Governor Chamberlain, Democrat, has carried the state of Oregon for United States Senator over H. M. Cakes, Republican, by a majority ranging from 1000 to 1200. Returns from all the counties are nearly enough complete to leave no question of the result. Chamberlain has been successful in 14 out of the 22 counties, as follows: Baker, Clackamas, Clatsop, Crook, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lincoln, Linn, Malheur, Marion, Multnomah, Polk and Union, and probably in Lake.

Mr. Cakes has carried the remaining 8 counties, but his average pluralities are much smaller than his opponents. The largest margin given by any county for the Republican candidate was 500 in Lane, where the unpopular action of the Democratic Governor in vetoing the state university appropriation had a great influence on the voters. Cakes' smallest plurality was 18 in Benton. The County of Baker, which the Portland Republican candidate for Senator carried by a large plurality in the primaries, reversed its friendly attitude towards him and gave his rival more than 300. The same result occurred in Clackamas. The Eastern Oregon counties, however, as a rule, although they were for Fulton in the primaries, gave the Republican candidate pluralities, although they were small in nearly every instance. Umatilla, however, which is the home of Senator Fulton's strongest friends, rolled up over 800 for the man who beat him in April, Wasco, which was yesterday thought to have gone for Chamberlain, comes through finally with a small plurality for Cakes.

Governor Chamberlain had the unexpected large plurality of 300 in Clackamas, the home of Statement No. 1, but in Clatsop, the residence of Senator Fulton, where the Democratic nominee relied on a plurality of from 500 to 1000, he had only 300. It is not denied, however, that many of Senator Fulton's Astoria friends vigorously knifed the Portland Republican nominee, but the results of their slaughter were not so serious to him as they might have been in view of the fact that the large fishing contingent in the lower river towns was hostile to the Democratic Governor, and declined to support him. In Crook County, the home of ex-Representative Williamson, a warm friend and supporter of the Astoria Senator, the Democratic nominee had a decided plurality. Linn, the old home of the Governor, gave him more than 400. In Marion the margin is very close, practically complete returns, however, showing a Democratic lead of about 100. In Multnomah the early expectations that Governor Chamberlain would have from 1200 to 1500 are not borne out by the later returns. Indeed, it appeared to be probable from the reports of many precincts yesterday morning that Chamberlain had carried the largest county in the state by only the slenderest vote, if at all; but later in the day, when the heavy East Side precincts began to make their reports, the figures in his favor began again to increase, until there was more than 700 plurality, with about three-fourths of the count in the county complete. Final returns in Multnomah will give Chamberlain at least 900 over Cakes and perhaps 1000.

In the figures on Senator which The Oregonian presents this morning, every county in the state is fully represented except Lake. Many of them are complete. Lake has probably gone for Chamberlain, but there is a dispute as to the result and The Oregonian in its completion estimates it to be a tie. There is no chance for material variation in the final returns. The plurality of Governor Chamberlain

Butte Police Prevent Renting of Hall—Duncan's Offer Open.

BUTTE, Mont., June 2.—Emma Goldman today wired Rev. Lewis J. Duncan, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, who incurred the ire of the local G. A. R. Post last week by inviting her to speak in his church, that she will arrive here from Spokane tomorrow night. Her advance agent today tried to hire the Auditorium, but the city, whose property it is, refused to rent it to her.

All the theaters are full and the police are warning proprietors of private halls not to rent them to Miss Goldman. Mr. Duncan has not withdrawn his offer and Miss Goldman may speak tomorrow night in the Unitarian Church.

LEAVES JURY TO DECIDE

Courts Refuse to Dismiss Charge of Grafting on Capitol.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 2.—Judge Knobel in the Dauphin County Court today refused to take the Capitol conspiracy case from the jury, and all five defendants will therefore stand trial.

The decision was a keen disappointment to the defense.

Immediately after the ruling the defense opened its case. Ex-Attorney-General Hensel outlined the defense. He said he spoke for all the defendants and denied collusion or falsity in measures of the metallic furniture of the new Capitol, as charged by the state. The defense, he said, would show that the system of measurements was a proper one in all respects and that it worked a saving to the state.

