

POLE SAVES LONG DROP TO GULCH

O. W. P. Car Plunges Off End of Track at Troutdale, Injuring Five Men.

MOTORMAN LOSES HEAD

New Man in Position and Cannot Stop Car Quickly Enough—Occupants Thrown About and Badly Cut and Bruised.

Five men were severely cut and bruised, but none fatally injured, in the wreck of an O. W. P. car at the end of the Troutdale extension of the line at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The motorman, J. H. Towles, a new man, had lost control of the car as it approached the end of the line at Troutdale, and it plunged off against the rails and brought up against a telegraph pole with terrific force.

On the car at the time in addition to the motorman, who escaped uninjured, and conductor Charles Saulson, were Dr. H. J. Hancock, L. N. Kummer, W. W. Ashcraft and O. J. Jenkins, all of whom were more or less injured by flying particles. Conductor Saulson, Dr. Hancock and Kummer were taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, where their injuries were dressed and it was reported that they would be able to leave that institution today or tomorrow. W. W. Ashcraft and O. J. Jenkins were taken to their homes at Fairview where medical attention was received and their injuries also pronounced slight.

Pole Saves Long Drop.

From accounts of those who were riding in the car at the time of the accident, the motorman lost control of his car just before Troutdale, and as a result the vehicle plunged unimpeded off the end of the track, and had it not been for the telegraph pole in its path, would have fallen to the bottom of a 20-foot gulch, which would probably have resulted in fatal injuries to all on board.

Dr. Hancock who is the Federal meat inspector on duty at the establishment of the Union Meat Company at Troutdale, and who resides at East Fifteenth street and Taylor avenue, Seaside, told of the accident as follows: "As we approached Troutdale I noticed that we were proceeding much faster than usual, and on looking at the motorman, saw that he had lost control of his car. I rushed to the front platform to assist him at the brakes, but was too late. For we plunged over the embankment, and I was knocked unconscious for a few minutes. I thought we would all be killed instantly, but was much relieved to find that aside from some severe cuts and painful bruises, none of us was seriously hurt. The motorman seemed to me to be a new man. I am sincerely thankful that it was no worse."

None Badly Injured.

Conductor Saulson, who was thrown through one of the car windows, is badly cut and bruised about the head and arms, but otherwise is not seriously injured. L. N. Kummer is considerably bruised and has the marks of flying glass on his face. O. J. Jenkins, of Fairview, who was at first reported as probably fatally injured, is not seriously hurt. His injuries were examined by Dr. Sabin, of Troutdale, Dr. Short, of Gresham, and Dr. Seaman, of Portland, and reported superficial. He is considerably bruised about the body, and complains of an injury to his spine. The medical attendants state his injuries are not likely to prove permanent or serious.

State Railway Commissioner C. B. Atchison and T. C. Campbell visited the scene of the wreck yesterday afternoon for the purpose of investigating the conditions and will make a report fixing the responsibility later.

While this action was under consideration, Dr. W. B. Cannon, chairman of the section on pathology, advocated the use of surgery—results of animal experimentation were being described by Dr. Alexis Carroll, of New York.

Supreme Court Affirms Municipal Deal for Water System.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 2.—(Special.)—The Maplewood Spring deal put through by the Wright administration in Tacoma has been approved by the Supreme Court, although the new administration came into the court on a late hour and sought to have it blocked. The case was that brought by F. L. Griffin against the City of Tacoma, and George Milton Savage, Savage had a contract with the city to connect the springs with the present water system for about $128,000 and Griffin brought this suit claiming that the extension could not be made without the consent of the people, and also asking the contract to be enjoined. The lower court denied the injunction and this decision is affirmed by the Supreme Court although Justices Rudkin and Fullerton dissent.

A faction favoring abandonment is making a great effort to prevent the election of ex-Senator Fred T. Dubois as its delegate to the National Convention.

Roosevelt Writes Strong Letter to West Virginia Delegate.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Because President Roosevelt's latest declaration that "no friend of mine" will continue efforts to nominate, the President has written to one of West Virginia's delegates to the Chicago Convention for the specific purpose of heading off what appeared to be a united effort among certain delegates from that state to revive the Roosevelt sentiment, the publication of the letter is regarded as not expedient or desirable. More than this, the President's friends, echoing his sentiment, say that the President has expressed himself to the contrary on this subject in terms which admit of no uncertainty. For this reason, it is explained, that no publicity will be given to the letter to the President's personal friend in West Virginia. That the mistake has occurred, the purpose for which it was written is said to be the fact.

HIS AUTO BREAKS DOWN

BRYAN HAS ADVENTURE ON TOUR OF NEBRASKA.

But Audience Awaits Him While He Joins Along in Farmer's Wagon.

KIMBALL, Neb., June 2.—W. J. Bryan tonight at 11 o'clock completed one of the most strenuous days he has had since his Nebraska tour began, which he completed on Friday, June 1, during the course of which he had occasion to apologize to his hearers for arriving five hours late on account of the breakdown of his automobile. Starting in the day's journey from Alliance at 3 o'clock this morning, he made his first address at Bridgeport from the porch of the local hotel.

At Scotts Bluff, where the principal address of the day was delivered, the town and surrounding country took a break from their duties and greeted the distinguished Nebraskan and did him every honor within its power. The town was in gala attire and the school children and stores closed to make the occasion even more popular.

The first accident to mar the trip occurred this afternoon, when an automobile carrying Mr. Bryan and some members of his party on a 50-mile cross country trip from Scotts Bluff to Kimball, broke down when the trip was half completed. The party was forced to resort to a farmer's wagon, which brought it into Kimball several hours behind schedule. Another car carrying Bryan and some members of his party arrived on time, however, and Mr. Howard, who is a congressional candidate, addressed the crowd and kept it in good humor until the arrival of the principal speakers.

The programme at Kimball was elaborate and the town, like Scotts Bluff, was decorated for the occasion. Mr. Bryan was the guest here of the Kimball Commercial Club and the reception part of the programme took on a non-partisan tone. Notwithstanding he did not start speaking until nearly 10 o'clock, the big crowd had waited patiently and greeted him in a truly frontier style when he appeared on the platform. His evening address was principally on the financial issues.

Taking occasion, incidentally, to speak of his former experience in this part of the state, Mr. Bryan said: "I was once known as the 'Boy Orator of the Platte,' and I am particularly interested in coming to this section."

ALL KINDS OF FUN

A Carnival at Home the Year Round. An Orchestra, Theater, a Living Actor, All in One.

There can be little cheerfulness in a home that has a Columbia, Edison or Victor Talking Machine. If you get up feeling "franky" and put of some there is no better remedy than a rollicking tune. It makes your blood tingle—it puts you on your feet for the remainder of the day and starts you off right. Then you can use the machine in place of an orchestra, and you would certainly rather dance to the music from a Sousa two-step than to some of the orchestra you've heard. There are orations and recitations—great actors before you, and then there are the light, jingling tunes of the sweet stringed instruments; negro melodies, and all the popular of the day, as well as the sweet old songs of days gone by. Everything, if you go to the right place—they are constantly on hand, in stock, ready to hand to you upon inquiry or "listen to" if you would like to hear before purchase.
