KETCHEL VICTOR IN FURIOUS FIGHT

Limit to Ten Rounds Alone Seems to Save Papke From Knockout.

OFTEN DRIVEN TO ROPES

Ten-Round Battle Shows Thunderbolt at His Best, Giving Opponent No Rest—Many Challenges Come to Winner.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 4.—Stanley Ketchel, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was given the decision over Billy Papke, of Kewanee, Ill., at the end of a fast and furious ten-round bout at the Milwaukee Boxing Club at the Hippodrome Building tonight before a crowd of 6600 persons. The contest was a terrific affair, from the tap of the gong to the finish, with the exception of the time during which the men were engaged in clinches. Time and again Ketchel forced his man to the ropes with his furious onslaughts of rights and lefts to the head and body. Ketchel was on top of his man from gong to gong without ever giving him a moment's rest, except when they were in clinches. Ketchel appealed to the referee to break the clinches repeatedly. Only in the eighth round did Papke have an even break.

Papke in Deep Distress.

Ketchel, in the first round, took considerable steam out of his man by landing a terrific right to the jaw, sending Papke to his knees. The Grand Rapids man worked the right and left shift to good advantage and bewildered Papke in his attempts to get to him. If Ketchel, as was said by some, was a bit slow, he did not show it tonight. Not even for a moment did he let his man rest. At the end of the last round Papke was plainly in distress and would probably not have lasted another round.

Both men trained faithfully and were in the pink of condition.

Challenges to Ketchel.

Hugo Kelly, Sam Langford, Jack (Twin) Sullivan, Jack (Philadelphia) O'Brien, Unk Russel and Peter Jackson challenged the winner. Jackson offered to put up a side bet of $5000 for a match.

The biggest crowd in the history of boxing in Milwaukee witnessed the contest. Among the notable spectators were Jimmy Coffroth and Abe Attell, of California; Joe Gans, of Baltimore; Packy McFarland, of Chicago, and Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler.

Ketchel and Papke weighed in this afternoon and both men were under weight. The scales were set at the 154-pound mark and as each man stepped on the beam failed to move. The betting before the contest was slightly in favor of Ketchel.

Round One.

Both men rushed out of their corners and Papke went to his knees. Ketchel sent a right to the stomach. Papke sent two hard ones to the neck and Ketchel two lefts to the stomach. Papke sent a terrific left to the stomach. Ketchel rushed Papke and uppercut him. The round ended with the men in a clinch.

Round Two.

They came out like two furious lions and went at each other. Papke got in a left to the stomach and each man then landed a right to the neck. Ketchel landed his right and left to the jaw and jarred Papke. Ketchel did good work. Both swung wildly. Ketchel tried to force his left to the jaw while in a clinch. Papke landed his right to the neck. Papke rushed and Ketchel landed a light blow to the neck. Papke slipped to his knees.

Round Three.

Ketchel swung wildly and they clinched. Papke sent a left to the jaw, followed by a right to the same place. Both in a furious mix-up swung right and left and landed frequently. Ketchel did some good infighting. Ketchel forced Papke to the ropes. Ketchel worked hard to put his man away. The round ended with Papke getting a hard left to the neck.

Round Four.

Papke sent a left to neck. Ketchel landed a left to the stomach. Both men fought furiously. Papke sent a left to the jaw and Ketchel went to his knees in trying to land a blow. Papke knocked Ketchel to his knees with a left. Ketchel was up in a second. Ketchel slowed up.

Round Five.

Papke sent two to the jaw. Both men were bleeding. Ketchel landed a left to the stomach. Ketchel butted Papke and Papke sent his left to the jaw. Ketchel swung vicious blows to the jaw and stomach, backing Papke up.

Round Six.

Papke sent a right to the ribs. Ketchel landed a left to the jaw twice. Papke fought harder. The men exchanged rights and lefts and clinched. Ketchel backed Papke up to his corner. Papke raised a lump on Ketchel's left eye.

Round Seven.

Papke sent a left to the jaw and they clinched. Ketchel delivered a left to the ear and another to the stomach, which doubled Papke up. Ketchel did good infighting. Ketchel forced Papke to a corner again. Papke received several hard punches on the body and was forced to the ropes. Ketchel hit a hard right on the stomach and Papke sagged slightly. Both men were tired. Papke backed around the ring.

Round 8.

Ketchel forced Papke around the ring. Papke hit Ketchel low and Ketchel complained, but the referee did not heed. Ketchel forced Papke to the ropes. It was slam-bang, both men trying to get in a knockout punch. Both men were fighting hard when the round ended.

Round 9.

