Kauffmann's Denial That He Received Money to Use Against Weaver Causes Own Arrest. Assault on McNichol.

PHILADELPHIA. Pa., June 4.-An action which is said to presage one of the labors of the resolutions committee the bitterest fights that have been witnessed in this city ofr a long time was taken here tonight by State Senato James P. McNichol in causing warrants to be issued for Max Kauffmann, until today secretary to Mayor Reyburn, and Clarence D. Gibboney, secretary of the Law and Order Society, on criminal charges. The warrants charge in the of Kauffmann perjury and in that of Gibboney libel.

The issue of the warrants followed the holding of McNichol, the acknowledged Republican organization leader, earlier in the day, on a charge of crimi-nal libel, preferred by Kauffmann, who sought redress because he was named by McNichol as the go-between who had been paid $10,000 to induce Gibboney to make raids on disorderly houses and gambling places in 1905 and so discredit the administration of the then Mayor John Weaver.

Kauffmann Denies Taking Bribe

Kauffmann at the hearing of McNicol denied categorically that there was any truth in the statement that he had received $10,000 from McNichol. He denied that he had represented himself as an agent of Gibboney and declared that the story was absolutely false in every particular. Immediately after the hear-ing the Mayor sent a letter to Kauffmann notifying him that he was discharged from the position of secretary.

Hardly had it become known that Kauffmann had been dismissed by the Mayor than the aunouncement was made that McNichol had issued warrants for Kauffmann and for Gibboney, who also had been a pitters for Kauffmann to the second s had been a witness for Kauffmann is the case against McNichol. The warrant charging Kauffman with perjury is based on testimony he gave in denying the receipt of $10,000 from McNichol when on the witness stand. The warrant against Gibboney is based on the publication of a letter written by Gibboney and bearing upon the conditions in this

What Was Said of Boss.

The warrant charges that villfying and false statements were made, in substance and to the effect that "the deponent had aided or abetted in the commission of divers-unlawful crimes and misdemeanors and particularly that hundreds of speak-easy proprietors, white slave dealers, gamblers, policy-writers and other criminals of the same sort, who were ar-rested by the said Gibboney, with few exceptions were friends, allies and tools of the deponent.'

Neither warrant was served, but, as in the case of McNichol, the matter was left to the attorneys to arrange a suita-ble time for the hearings.

LEAVES ALL WORRY BEHIND

Ex-Walla Walla Liquor Dealer, Despondent, Takes His Life.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 4.-(Special.)—Despondency, caused by b lly, combined with severe pain, which he has suffered for the past three years as the result of a broken limb, was this morning responsible for the suicide of Louis Schmidt, a ploneer liquor dealer of this city, the rash deed being com-mitted shortly before 11 o'clock, as the Northern Pacific train, on which Schmidt was a Pullman passenger, pulled into

That Schmidt had been contemplating suicide for some time was evidenced this afternoon, when eight Walla Walla peo-ple received letters from him, asking forgiveness, and requesting that his fam-ily be cared for. One of the letters was dated April 27 and was mailed on the dated April 17 and was mailed on the train last night. Schmidt had his liquor license revoked by the City Council about a year ago, for alleged infraction of the ordinance, and since that time has been unable to gain a footheld here.

A widow and four children, all living in Walla Walla, are left to mourn his death, Schmidt was a member of the Sons of Hermann Lodge, under whose auspices the funeral will be held Sunday.

The Republican National committee will meet tomorrow at noon for the purpose of hearing evidence in contests for the seating of delegates for the temporary roll.

CONFERENCE ON PLATFORM

Long Thinks Preliminary Draft Will Eelp Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 4.-Sanator Long, of Kansas, who in conjunction with Wade Ellis, Attorney-General of Ohio, and Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, has held several conferences with Secretary Taft regarding the various points of the platform pro-posed for the Chicago convention, was again at the War Department today and saw the Secretary. Mr. Long left tonight for his home and expects to be in Chi-cage a week from today.

In the opinion of Mr. Long the preparation of a platform at Chicago will not provoke much controversy. He believes the committee on resolutions will not re-gard with disfavor the draft of a plat-form which will be presented to it as the basis for the declaration of the convention. He thinks the draft will be very helpful and do much toward minimizing

DELEGATES VOTE TO FORM . COAST ASSOCIATION.

Experienced Organizer to Be En gaged at Annual Salary of Twenty Thousand Dollars.

The convention of master printers of the Pacific Coast continued in session yesterday afternoon, no forenoon session having been held as delegates desired to witness the floral parade. Upon vote, after the constitution and bylaws suggested had been read, it was determined to form an association on the lines outlined and the name Western Master Printers' Association was

The officials of the temporary organization said yesterday afternoon they desired to correct an impression held in some quarters that the intention of the organization is arbitrarily to fix prices bereafter to be charged for work turned out by members. It is explained that the purpose of the association is to keep its members posted on matters concerning the business in which they are engaged, and exert efforts to keep business at home. It was decided to start and maintain a publication to be alled the Franklin Printer, which is to be printed and issued at San Francisco. This periodical is to be the official orauthorizing the managing committee to employ an experienced organizer at a salary of $20,000 a year, which amount is to cover his traveling and other ex-

Heney Hastens to Get Gallagher's Evidence.

