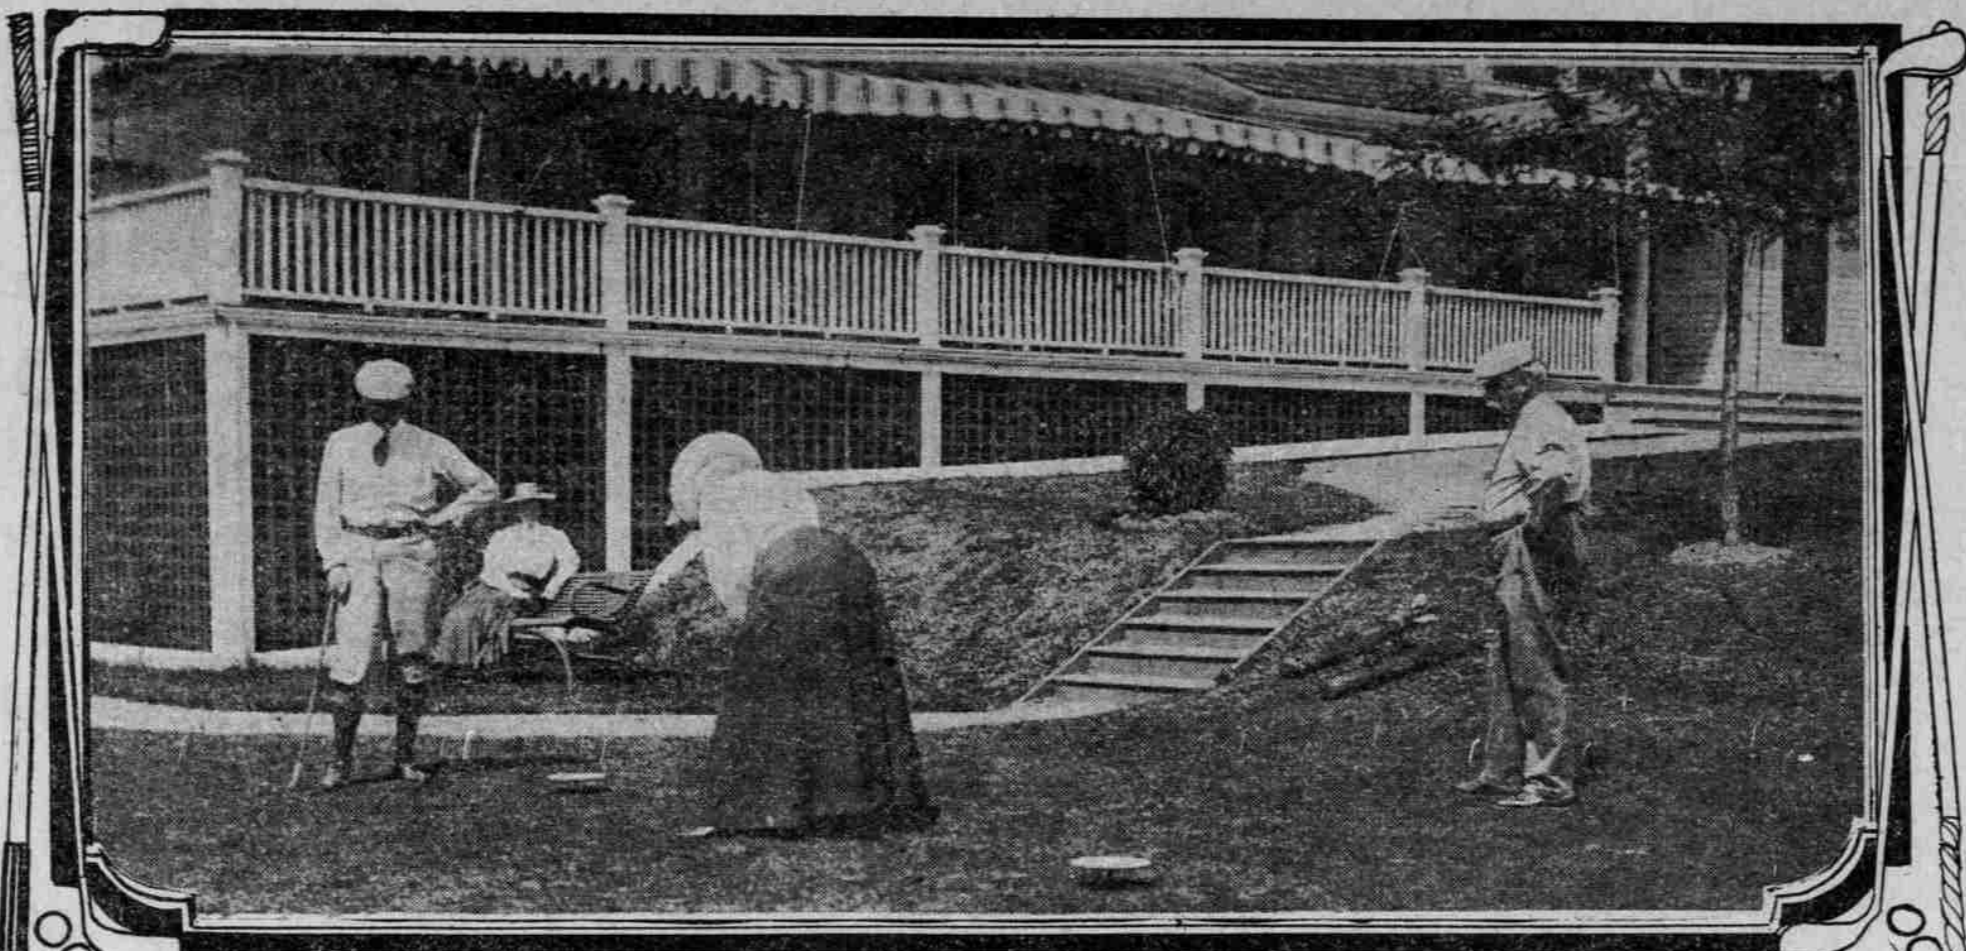

West Side High Beats Vancouver.

The game yesterday between the Vancouver High and the Portland West Side High resulted in another victory for the latter. Matters were a stand-off until the sixth inning, when the Cardinal men made seven runs. From that on they had it their own way until an attempted grandstand play on the part of the visitors let in a couple of runs. The final score was 13 to 4 in favor of the Portland team. Anthony, in the box, pitched a good game. His support was beautiful, except when a muffed ball and wild throw let in two runs. The Cardinal line-up was: McKinley, lb.; Ward, 2b.; Patterson, cf.; Brace, 1b.; Jamieson, captain, ss.; Sutton, cf.; Vosper, 3b.; Wang, rf.; Anthony, p.

High School Entries at Corvallis.

The West High will enter the following men in the state interscholastic meet at Corvallis tomorrow: Dart, Hickson, Latourette, Meiers, McGuire, Smith, Sutton and Crickmore. Dart is expected to carry off the 100-yard dash, although he will have no mean antagonist in Walters, of Island City. He is also depended upon in the relay. Hickson ought to get a place in the broad jump, although the first will go to Eugene. Latourette is a sure man in the low hurdles. Meiers has a good chance in the 220 and 440; McGuire in the high jump and high hurdles. Coach Hood counts on Smith in the discs and Sutton in the half-mile. Crickmore, who seems to be a coming man, may help in the 220 if he can get into condition.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 6, San Francisco 1. Standing of the Clubs. Table with columns for Club, W, L, Pct., G.

BY W. J. FETRAIN. Yesterday's enjoyment at the Vaughn street enclosure was a struggle for supremacy between a pair of Texas twirlers, and when the final count was summed up our Jesse Garrett had considerable the best of Mr. Sutor, both formerly of the Lone Star State.

Sutor began badly by walking Pearl Casey, the first man up for Portland in the inaugural chapter. Ryan bunted to Curtis, who took a leave at second instead of trying to get the runner, and both Portlanders were safe. Rafferty missed three and sat down. Danzig looked extremely dangerous, and when he was passed to first by Sutor the huge were popular. Heaney came through with a long sacrifice fly, which gave Casey the needed opportunity to score.

