

STATE HAS GONE FOR CHAMBERLAIN

Plurality Over Cake Will Be 1000 and Perhaps Even More.

STATEMENT NO. 1 IN DOUBT

Control of Legislature for Democrat Uncertain - Republican Majority Big - New Counties Vote Dry. Appropriation for University.

Continued From First Page. elected Railroad Commissioners by wide margins. Single tax has been beaten heavily. Woman suffrage, it is probable, has been defeated. The majority against it in Marion County being 1009. No estimate can be measured at this time on other initiative and referendum measures.

Table with 2 columns: Counties, Chamberlain, Cake. Lists counties like Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Curry, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lincoln, Linn, Malheur, Marion, Morrow, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wasco, Washington, Wheeler, Yamhill, and totals for Chamberlain's plurality.

CAKE'S BIG LEAD IN LANE

Legislative Ticket Will Stand Bean, Calkins and Eaton.

EUGENE, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Meager returns from Eugene and Springfield precincts give Cake 229 and Chamberlain 112 for United States Senator. Hawley, for Representative, has 190 to 50. Hawley's majority will increase in this proportion until all returns are in. The legislative ticket will likely be L. E. Eaton, W. W. Calkins, A. H. Eaton. Eaton leads the ticket.

PREVIOUS LEADS CUT DOWN

Cake Running Chamberlain a Close Race in Linn. ALBANY, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Complete returns have not yet been received from a single precinct in Linn County. The vote at this hour indicates that Cake and Chamberlain are running close. In past elections Chamberlain has always carried Linn by big majorities, but Republicans have apparently stayed closer with Cake this year than they did with the gubernatorial nominee Chamberlain defeated. Early returns indicate that the Democrats, aided by Statement No. 1 Republicans, have elected a portion of their legislative ticket and possibly all of it.

CAKE HAS LEAD IN BENTON

Chamberlain Loses County on Partial Returns.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Meager returns from five precincts in Chamberlain 278. Returns indicate the election of Bonebrake as Representative by more than 100. Nothing is obtainable on the university appropriation bill or single tax issue.

UMATILLA COUNTY IN DOUBT

Saloons Driven Out by Less Than 200 Majority.

PENDLETON, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Partial election returns at midnight indicate that Umatilla County has gone dry by less than 200 majority. The vote has carried Pendleton but will not go out of here with enough to overcome the strong vote against them throughout the county. Cake is only about 20 ahead of Chamberlain and it will take an official count to determine who has carried the county. The Democrats have elected the Sheriff without opposition and apparently the Assessor. The Republicans have elected all the other officers, including Barrett and Mann for the Legislature, the former being for Statement No. 1, the latter against it. It is impossible to tell anything about any of the amendments as the election officers have not started to count them yet.

MEDFORD IS FOR CHAMBERLAIN

Jackson County Probably Wet by a Small Margin.

MEDFORD, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Medford, with two wards, polled today a vote of 1152. In the North ward, in which 622 votes were cast, the count, as it is proceeding, shows a ratio of 3 to 4 in favor of the wets, with about the same ratio in favor of Chamberlain. South Medford, with 530 votes, shows about the same ratio for Chamberlain, but a lower ratio for the wets. Conservative estimates show a possible small lead in the city for Chamberlain. Kullbick and Hammons are probably elected. The fight has been on the prohibition question and both sides worked very hard and at this hour the result is most uncertain, but with a majority perhaps in favor of anti-prohibition. Latest reports

W. R. Ellis, Second District.

CAKE AHEAD IN JOSEPHINE

Plurality in County Will Probably Be 300.

GRANTS PASS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Today's election has been exceedingly interesting and the heaviest vote in the history of Josephine County was polled. Cake is running ahead in all precincts heard from and will probably carry the county by about 300. It looks like the university appropriation would carry, but counting is going along very slowly and returns are problematical. The single tax amendment, from all indications, will receive a very small vote. The general outlook is favorable to the majority of the candidates on the Republican ticket. Both sides are claiming a victory for anti-prohibition, and however the question may be decided, it will be very close. No definite estimate can well be ascertained before tomorrow.

RESULT DOUBTFUL IN MARION

Early Returns Give Chamberlain Small Lead.

SALEM, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Partial returns from 23 precincts in Marion County show that the entire Republican ticket has received a majority, with the possible exception of United States Senator, upon which the vote will be close. The legislative ticket, composed of three Statement No. 1 men and two Republican voters' choice candidates, has been elected. The vote so far as received shows: Cake, 238; Chamberlain, 196. The vote in the country precincts has not been received, but indications are that the county will go against prohibition, and probably 500 against the University appropriation bill, and 100 or more against equal suffrage. The vote thus far on the armory bill is close.

CAKE WILL CARRY KLAMATH

Incomplete Count Gives Republican Slight Lead.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—A heavy vote was cast throughout Klamath County today. Incomplete returns from five precincts indicate that Chamberlain will carry the county and that prohibition will be a close contest. Klamath Falls cast 761 votes, of which the 150 counted give Cake 75 and Chamberlain 38. The University appropriation carries 5 to 1. Apparently many have voted on all referendum propositions regardless of their import, while many did not vote upon them at all. George H. Merriman, for State Senator, will have large majority and Bellnap and Branton will carry the county for State Representative.

