WIFE LIKES STAGE

May Hirsch Leaves Home to Become Actress.

HUSBAND GIVEN DIVORCE

Four Other Matrimonial Yokes Lifted by Judge Gantenbein-Perry

L. Witheek Wants Decree Against Annette Witbeck.

Because May Hirsch liked the stage better than her husband and family Charles E. Hirsch obtained a divorce in Because May Hirsch liked the stage better than her busband and family Charles E. Hirsch obtained a divorce in the Circuit Court yesterday morning. He said his wife is now palying with a company at Butte, Mont. and is known by her maiden name. May Earlight.

Hirsch is employed by the Wells-Fargo Express Company. He said he always did what he could to make home pleasant for his wife, but that she instated upon breaking up the home to satisfy her desire to see the world and have a good time. That was a year ago, and althought she has spoken once or twice, said Hirsch, of coming back, she has never done so. The couple were married February 4, 1961. They have one child, 4 years old, and of this the father obtained the custody, Judge Gantenbein granting the decree.

Four other divorces were granted yesterday morning, four for wives and one to a husband. Milmie A. Hughes, was of such Jealous disposition that he would not permit her to speak to mutual friends without giving her a scolding. She also said he had abused her, and had made numerous false accusations against her fidelity to him. The couple were married at Lewiston. Ifaho, December 5, 1885. They have three grown children. The decree was granted.

Ina M. Donglass testified that Bruce Douglass began a course of inhuman treatment upon the wedding day, and continued it ever since. She asked and was granted the privilege of resuming her maiden name, Abraham. On May 37, last year, she said, he pounded her face until it was swollen, sandwiching a few curses between the blows. They were married June 6, 1966. Judge Gantenbein thought the cause sufficient for a divorce, and granted it.

Bensie Mucilier obtained a divorce from Paul Muciler on the ground of desertion. They were married at Everett, Wash., July 16, 1962. Mrs. Mueller was granted a divorce, and granted the custody of their adopted child, Ethel.

The ease of Bertha Heiseg against

He was granted the custody of their adopted child, Ethel.

The case of Bertha Helseg against Charles Helseg, which was to have been tried resterday, was postponed for one week

Perry L. Witheck has filed suit against Perry L. Witheck has filed suit against Anneste Witheck, to obtain a divorce. He asserts that in November, 1907, she contracted the habit of drunkenness. He accuses her of having visited restaurants and grills of questionable repute, and of indusing in bolsterous repasts at unseemly hours. He also says the house was neglected and the children left to go without their meals. The couple were married at Bay City, Mich., April El. 1902. They have two children, aged 1 and 3 years respectively, of which the husband asks the custody.

NOTES OF THE PROBATE COURT

Personal Property of McAllen & Mc-Donnell Estate to Be Sold

Dan McAllen obtained an order from the County Court yesterday directing him to sell the personal property belonging to the partnership estate of McAllen & McDonnell, This personal property consists of about $59,000 worth of dry goods. It is probable that it will be sold at private sale, although the court gives Mr. McAllen, the executor the right to use Allen, the executor, the right to use his discretion in the matter. The real estate belonging to Mr. McAllen and the heirs of the late John T. McDon-nell is valued at $40.000. Under McDon-nell's will Florence McDonnell is the sole legates.

The estate of Mary J. Hamilton, val-The estate of Mary J. Hamilton, valued at $7000, was admitted to probate in the County Court yesterday. O. W. Eastham was appointed administrator, to serve under $3000 bonds. Mrs. Hamilton died May 16. Her heirs are: Louis A. McDonald, Losia Jones, Della Moffett and Helen Sherman, daughters;

Moffett and Helen Sherman, daughters;
W. J. Hamilton, a son living at Moffett Springs, Wash.; Dalsy Eastham, Emma Hamilton, Fred H. Hamilton and Bessie Dollar.
C. Henri Labbe was appointed administrator of the estate of Henry Smith by the County Court yesterday, Appraisers were also appointed as follows: Thomas N. Strong, P. D. Chamberlain and Edward Joost. Smith died April 7.

final account in the estate of A. The final account in the estate of A. L. Little, filed with the County Court yesterday by C. A. Bell, the executor, shows the estate to have been worth $1225.29, Of this amount there is a balance on hand of $1441.31.

LA ROSE PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Charged With Killing H. Neuman. Case Set for July 2.

Jack La Rose pleaded not guilty yesterday afternoon before Judge Gan-tenbeln to the charge of murder in the first degree. The information charges La Rose, who has been styled the "gaspipe thug," with killing Hyman Neuman at 11 A. M. May 12. The on-slaught upon the pawnbroker was made with a blunt instrument, presumably a pipe.

The case against La Rose is to be tried July 2. L. W. Humphreys and Jay H. Upton, his attorneys, appeared in court yesterday, and submitted without argument a demurrer to the information. mation, on the ground that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. The demurrer was overraled by the Court, after which Deputy District Attorney Hancy asked the prisoner if he was ready to enter his plea. He replied in the affirmative, and without apparent emotion said he was not suffix. was not guilty.

Guide Denied Injunction.

Judge Gantenbein denied the appli-cation of James C. Stuart, of the Daily Guide, for a writ of injunction against the City Council in the Circuit Court yesterday. The Guide, which has recently been putting out a daily edition, put in a bid together with the Evening Telegram and the Daily Abstract, for the City's advertising. The Guide's bid was the lowest, but the contract was awarded to the Abstract. Judge Gantenbein sustained the con-tention of City Attorney Kavanaugh that the Guide has not a bons fide daily circulation at present.