Both missed swings. Papke sent a terrific left to the neck, but Ketchel sent a damaging uppercut to the face. Ketchel landed a left to the stomach twice. Ketchel got in a furious left to Papke's face as the round ended.

Round 10.

Ketchel forced the fight and Papke clinched. Ketchel forced Papke around the ring and both men were tired. Ketchel swung his right and left and missed lefts and rights. Papke backed up. Ketchel followed him and landed a right to the stomach. Papke landed a furious left to Ketchel's mouth. Ketchel forced Papke to the ropes and staggered him with his left and right to the jaw. Ketchel got the decision.

ATHLETIC MEET ABANDONED

American and British Teams Will Not Contest This Year.

OXFORD, June 4.—After protracted negotiations it has been declared that there are too many difficulties in the way of an athletic meeting for track and field events between British and American teams, to follow the Olympic games in London this Summer, and the matter has been dropped.

The negotiations were resumed through the initiative of the Oxford Athletic Committee, but the Cambridge committee decided that with so many meetings coming on it would be better to leave the inter-university contest to another year.

VARSITY SENDS FOUR STARS

Examinations Prevent Whole Team Coming to P. N. A. From Eugene.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—The athletic committee of the university has decided not to permit the whole track team to participate in the P. N. A. meet at Portland Saturday on account of the proximity of examinations, which begin on the following Wednesday. Manager Bean will enter only four men, Captain Kuykendall, Huston, Moon and Zacharias, the stars of this year's team. Captain Kuykendall will enter the broad jump, the 120 hurdles and the polevault. Huston will enter the 100, the 220 and the 220-yard hurdles.

Moon is slated for the 100 and 220 sprints. Zacharias will enter for the hammer-throw.

Oregon will not attempt to win the meet, for she concedes victory to the Olympic Club, but her four stars will give some indication of the brilliant work the varsity team has performed this season in securing the championship of the four Northwest states, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE.

Seattle 4, Spokane 0.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 4.—(Special.)—Rush pitched a no hit, no run game today and Seattle won 4 to 0. The ex-Spokane schoolboy had everything and the Spokane men did not get anything that even looked like a hit. He mixed slow ones very effectively on the heavy hitters, especially Clynes and caught others napping with fast ones when curves were expected. Several promising starts by the Indians did not affect his cool nerves. Not a Spokane man reached second base. Dunn, subbing for Stevens in right field, who had turned his ankle in yesterday's game, tried to stop two drives with his feet and let in all of Seattle's runs. Fast fielding would have cut off the runners at the plate both times and retired the side. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Spokane	0	0	0

Batteries—Rush and Stanley; Jensen and Rogers. Umpire, Carruthers.

Aberdeen 0, Vancouver 1.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 4.—(Special.)—The Canucks applied the whitewash to last year's champions today for the second time in two days, winning by a single earned run. George Engle, who was Portland's star in the days of the old Pacific Northwest League, was in the limelight for Vancouver and pitched a beautiful game. The nearest he came to being in danger was when Van Buren led off with a hit in the ninth. A sacrifice put him on second, but he died there.

It took a two-bagger and two clean singles to bring the lone run home in the seventh. Poor coaching robbed Vancouver of a score in the second, when Flannigan doubled and Sugden followed with a single. Donovan held the runner at third for an instant, and when he tried to score he was thrown out by Van Buren. Score:

Vancouver	1	0	0		0	7	1

Batteries—Thompson and Boettiger; Engle and Sugden.

Ladies' Day Postponed.

Judge McCredie wishes it announced to the ladies that there will be no ladies' day this week on account of the crowds, but that there will be two ladies' days next week, one on Wednesday and the other on Friday.

Chit-Chat of Sporting World

BY WILL G. MAC RAE.

Captain Dillon has worked out a bothersome squeeze play. With a man on second, the signal is given. The batter, instead of taking a clout at the ball, gets in the clear, and the catcher, seeing the road clear, steps across the plate to receive the ball, and naturally catches the runner easily. It is a foxy trick, for the catcher has no business to step across the plate in front of the batter. The ump is also caught napping and usually calls the runner out. Then Dillon is on the warpath.

The Boston Red Sox have a can labeled McHale and one labeled Laporte. Just when the tying-on proceedings will take place hasn't been announced by Manager McGuire.

Here is a girl that the bachelors on the Portland baseball club will pass up. She has just notified her father that she cannot live on $10,000 a year. Rather a shame, too, for Phil Cooney and Babe Danzig have both taken down their lightning rods, because it is leap year.

Now we know why Portland's flight to the top of the percentage column has been delayed. Mique Fisher bet Peter Grant a week ago that Portland would be leading the league before June 1. It is another Fisher jinks.

