BOARD OF HEALTH TO MEET.—The State Board of Health will hold its quarterly meeting today at 11 o'clock in the office of the secretary, Dr. R. C. Yenny, in the Medical building. No topic is to be brought up of an unusual nature as the meeting is to be more of a conference than a formal session requiring action of interest to the general public. Arrangements are being made to have the next meeting of the State Medical Society one of much interest to the profession. The sessions will be held in the Commercial Club during the first week in July, and the second week in August. It is expected that a large attendance will mark the occasion.

JEWELERS MEET TODAY.—The annual meeting of the Oregon Retail Jewellers Association will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. Officers are to be elected for the ensuing year and reports rendered by secretary and treasurer. The officers of the association are: President, L. A. Lewis, of Klamath Falls; first vice-president, C. H. Williams, of Clatsop; second vice-president, I. E. Staples, of Portland; third vice-president, L. M. Hoyt, of Hillsdale; secretary, H. N. Leffert, of Portland; treasurer, E. J. Jaeger, of Portland. The visiting members will be entertained at a banquet tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Nortonia Hotel.

SEMONS BY RABBI HELLER.—In connection with the Feast of Weeks, the Jewish festival commemorating the revelation of the Law of God and promulgation of the Ten Commandments, Rabbi Heller of the Synagogue at Sixth and Hall streets, will deliver sermons, at 6 o'clock this and tomorrow evenings. The subject of these sermons is "Some Reflections on the Ten Commandments." The sermons will be delivered in English.

BUILD APARTMENT-HOUSE.—Dr. H. P. Ong has acquired the lot 6x100 feet at the northwest corner of Seventh and Clay streets, from Mrs. R. M. Riner. The sale was consummated yesterday, but the figures were not authoritatively given out. The price, however, is said to have been about $15,000. Dr. Ong is to build a four-story brick apartment-house on the site, work on which will probably begin during the summer.

REPLIES TO COUNCIL.—President B. S. Josselyn, of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, has replied to the City Council relative to the present system of the company in stopping cars on the "near" side of crossings. He states that the principle reason for the system is to minimize accidents. The Council sought, by resolution, to ascertain why the change from the old style was made.

AFTER TWO YEARS' active work in the real estate business C. W. Davis has sold his interest in the Spanton Company and is planning the organization of a building company with headquarters in this city, with a paid up capital of $300,000. C. L. Schiefelin, who will be associated with him in the new company, is an experienced Los Angeles builder.

BUSINESS MEN and visitors to the Rose Festival can save time and money by eating lunch at the Women's Exchange, 223 Tenth street, just south of Washington street. Good wholesome food served hot, 11:30 until 2 o'clock. Refreshments served all afternoon. Home-made cakes, pies, bread, etc. Invariably comprise our chief attraction. Come.

TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL SERVICES.—The services at Temple Beth Israel in celebration of the holiday of "Shabbath" commence tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rabbi Wise will preach on Friday morning. Subject, "The Promise of Ruth." Strangers are welcome.

TWENTY AUTOISTS GO TOO FAR.—There must have been something in the atmosphere on Tuesday affecting the automobile enthusiasts of this city. Patrolman Gustafson, stationed at the Base Line road, Sellwood, stop watch in hand, took down the numbers of no less than 20 who were going at the rate of from 20 to 50 miles an hour. John Doe warrants for all 20 of these speedsters were issued yesterday by Judge Cameron in the Municipal Court and during the evening the law-breaking motorists were arrested and brought in as identified and found. Up to a late hour the list of prisoners included: E. N. Kleiser, of advertising fame; Samuel Silverfield, merchant, of Fourth and Morrison streets; John A. Shepard, of Twenty-first and Everett streets; E. W. King, of 360 Belmont avenue; Roy Marx, of Fourteenth and Davis streets; S. Christofferson, Hotel Oregon; H. Chittenden, Twelfth and Davis, and Otto Schneider, 429 East Twentieth. Each was released on bail.