ASSASSINS SEEK WITNESS

Desperate Haste to Get Grafter's Story of Bribery by Ruef Before Another Attempt - Ruef Fights for Delay.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4 .- This afternoon Abraham Ruef was brought into Police Judge Cabaniss' court by Deputy Sheriffs to answer to the complaint sworn to by Francis J. Hency, charging him with having offered a bribe to John J. Furey, ex-Supervisor. Ruef was without an attorney, and himself offered objections to all the proceed-

District Attorney Hency asked that the defendant be arraigned immediately and that the proceedings be expedited, because it was desirable o secure at once the testimony to be given by James L. Gallagher, a former Supervisor who has been granted im-munity, owing to the fact that Gallagher is in imminent danger of being ready been made upon his life.

Ruef objected to each step of the proceedings, saying to the court that the action was the result of a plot on the part of the graft prosecution to get Gallagher's evidence, and then get him out of the way so that he could not be brought into court in any graft trials and be made to testify before a jury and be subjected to a cross-examination by the attorneys for the defense.

Judge Cabaniss over-ruled Ruef's objection to being instructed as to his rights in the matter by the court and set his arraignment on the charge for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. He stated that at that time he would listen to any reasonable request for a continuance of the case, owing to the fact that Henry Ach. Ruef's chief coun-sel, is now in New York.

BURDETT DEFEATS COLLIER

Fight for District Attorney in Gil-Ham Hotly Contested.

ARLINGTON, Or., June 4 .- (Special.)-The political struggle in the Eleventh Judicial District, comprising Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties, will long be remembered as one of the greatest contests ever waged in Eastern Oregon John A. Collier, the present Prosecuting Attorney, was opposed by James E. Burdett, Independent. Ar. Collier was the regular Republican nominee and had an advantage. He also had the support of a majority of the local papers. In making his campaign Mr. Burdett had only the support of his home town, but he won by a majority of over 200 votes. In his home town, Arlington, he received 101 votes and Mr. Collier 6, while he carried Fossil, his opponent's home town, by a majority of 21.

Mr. Burdett was born in Yamhill County in 1880, his early life being spent in a farm near McMinnville, where he attended college. He afterward entered the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor and graduated in 1963. After spending a year in Port fand, he located in Arington, his presen

The marging session was devoted to

The morning session was devoted to an address by Samuel Hill, of Seattle, on the subject of "Good Roads." Mr. Hill gave an entertaining lecture. In which he urged the Grangers to use their influence and power toward good roads. Mr. Hill was given close attention and his lecture was one of the features of the session. Professor E. E. Elliott. of the State College at Pullman, lectured improved methods in agriculture and dwelt particularly upon the benefits de-rived from the State Agricultural College. Report of the Treasurer showed re-ceipts in the sum of $3789.18, expenditures $4091.06, balance $2498.93.

At a joint session of the executive committees of the Oregon and Washington State Granges, it was decided to publish jointly one official Grange paper. The place of publication was not decided. The Washington State Grange paper is now issued at Bellingham.

HERRIN, THE EX-BOSS, HERE

Chief Counsel for the Southern Pacific Company Given Dinner at the Arlington Club.

W. F. Herrin, the ex-political boss o California, although so still the Warwick in Oregon's neighbor on the south, reached Portland yesterday in his private car. After consultation with Harriman attorneys here, he will finish up his business today and get away to San Francisco not later than tonight. Mr. Herrin is chief counsel for the Southern Pacific Company, with head-quarters at San Francisco. By many he is pointed out as all that is bad in poliwhile others see in him the clever est political manager on the Coast. oad domination of Legislatures is harged to Herrin, who has maintained his grip on California politics for years until his hold was shaken at the last Republican convention, when the Lincoln-Roosevelt League asserted itself and ned the delegates to the Chicago con-tion. As to the strength of this league Mr. Herrin expresses himself uncertainly

"I think it is too early to tell what they can accomplish," he said. But he refused to discuss politics last night and even when Francis J. Heney was mentioned, which is supposed to be one of Herrin's sore spots, he did not even wince or talk back except to say: "Mr. Heney usually does his own talk-

"Routine law business of the Southern Pacific," said Mr. Herrin, "brings me here at this time. There is nothing of general interest in the matters we have under consideration. I come here about once in so often, although I have not been in this city since the Winter of 1994. I notice very marked changes in the way of growth and improvement. Not only is this true of Portland, but of the whole country between California and Portland as well. The cities along the line throughout the state and the surrounding *country have settled up and been im proved remarkably during the past fev

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The pressure is rising over the Pacific Northwest and the skies in Western Oregon and Western Washington are gradually clearing and the superatures slowly rising. East of the mountains, however, cloudy and threatening weather continues to prevail, due to the well-marked depression central this evening about Havre, Mont. Moderate rains are reported from stations in Montana, Southern Idaho and Northern Utah. Temperatures are decidedly higher over Nevada, Southern Idaho, Eastern Oregon and Southeastern Washington, but they still range decidedly below the seasonal average.

The indications point to fair and warmer weather over Western Oregon and Western Washington Friday, and to continued cloudy weither, with probably showers over the remainder of the district. It will be warmer in Northwestern Washington and in Southern Idaho.
