APPROVAL GIVEN BY SPIRITUALISTS

Cottel Ordinance Indorsed by First Society, After Long Discussion.

CLASH OF RIVAL FACTIONS

State Society Proposes Changes in Measure Governing Mediums, but the First Society Supports Its Leader.

Taking the stand that the Cottel antimedium ordinance, recently introduced in the City Council was for the purpose of eliminating so-called fakers from the ranks of spiritualism in Portland, the First Spiritual Society of this city last night, at a meeting called by the Oregon State Spiritualist Association, gained its point and those opposed to the Issue, realizing defeat, were compelled to adjourn before accomplishing any of the objects they had in view.

The state organization, which opposed the ordinance on the grounds that it took sway from mediums certain personal liberties, was completely routed by the local society. As a result of the conditions arising at last night's meeting, which was held at 501 Yamhill street, the only way nedium ordinance, recently introduced by held at 501 Yamhill street, the only way open for the state body to gain its measures, which were presented in the form of a petition suggesting amendments to the original ordinance, will be to allow the passage of the ordinance, unprotested, and the feet in the state of the continuous states of the continuous states. and then fight for the adoption of the amendment as drafted by themselves. This is the only course open if the council acts on the request of the spiritualists

Harrison D. Barrett was on hand an read the ordinance as it has been decided to return it to the Council for passage. The ordinance, as it now stands, is slightly different in several respects from the original document, but still contains the feature declared objectionable by the members of the state association. The mendment which the state body wished adopted would restore certain privileges which the ordinance, when passed as it stands at present time, will eliminate.

John Slater, a note-reading medium, and several others spoke. Mr. Slater maintained the stand he originally took in opposition to the ordinance. Mr. Barrett read the ordinance and cited incidents where similar documents had been passed in other cities. dents where similar documents had been passed in other cities, and not to the detriment of the "honest medium," as contended by the state society. Mrs. Emily Driscoll, President of the First Spiritual Society, led in the advocacy of the ordinance as it now stands. Mrs. Sophia Seip, as President of the State Association, lead the opposing faction. Several others of note in local spiritualistic circles also debated on the issues. The vote of the First Spiritual Society in favor of the ordinance carried unant-mously, although it was informally put before the meeting.

The petition suggesting changes in the ordinance over which the discussion was at follows:

ordinance over which the discussion waged follows:

We the Board of State Spiritualists' Association of Oreson, chartered under the National Spiritualists' Association at Washington, D. C., chartered for the purpose of religious rights and protection, to encourage Spiritual mediumship, Spiritual unfoldment in its various phases and gifts, known as clairvoyance, clear-seeing, clairrandiance, clear hearing, trance, inspiration, prophecy, psychometry, seership, do recognize mediums and mediumship as the necessary and legitimate channel through which all proof of our religion and religious rights of Spiritualism has made its advent to the world today.

our recigion and religious rights of spiritualism has made its advent to the world today.

On these various phases of mediumship, we have founded our religion and "religious rights," to demonstrate our religion and ceremonies of progress and right.

Hence, we, as Spiritualists, do petition this committee on ordinance, known as the "Barrett-Cottel" ordinance, to strike from Section 1 the words "clairvoyance," "psychometry," spirits," mediumship, "seership," "psychecy," as those terms are used together with "trance," "Inspiration," "clairvoyance," "clear seeing, used as phases belonging to grades of development in our religion. Hence we would petition the honorable committee of the Council to exampt "Spiritual Mediumship," from taxation; provided their work is confined to work known as Spiritual Mediumship. We would further claim. Spiritual Mediumship does not depend upon or recognize as necessary, placanda—"Stars," "Hands, "Frends," "Faces," "Love potions," selling stocks of any kind, shape or manner, or other lottons, as belonging to or having any part or parcel of the religion or religious rights of Spiritualism, or Spiritual Mediumship. Those who sell stocks lottons, charms, should pay the requisite license or fine. Our motto is. "Califwate Spiritual unfoldment and advancement to the higher and holler Spiritualism Section 2—We heartily indorse this section and urge its adoption, and recommend that the fine be increased to $1000 instead of $100. We would like to urge the following suggestion: That this honorable body of Councilmen draw the line of discrimination and distinction between licenses insued, if licenses there be issued.