BOOM CHAIN THEIF CAUGHT.—The boom chain thief, who has plundered various points along the Willamette River, for the past two months, was arrested last night. The man gave the name of Ambrose Coyle. He was taken into custody by Detective Smith, assisted by Detective Gray, and was found in a room at 1124 1/2 tillamette avenue, Sellwood. Some of the plunder was found at 208 Columbia street and recovered and more of it at a house at Jefferson and Front streets. According to the detectives, Coyle is a "water rat" who has been responsible for many depredations along the Willamette waterfront besides the thefts. It is believed that the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company alone have suffered losses in this manner amounting to over $300.

CLUB MEMBERS GARY.—Gunner Gary, of the Yorktown, was knocked down and severely injured last night at First and Sheridan streets, shortly after 7:30 o'clock, by a southbound "8" car. According to eyewitnesses, Gary was alighted from a car going in the opposite direction and did not see the other car approaching when he attempted to cross the tracks. The front end of the car struck Gary and he was knocked to the ground and it is believed that several bones were broken. He refused to go to a hospital and was taken aboard ship for treatment.

HOBOS CARRIES GUN.—Irving Gray, a 17-year-old boy, arrested at the east end of the Steel Bridge last night, was found to have a loaded revolver in his possession. He offered no resistance to arrest, but said that he carried the loaded weapon to enforce free rides from crews of freight trains, as also to prevent the return experience of being ejected from his boxcar Pullman train while the train was en route.

DEATH OF MISS TIMMS.—Miss Emma C. Timms, 23 years old, a popular young lady who resided in Milwaukie, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness of two months' duration. Miss Timms was well known among the society set of Milwaukie and had many friends in this city and Sellwood.

FAIL TO REPORT SMALLPOX.—Because of failure to report to the proper authorities regarding smallpox cases, alleged to exist in their homes, S. Kretshewsky, a resident of Sellwood; W. E. Douglas and G. K. Haveland, of 694 Giles avenue, were arrested last night. The arrests were made on complaint of City Health Officer Esther C. Pohl.

CHIMNEY FIRE EXCITES.—A chimney fire causing but slight damage to the roof of the residence at 732 Kearney street occurred at 8 o'clock last night, calling out Engine No. 3, Hose No. 6 and Truck No. 3 of the fire department and causing some little excitement in the neighborhood.

OPEN ALL DAY.—Palace Market, 300 Yamhill street, Main 1807, L. Penna.

DAMOSCH TWICE TODAY

RARE PROGRAMMES TO BE GIVEN EACH TIME. Tschalkovsky's "Symphony Pathetique" by Request and Mme. Nordica at the Matinee.

This afternoon at the Armory Walter Damosch will again arouse the musical enthusiasm to a degree never before reached here. Last night's concert was of rare delight, and the afternoon will not only present Madame Nordica in a group of songs, but will also offer the much-requested Symphony Pathetique of Tschalkovsky.

Damosch found as many requests for that beloved symphony awaiting him as Madame Nordica had for Wagner numbers. The afternoon programme will also contain the "Mignon" overture, and the violin concerto in D minor of Vioutemps, which will be finely played by Alexander Salslavsky.

The evening programme is all Wagner, with the exception of Madame Nordica's group of songs, and will present the "Lohengrin" prelude and "Bridal Chorus," numbers from "Die Meistersinger," and "Tannhauser," with Madame Nordica in "Elizabeth's Air," and a number sure to arouse the most intense interest, the "Liebesleid" from Isolde. The matinee begins at half-past 2, and the evening programme at a quarter past 8. Seats now selling at Sherman, Clay & Co.'s, Direction Lois Steers-Wynn Coman.

The Wagner programme for Thursday evening, June 4, is as follows: Lohengrin—(a) Prelude, (b) Elsa's song on the balcony, (c) Prelude and bridal chorus, "Die Meistersinger"—(a) Prelude, (b) Prize song, "Die Walkure"—The ride of the Valkyries, "Isolde"—The sounds of the forest, Study from "Tristan and Isolde"—Dreams, Alexander Salslavsky.

"Tannhauser"—Act I, (a) March, Act II, (b) Song to the Evening Star, Act III, S. Tillis, Steinsway Piano Used.