CAKE WINS OUT IN HARNEY

Democrats Concede He Has Carried County by 50 Votes.

BURNS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—With 103 votes counted in this precinct, Cake has 50 and Chamberlain 32. Three out of five precincts give Cake 70, Chamberlain 70, leaving Cake 15 ahead. The same percentage will give Cake a lead of over 100. Local option is running close. Republican candidates for Senator, Representative, District Attorney and all county officers except Clerk and Treasurer are likely to win. Democrats concede Cake the county by 50 votes.

RESULT IS CLOSE IN GRANT

Meager Returns Give Cake Slight Advantage—University Wins.

CANYON CITY, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Meager returns from five precincts in Grant give Cake 133, Chamberlain 133, Ellis 168, Jeffrey 14. The Senatorial vote will be close. Ellis' majority will reach 500. C. W. Parrish, Joint Senator, and H. T. Belknap, Joint Representative, have no opposition. Prohibition so far has carried. The University appropriation has carried, but single tax has lost.

WASHINGTON BY 100 TO 300

Prohibition Is Beaten on Face of Early Returns.

HILLSBORO, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Latest returns give Cake a lead of a few votes and he will carry the county from 100 to 300. Hillsboro gives Cake 130 votes to Chamberlain's 83; Reedville and Cornelius precincts go for Chamberlain, Buxton for Cake. So far as counted, Prohibition is beaten by about 200 votes and the county will probably go 200 wet. Hawley, for Congress, will carry the county by 1000. The entire Republican legislative ticket, one Senator and three Representatives will be elected. The university appropriation will be defeated, as will also single tax.

CARRIES CLACKAMAS BY 200

Chamberlain Has Good Lead on Count in 12 Precincts.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Incomplete returns from 12 precincts give Cake 243, Chamberlain 394. Chamberlain has probably carried Clackamas by 200. Hawley will have a plurality of at least 1200. Indications point to a victory for the anti-saloon element, and the country may go dry. The entire Republican ticket is elected, except Sheriff and Assessor, which are doubtful.

YAMHILL IS CAKE'S BY 200

Barrett Elected Joint Senator and Beals Joint Representative.

MUMFREVILLE, Or., June 1.—(Special).—The count is progressing slowly. Partial returns give Cake 91 and Cham-

Partial Results in Lebanon.

LEBANON, Or., June 1.—(Special).—A heavy vote was polled today and the count is proceeding slowly. At 10:30 out of 284 votes cast in this precinct 50 have been counted. Cake received 23, Chamberlain 25, Hawley 25, Whitney 16, for local option 22, against local option 26; for Reedy amendment 19, against amendment 21. Chamberlain is running ahead in his ticket. The Republican Legislative ticket is in the lead.

Morrow Goes for Prohibition.

HEPPNER, Or., June 1.—(Special).—It is conceded that Cake has the county by a good majority and Ellis is very strong. Phelps for District Attorney, has the county by a small majority. The county is conceded for prohibition by 100 or more. A big vote out in Heppner, far above registration.

Cake 2 to 1 in Columbia.

ST. HELENS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—No outside precincts have been heard from. Cake is running two to one in Union Precinct and probably carry the county by better than the Republican estimate of 300. Wets will carry Union Precinct and probably the whole county.

Close Vote in Arlington.

ARLINGTON, Or., June 1.—(Special).—At a late hour tonight, with the counting of the votes half completed, Cake has 25 and Chamberlain 25; Ellis 25, Jeffrey 12, Aitchison 19, Hamilton 22. Prohibition has 20 votes with 29 votes against it.

Polk Will Give Chamberlain 100.

DALLAS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Six precincts in Polk County give Cake 194, Chamberlain 178; Hawley 228, Whitney 112. It is expected that later returns will take away Cake's lead and give Chamberlain a margin of about 100.

Close on Legislature in Jackson.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., June 1.—(Special).—At 2:30 A. M. Chamberlain has a lead of from 200 to 300 over Cake. The result on Prohibition and Chamberlain's ticket is very close. The university appropriation carried by a good vote.

Democratic Sheriff in Lane.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., June 1.—(Special).—North and South Junction City had the votes counted; Chamberlain 25 ahead. The Democrats lead for Sheriff, and Republicans in other county offices. The wets are ahead by 15.

Late Count in Tillamook.

TILLAMOOK, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Late results tonight are as follows: Hawley, 157; Whitney, 51; Cake, 201; Chamberlain, 170; Barrett, 170; Kayden-dall, 62; Beals, 81; Blanchard, 57; Christianson, 12; Laughlin, 12. University will lose, three to one.

Dry Win in Woodburn.

WOODBURN, June 1.—(Special).—Four hundred and forty ballots were cast here today out of 48 counted. Cake has received 22, Chamberlain 25; Hawley 32, Whitney 12, for prohibition 17, against prohibition 27.