Danzig opened the fourth with a clout to right, and took second on Bassey's second sacrifice offering. Oie Johnson ripped the cover off the sphere for a three-cushion drive, and the big first sacker talled. San Francisco's lonesome score came in the fifth, and was made possible by Berry's single, followed by a corking two-bagger from the bat of his battery partner, Sutor. That was all for the Seals, for Jesse was out to win and gave the visitors no further chance to frequent the paths.

Just to show the Seals how easy it was, McCredie's hitlings corralled three more runs and padlocked the contest in their half of the fifth. Zelder's error gave Garrett life; Casey walked, while Ryan fooled the Seal infield with a little poke that they could not field, and again the bases were loaded. Rafferty picked one past Melchor which cleaned the sacks, and netted him a three-bagger on the score sheet.

The last run came in the eighth. Bassey hit a slow bouncer to Zelder and beat it out. Holly heaved wildly and the runner took second. Johnson sacrificed and Cooney's bingle sent the "Count" home.

Today will be ladies' day, and McCredie will send Chief Pinnacle against the Seal. Mohler will use either Ralph Willis or a Portland boy named Howard, who has been playing in the Tri-City League. The score:

WINS BY PERRINE'S OVERSIGHT

Oakland Gets Ninth-Inning Victory, Though Wheeler Is Out. SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Los Angeles won today from Oakland by a score of 2 to 1. The winning run was scored in the ninth inning after a most unusual play. With Wheeler on second and Dillon on first, Brashear landed a safe hit through the Oakland infield. The ball hit Wheeler and under the rules he should be out, but Umpire Perrine failed to see the play and Wheeler crossed the plate. Score: LOS ANGELES. A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. SALEM NINE IS CHAMPION

Capital City Ballplayers Defeat Columbia College Team. SALEM, Or., May 28.—(Special)—By a score of 5 to 4 Salem High School defeated Columbia College at baseball this afternoon and thereby won the academic championship of the state. The game was an exciting one, witnessed by a large crowd of yelling fans who cheered the brilliant plays on both sides. In the first half of the first inning the visitors did some splendid batting and registered two runs. In the second half the first three Salem men up went out. This disharmonized the local team, but after Columbia suffered a similar experience they gathered hope and in the next inning got four men over the home plate, after losing two men who tried to steal home. A two-bagger by Roberts brought three of the runs. In the fifth Kay took quick advantage of a fumble and registered another run for Salem. In the eighth good batting enabled Columbia to score twice. A pretty double play by Pitcher Weigebler to first base cut the last half of the eighth short and there was nothing doing in the ninth. The pitching was good on both sides.

Batteries—Columbia, Weigebler and Burns; Salem—Keene and Jones. Umpire, Lawrence.

Jiu Jitsu Champion Here.

Leopold McLaglen, the world's champion jiu jitsu wrestler, arrived in Portland last night from San Francisco. Professor McLaglen is in Portland for the purpose of making a match with a Japanese who is the champion jiu jitsu wrestler of Yokohama. He will know this afternoon whether he can make the match.

GREAT HORSE BREAKS DOWN

Keene's Colin Goes to Pieces After Wonderful Performance.

BELMONT PARK, L. I., May 28.—Colin, James R. Keene's undefeated champion 2-year-old of last year and winner of the Withers' stakes, his only start this year, has broken down. He worked a wonderful 1 1/2 miles this morning in 2:05, said to be the fastest time ever worked by a horse. He stepped the mile in 1:28 1-5 and the mile and a furlong in 1:52.

Colin has broken down in both forelegs and it is doubtful if he will race again this year. He was, according to horsemen, the greatest racehorse seen in this country.

West Side High vs. Salem.

The West High fans are all ajoy over the coming ball game with the Salem High, to be played tomorrow at Salem. A victory over the Capital team will enable them to question Columbia's premature claims to the championship in case the Salem aggregation fails today to break Columbia's uninterrupted series of victories. Anthony will pitch for Portland, with word to fall back upon. Hickson, who is entered in the track meet at Corvallis today, will be sadly missed. The lineup will be as follows: Anthony, p.; Patterson, c.; McKinley, 1b.; Ward, 2b.; Jamieson, captain, ss.; Vosper, 3b.; Brace, lf.; McAlpin, cf.; Wang, rf.; coach, Henderson.