LOWELL, Mass., June 2.—Barney Oldfield has made his last automobile race, so he says.

To show that he is in earnest, Oldfield has obtained employment as a chauffeur for H. W. Whipple, an Andover banker, whose only car is a 30-horsepower, and probably could not go over 20 miles an hour. Oldfield says he has cancelled all his engagements for races.

SIGNS POINT TO ALLISON'S DEFEAT

Political Revolution Comes in Iowa.

BLOW TO STAND-PATTERS

Their Strongholds Lost in First Direct Primary.

CUMMINS CLAIMS 25,000

Oldest Member of Senate Apparently Beaten by Progressive, Tariff-Revision Leader—Amazing Success in the Big Cities.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 2.—(Special.)—While both sides in the Senatorial contest claim the victory in today's Republican primaries, the indications at a late hour are that Governor Cummins has defeated Senator Allison by a small majority. This is the first test of the new primary law. There were many surprises in the returns. Southern Iowa seems to have gone through a revolution. The City of Clarinda, home of Congressman Hepburn, gave Cummins 426 and Allison only 208, and this victory by the Governor is taken by his adherents as a sample of the results that will be reported from the stand-pat territory. At the same time, the Governor is holding his own or showing gains in Northern Iowa, which is the natural progressive territory.

Cummins Claims 25,000 Majority.

However, the Allison people do not concede anything at this hour, and still claim the election by a small majority. At the Cummins headquarters a statement was issued claiming at least 25,000 majority for the Governor.

The City of Burlington, home of J. W. Rhyne, leader of the stand-pat forces, went for Cummins. Sioux City, the home of George D. Perkins, who was the opponent of Governor Cummins for the nomination two years ago, is claimed by the Cummins men, though the Allison adherents had expected to carry it by 1000. Davenport, on the other hand, is claimed by the Allison people by about 1500 and it is thought that Scott County has gone heavily against the Governor, because of his enforcement of the law compelling saloons to close there.

At 11 o'clock 94 precincts had given Allison 2552 and Cummins 942. This would give the Governor a majority in the state at the same ratio of about 25,000. This total does not include 16 precincts in this county, Polk, the home of the Governor, which gave him 1353 majority, indicating a majority for him in the county of about 3500. At Sioux City the Allison men were conceding the Eleventh District to Cummins by 800 to 400 majority. Chairman Adams, of the Allison headquarters, conceded it Monday night by only 2000. In Sioux City and Woodbury County the progressives made an amazing fight and claim to have carried the county.

Wins Heavily in Every Precinct.

In Creston the indications were that Cummins had carried the city. In Ottumwa, the Cummins men seemed to have carried every precinct but two or three. In Wapello County the Allison men scaled down their original claims of 750 majority to 300.

In some sections of the state Democrats are alleged to have voted the Republican ticket.

FIGHT ON STEAMER; MACLEAY REFEREE

PORTLAND MAN'S EXPERIENCE WITH CARD SHARPS.

Returning From Europe on Mauretania, He Makes Swindlers Earn Their Money.

NEW YORK, June 2.—(Special.)—When the Mauretania docked here today three card sharps were under arrest, but were later released because of refusal to prosecute. They were charged with having swindled J. L. Macleay, a mine owner of Portland, Or., Ferdinand C. L. Pirks, Cambridge University graduate, and Eric Thornton, a British export porter, out of several thousand dollars.

A quarrel followed a dispute and a free-for-all fight ensued, in which the three gentlemen and the card sharps rough-housed it. Later the fight was conducted between Pirks and one of the gamblers on deck. Mr. Macleay acted as referee and his companions stood by to see fair play. The fight waged hot and furious until stopped by the ship's officials.

This will give the company a total of 61,000 horsepower at its three water-power plants, besides a 20,000-horsepower steam plant reserved for emergencies.

NINETY THOUSAND SEE BIG PARADE

"Spirit of The Golden West" Portrayed.

PAGEANT A GRAND SUCCESS

Threads Way Through Streets Banked With Humanity.

