LD RATE STANDS

Produce Men Will Not Raise Commission to 10 Per Cent.

MATTER IS CALLED OFF

Proposition Could Not Be Carried Unanimously, and Therefore, it Failed-Lower Opening Price on Apricots.

Portland have decided not to charge 10 per cent commission for handling consignments of country produce. This action was taken at a meeting of the Produce Association yesterday afternoon. Therefore, only 5 per cent will be charged, as has been the rule here for years here for years.

The movement to raise the rate of commission was initiated at a meeting at the Board of Trade rooms about a month ago. It was then decided to go to a 10 per cent basis on June 1, this rate of commission to apply on eggs, poultry, dressed meats and butter, except the product of large creameries. It was pointed out that the business could not be handled profitably on a 5 per cent rate, and furthermore, that it was the practice in other Coast cities to charge 10 per cent. 10 per cent.

An agreement to that effect was circulat-d on Front street and received the signatures of all but two of the commission firms. The matter could not be carried through, however, unless it was unanimous, and as these two firms declined to coperate with the others, the project was

The spasmodic nature of the drop if prices resulted in opening the way to an upward reaction-ind a practically complete repair of the opening losses was effected by midday. A notable contraction in the volume of the transactions then occurred, as though the epeculative temper favored a breathing spell to take account of the violent earlied this week. Prices relapsed suddenly at the last to about the lowest.

Large attention was attracted to reports from Washington of the plans of the Government authorities for pushing a new suit against the Standard Oil Company on rebating charges, which might involve maximum finose even in excess of those imposed in the previous suit, now on appeal to the higher courts. There seemed to be a more serious view taken of the cut in prices of skeel bars than was the case yesterday, when it was first announced. Financial sentiment is sensitive to suggestions of wage controversies, and whatever approval has been shown of the policy of maintenance of prices which the relative to suggestions of wage controversies, and whatever approval has been shown of the policy of maintenance of prices which the remarket centered on Union Pacific, and the renewed rise in that clock to the high figure of yesterday and of the year was accompanied by an intimation that the details of the $40,000,000 bond issue had been arranged.