Hood River for Cake and Wet.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Incomplete returns from five Hood River precincts indicate a majority for Cake for Senator and for Congress, and against prohibition.

Cake, 10—Chamberlain, 4.

BINGHAM SPRINGS, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Cake 10, Chamberlain 4, Cooper 1, Ellis 10, Jeffrey 4, Shaffer 1, Bean 12, Beis 1, Bailey 11, Emery 4, Aitchison 1, Hamilton 12, Young 2.

Lincoln County Favors Cake.

TOLEDO, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Cake has unbroken lead in Lincoln County. Prohibition is very close, but will probably win. The weather was fair and the vote heavy.

Chamberlain Leads in Tillamook.

TILLAMOOK, Or., June 1.—(Special).—At 9 o'clock the count in this city stood: Cake 54, Chamberlain 57; Beals 55, Loughlin 32. Prohibition doubtful.

Cake Leads in Silverton.

SILVERTON, Or., June 1.—(Special).—At 10 o'clock the vote stood: Cake 41, Chamberlain 22; prohibition 32, anti-prohibition 25. Hawley will get a big vote.

Running Even on Ontario.

ONTARIO, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Early count of votes show candidates for Senator and Congressman are running even. Prohibition is leading, 2 to 1.

Cake Leading in Ashland.

ASHLAND, Or., June 1.—(Special).—First 65 votes counted give Cake 32, Chamberlain 28, Prohibition 30, against Prohibition 20.

Chamberlain Gets Baker by 400.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Chamberlain has carried Baker County by about 400 majority if the present ratio continues.

Slight Lead in Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, Or., June 1.—(Special).—Chamberlain has a slight lead in this city. Indications are the town will go wet.

MISTAKEN FOR A ROBBER

Man Running to Board Train Killed by Brakeman.

RED CLIFF, Colo., June 1.—William Soper, a Rio Grande passenger, was killed by a train for murder by the coroner's jury which concluded the investigation of the killing of James Brothers, a saloonkeeper at Gilman, on Saturday night last. The shooting occurred as Soper's train was pulling out of the station here. The train crew had been warned that a plot was being hatched to kidnap and rob the train and, when Soper saw Brothers running toward the train, he fired a shot at him, which resulted in Soper's death. It is reported that Brothers was making an effort to overtake the train for the purpose of traveling to his home at Gilman.

MANY COUNTIES GO DRY

PROHIBITION MAKES GAINS THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

Seven New Stars on Temperance Banner—Two Counties Are Wet. Many Doubtful.

Many Prohibition gains are indicated by election reports from the various counties that voted on the wet and dry issue. Among the wet counties that seem to have gone dry are Gilliam, Morrow, Union, Clackamas, Malheur, Umatilla and Jackson. Counties that rejected Prohibition are Washington and Marion. Doubtful counties are Tillamook, already dry, and Josephine, Coos and Wasco, with odds in favor of Prohibition. Dry counties that voted for Prohibition are Lane, Yamhill, Lincoln and Linn. Further election returns are expected to show more gains for Prohibition. Of Oregon's 22 counties 25 voted on the Prohibition issue, the five not voting on county Prohibition being Benton, already dry, Multnomah, Baker, Clatsop and Malheur. In each of the four counties last named a number of elections were held for precinct prohibition.

The results as enumerated in the foregoing will be disputed by the counting forces in several of the counties, but the returns show plainly that county Prohibition has made big gains throughout the state. The only counties that anti-Prohibitionists seem to have carried without dispute are Marion and Washington.

All the towns voted against Prohibition and that their ballots were outnumbered by those of the dry forces in the surrounding area. The heaviest losses on the liquor side are Union, Clackamas, Umatilla and Jackson. These counties will be claimed, however, by the liquor forces until the final returns are in. In many of the counties there were more strenuous contests over Prohibition than over the election of United States Senator.

In Clatsop County three Astoria precincts voted dry.

Lane voted for Prohibition by about 200 majority, Union by about 100, Jackson by a small majority, Umatilla by less than 200, Malheur by a vote of two to one.

OREGON'S WALNUT KING

Thomas Prince, of Yamhill Co., Or., says: "Some of my nine-year-old English walnut trees produced as high as 100 pounds of nuts last year. No pruning; no spraying is required, and no crop failures have occurred in Oregon. I have received a higher price than that paid for the California nut. Even at 17 cents per pound thirty good 9-year trees will produce $150 per acre."

Five miles from Mr. Prince's grove and about 25 miles from Portland is a 230-acre orchard, owned by the Oregon Walnut Co., which is now offered for sale in tracts from 2 1/2 to 10 acres with three-year-old English walnut trees, furnished by Thomas Prince & Son, nurserymen; part cash down and balance on easy installments. We will plant peaches between the rows and care for your trees for five years. The soil is a deep, rich sandy loam, regarded by experts as the best walnut land on the Coast. Perfectly situated; two miles from a railroad station. Parties leave Portland daily to see this property. Round trip $1.50.

Investment seekers cannot afford to overlook this opportunity. Land cannot be dissected; walnut trees cannot run away or stop growing during Presidential elections. Drop a line to MESSRS. W. B.