That each branch of work permitted by the Council bear stamp upon same of the profession. Let us say here: No person or persons resorting to loud advertising, such as "Handa," "Heada," "Stars," "Paces," and advertisements, such as "Rilmo," Neganze," "Nibbles," "Marsh swid," "DeMars," "Mifford," Travers, and all others who advertise in like manner, have anything whatever to do with Spiritualism or any branch of its teachings. Many starganers would undoubtedly prefer to pay a mominal lecune and thereafter be at peace. License, in our estimation, should be governed according to lengthy advertisements allowed on bills at cafes, theater curtains, and placards introduced through our city. Such can afford to divide a large share of that spoil, as spoil it has come to be.

ame to be Lastly: We would petition for Spiritual reddium's freedom from taxation, granting ublic and private circles, seances, public nil private meetings to be free to relive and give messages. That we shall be nown and recognized as members of or benging to some of the Spiritual churches, ocieties or associations chartered from the sational Spiritualists' Association of the private and the sational spiritualists.

America:
Lastly: Without presenting our petition to your honorable body in sections, we do commit them to you for your consideration and adoption. Signed by committee.

Gould's Pittsburg Terminal May Default in Interest.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Officials of the Gould roads were in conference today concerning the affairs of the Pittsburg Terminal Railway Company. Interest to Terminal Railway Company. Interest to the amount of $600,000 on the first mortgage bonds falls due on Monday and doubt was expressed in financial circles today whether this interest would be met. Today's meeting of the Pittsburg Terminal directors was preceded by that of the Wabash board. No official statement was issued, but it was announced that another meeting of the Pittsburg Terminal board would be held tomorrow, when some action regarding the interest payment will probably be taken.

In the financial district reports of a complete reorganization of the Pittsburg Terminal were current, and it was learned that a tentative reorganization committee friendly to the controlling interests had been formed.

The financial condition of the Pittsburg Terminal Railway, which owns a major-

The financial condition of the Pittsburg Terminal Railway, which owns a majority of the stock of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Road, and is in turn controlled by the Wabash, is not especially encouraging. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1907, the Pittsburg Terminal reported a deficit of about $50,000, and for the nine months of the current year earnings were $50,000 net, with fixed charges of about $50,000.

$480,000 net, with fixed charges of about $500,000. In view of the condition of Pittsburg Terminal's finances, some significance attaches to the report from Pittsburg that officials of the Grand Trunk Railway and the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Road have been making an inspection tour of the Wabaah-Pittsburg Terminal systems.

GREAT GALE IN CHICAGO

Havoc Caused by Wind, Rain and Lightning.

CHICAGO, May 28.—A gale of wind which reached a greater velocity than has been recorded in Chicago for seven years, tonight preceded an electrical storm which did considerable damage in all parts of the city. Several per-sons were injured by debris blown from buildings by the gale, and a church and a half score of other build-ings were struck by lightning. The storm was the culmination of a day of atmospheric disturbances, which be-gan with daylight and continued intermittently until nearly midnight.

The greatest instance of damage occurred when an 89-foot iron chimney was blown from the roof of an eightstory, building at No. 119 Lasalle street. The chimney fell across a court, breaking windows in the Bre-voort hotel from the 14th to the sixth stories, and also crashed through a skylight in a restaurant adjoining. One man was severely cut by broken glass and scores of guests in the hotel and ns of the restaurant were thrown into a panic.

The high wind, which reached a velocity of $6 miles an hour, crippled telegraph and telephone wires throughdut the city. For a short time the city was almost cut off from communication with the outside world, but most of the damage in this second was tempted.

cation with the outside world, but most of the damage in this regard was temporary and was soon adjusted.

The day opened with a severe electrical and rain storm, which was almost a cloudburst. The humidity engendered by the outburst increased during the day until 96.6 per cent was recorded and the temperature also mounted steadily, the maximum being 79 der 17 points above the mistroum 79 deg., 17 points above the minimum 79 deg., 17 points above the minimum. The rainfall for the morning and evening storm was .95 of an inch, the heaviest experienced here in a long period. The storm was a portion of the disturbance which had been hanging over the Middle West for several days. Local conditions had kept this city free from disturbances until today.
