Another Case More Verbose.
BUTTE, Mont., June 3.—The statement that the number of words, 20 million, taken in the suit now being heard before a United States Court commission in New York to dissolve the Standard Oil Company is the largest ever taken in any suit, is erroneous. In the Bliss-Smoke case now before Judge Hunt in the Federal court of Montana, in which a Dear Valley rancher seeks damages from the Amalgamated Copper Company for alleged harm to his property by smoke from the Washoe Smelters, the transcript contained 6,500,000 words.
DIED.
TIMM—At the Good Samaritan Hospital, June 2, Henry P. Timm, aged 30 years, 7 months and 4 days. Funeral notice later.
McDANIEL—At the residence of her daughter, Mary T. Willard, 93 East 12th st., June 3, 1908, Amanda McDaniels, aged 73 years. Notice of funeral will be given later.
