TEST LOCAL OPTION LAW Marshfield Claims Charter Privilege

Supersedes State Authority. MARSHFIELD, Or. May 29.—(Spectal.)—There has arisen a legal point in regard to the local-option fight in this county which may mean a lawsuit after the election. It is announced that if the county should go dry the liquor interests will go to the Supreme Court for a decision as to how it affects.

Marshfield.

Marshfeld.

Since the local-option law was adopted Marshfeld was granted a charter in which it states that the City Council has the right to license, tax and regulate the salcons. Some of the law-yers hold that this means that it is entirely up to the City Council as to whether or not there shall be salcons and that even though the county should vote dry as a whole it will not affect this city. At least this is the claim that is made, and it is declared that the salcons will not close until there has been a decision from the Supreme Court. Robert Johnson, of Raymond.

LANE SAFELY REPUBLICAN

County Expected to Give Majority for Every Man on the Ticket.

EUGENE, Or., May 29.—(Special.)—
The campaign in Lane County, completed today, has been very quiet, yet it is expected that the vote Monday will be the largest ever polled in Lane County. One thousand more voters were registered this year than two years ago, and a large majority of the people will be brought to the polls because of their interest in the university autororisation bill. The county university appropriation bill. The county is also interested in the local option contest, in which an effort will be made to make Lane "wet" after a "dry" regime of two years.

It is the claim of the "drys," and it is not disputed by their opponents, that the county will cast a larger yote for prohi-bition this time than two years ago. The Republicans claim that they will elect every man on their ticket, from Senator to Constable. Two years ago Governor Chamberlain carried Lane County by a majority of 21 votes.

R. S. Bryson, sceretary of the Republican Central Committee of Lane County, said this mounting: "Indications are that we shall ober terror many control to the county. said this morning: "Indications are that we shall elect every man on the ticket. There is no contest with the Democratis excepting over the Sherfff. For years they have concentrated their forces and succeeded in securing this office, but Mr. Griffin, the Republican candidate, is the strongest man that has been put up by the Republican party. A careful canvass of the county has been made, and I estimate that we will elect our Sheriff by 500 majority. As to the other offices, the Republicans will as usual have a clean sween.

WASHINGTON SUPREME COURT EXERCISES POWER.

Awards Alimony to Wife, Pending Husband's Appeal, Because She Is Left Penniless.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 29 .- (Special.)-By a vote of 4 to 3, the State Supreme Court today decided that such court has original jurisdiction in divorce and may enter orders directing the pay-ment of alimony pending litigation, sult oney and attorney's fees. The jurisdiction of the court has been in dispute mong attorneys for years. The decisions, for there are two cases, were writ Chief Justice Hadley and Justices Dunbar and Crow. Justices Mount, Rudkin and Fullerton filed a dissenting opinion, as-serting that the majority opinion is a usurpation of power not granted to the court, from which serious complications may result.

The first case is from King County.

winch of course stayed the payment of allmony and left her practically penniless. Her attorneys positioned the Supreme Court for allmony, pointing out that she had no means, that she had to care for her crippled child, and unless she had suit money and attorneys' fees, could not fight the appeal in the Supreme Court.

The court in its decisions says the state, vapresenting society, is a proper party to representing society, is a proper party to all divorce proceedings, made so by law, and that it would be a monstrous policy which would allow one party in the suit to tie up all the funds by an appeal bond and thus rob the other party of the right to be heard in the higher court. In this case Mrs. Holcomb is allowed $50 a month allmony from the time th cappeal was taken, $75 suit money and $100 for attor-neys' fees. The court, however, refused er application that the husband be put nder bonds not to leave the state and that the alimony claim be made a first lien upon real estate.

A similar decision was rendered in the case wherein Ellen A. Sullivan secured a divorce from Dantel Sullivan, who apdivorce from Daniel Sullivan, who appealed. Property valued at $250,000 is in the possession of the husband, while she is in California with a minor child dying. It was ordered that she be paid $100 per month for her support, $150 per month for month for her support, $150 per month for the child, $75 sult money and $15 attorneys' fees.