DAY OF MANY TRIUMPHS

Visitors Throng City for Festival and Each Stranger Is Greeted With Gift of Rose at Union Depot—Flotilla Arrives.

Three miles of parading column threaded its way through three miles of banked-in humanity, last night. The "Spirit of the Golden West" parade exemplified its name, not only in the panoramic story of the rise of a great new country, as told by the floats, but in the enthusiasm of the populace.

Second only to the great concourse of people that greeted the opening pageant of the Lewis and Clark exposition was the multitude which stood patiently for two hours last night while the illuminated procession went by. And yet the crowd cannot be commended for its patience, for there was no strain on the patience. Something that appealed to the interest and imagination of all was passing every moment of the time.

The procession crowned a day of marked success in Portland's second annual rose festival. It followed the most gorgeous, most elaborate display of roses ever seen in the Northwest—possibly in the United States. The exhibition of the Portland Rose Society opened at 2 P. M. at the Oriental building with an attendance which defied the spacious interior of that structure. Thousands on thousands of fairest blooms, embracing every color which the arid knows and carrying richness of hues which the arid may only dream of, were served as the feast of beauty.

Crowds of Visitors Arrive.

Visitors poured in on the city in hundreds during the day, although the bulk of visitors are yet to come. Every train discharged large cargoes of welcome people. And they knew they were welcome before leaving the depot yards, for each person on passing through the gates from the trains was presented with roses. Fair young women from the Peninsula district pinned boutonnières on the men and gave courage bouquets to the women arrivals. Fifteen thousand roses were given away at the Union depot yesterday by the enterprising representatives of eight Peninsula improvement clubs.

Thousands of people were on the streets simply because it was festival week, during the afternoon. For these there was much interest in the decorations of East and West Side business districts. These decorations are possibly not so elaborate as a year ago, but many are being supplemented and the full extent of decorative work has not yet developed. Few stores, however, but that are liberally provided with festival colors, American flags and designs which symbolize the festival season.

Great Throng in Streets.

As the count progresses in Multnomah County Governor Chamberlain maintains his lead over Cakes and will probably carry the county by 800 to 1000. At an early hour this morning complete unofficial returns from 103 precincts and incomplete returns from 12 of a total of 115 give the following results: Cakes, 11,157; Chamberlain, 11,352; Chamberlain's plurality, 805.

The pluralities of the other Republican nominees for the contested offices are increasing as the count progresses. With the exception of four precincts, including Fairview and St. John, every precinct on the East Side in which a local option election was held went "wet" by a heavy vote.

On the state ticket, the county has given the Republican candidates the usual plurality of from 10,000 to 20,000. Of these, R. S. Bean, for Justice of the Supreme Court, will lead, having received the endorsement of the Democrats by whom he was supported in the election. W. R. Ellis, for Representative in Congress, and J. W. Bailey, for Dairy and Food Commissioner, have all received big pluralities.

George J. Cameron, Republican, has a lead of 2170 over Manning, for District Attorney, and the completed count will probably give him a plurality of 2500. The vote on District Attorney at 2 A. M. follows: Cameron, 9551, Manning, 7111.

Robert G. Morrow, for Circuit Judge, will have a plurality over Judge O'Day of probably 2000. The vote so far as counted gives Morrow, 10,157; O'Day, 8344; Morrow's lead, 1813.

Sheriff Stevens will have the largest plurality of any of the Republican nominees whose election was contested actively by a Democratic opponent. He will have a plurality over Word, Democrat, of over 6000. The vote on Sheriff at an early hour this morning was: Stevens, 11,064; Word, 7475.

The bill increasing the appropriation for the State University has a majority of 6580 in its favor, which will be increased to over 7000 when the count is completed. The Army appropriation bill has a majority against it of nearly 1000 in the county. The woman suffrage amendment has been defeated by nearly 7000, while the single tax amendment has been downed by probably 1000. The Reddy measure, a so-called "home-rule" bill, but which will operate in the interest of the liquor men, has a majority of nearly 800, with the count incomplete.