Portland couldn't do a thing with Dolly Gray's curves yesterday and was shut out with only two hits, one of them being of the scratchiest variety along the third-base line by Danzig, and the other one a clean single by Bassey. On the other hand, Los Angeles took kindly to Ote Johnson's curves and pounded out nine hits, including two two-baggers by Jud Smith and a three-bagger by Rube Ellis, which were good for five runs.

One of the features of the game was when McCredie fell over a boy in the right field crowd when he was after a long foul, and another was Dillon's catch of Cooney's foul near the wire netting off first base.

Los Angeles led off with Oakes striking out and Wheeler flying out to Bassey. Dillon was out, Cooney to Danzig. For Portland Casey was out from Wheeler to Dillon, Ryan whiffed at three and sat down and Raftery flew out to Jud Smith.

In the second Brashear, first up, struck out and Jud Smith connected with one of Johnson's shoots and sent it to left field for two bases and took third on Ellis' out from Casey to Danzig. Delmas ended the inning by fouling out to Danzig. Danzig, first up for Portland, waited for four wide ones and went to second when Bassey sacrificed, Johnson grounded out to Delmas and McCredie was out from Wheeler to Dillon. Hogan got a base on balls and was out when trying to steal, Whalen to Cooney. Dolly Gray flew out to Ryan and Oakes was walked. Wheeler ended the inning by flying out to Raftery. Cooney flew out to Oakes, Whalen struck out and Casey flew out to Ellis.

Smith Helps in Fourth.

With Dillon and Brashear out in the fourth, Jud Smith soaked one on the nose for two bases. He scored when Ellis got a hit to short right field which Casey should have got. Ellis went to second on the throw in and scored when Delmas got a hit to right field. Hogan flew out to Danzig and ended further scoring. Portland went out in one-two-three order.

There was nothing doing on either side in the fifth, and in the sixth Los Angeles started the fireworks again and before it could be stopped they annexed two more runs. Dillon fouled out to Danzig, Brashear struck out for the third time, and Smith got a scratch single, stole second and scored when Rube Ellis poked one on the nose for three bags that went to left center field. The Rube scored on Delmas' hit. Delmas went to second on Hogan's hit to right and they both died on bases when Gray was out, Casey to Danzig.

Angels Annex Another.

Portland went out in one-two-three order again and Los Angeles gained another one in the seventh. Oakes was hit in the ribs, went to second on Wheeler's out, Cooney to Danzig, and scored on Dillon's hit. Brashear flew out to Casey, Smith was out, Cooney to Danzig. Raftery, first man up for Portland, flew out to Brashear, Danzig got a scratch hit along the third-base line and took second when Gray fumbled Bassey's grounder. Johnson struck out and McCredie ended the inning by grounding out, Gray to Dillon. Ellis was out, Casey to Danzig; Delmas whiffed at three and was out and Hogan went out, Casey to Danzig.

Cooney went out, Gray to Dillon; Whalen struck out; Casey waited patiently for four balls and walked. Ryan hit an easy one to Gray, who tossed him out at first, which made the last for Portland in that inning. Los Angeles went out in short order, and with two out on Portland's side Bassey tore off a beautiful hit to right that looked as though one of the famous batting rallies was about to begin, but the fans were disappointed when Jud Smith captured Johnson's bounder and tossed Bassey out at second. SALEM DEFEATS THE JACKIES

High School Lads Take Ball Game by Score of 4 to 1.

SALEM, Or., June 4.—(Special.)—Salem High School added one more to its long list of victories today by defeating the baseball team from the cruiser Charleston, now at Portland. The game was witnessed by a crowd of 2000 people, who cheered lustily when the boys in blue came on the field. Chemawa band joined in the greeting by playing National airs, and a crowd of High School boys demonstrated their kindly feeling by surreptitiously taking a brass cannon from the State House grounds and firing several shots from it on the ball grounds.

The score by which Salem High won was 4 to 1. From the start, Salem led in the playing, putting out the first three jackies at the bat. In the third inning, an error at first permited Yeager to make that base when he should have been out, and then the seafighter stole second in a very skillful manner. Sacrifice hits by Sklate and Pasnow brought him home, the only score Charleston made.

In the fourth inning a difficult double play was executed when Shortstop Roberts, of Salem, gathered in a grounder batted by Willardt, sent it to Gabrielson, at first, who fired it back to third in time to put out Lenhoff. Salem would have scored in the last half of the fourth but for the fact that Perkins ran over third base without touching it. In the seventh, Roberts captured a second grounder, ran to second with it and then threw to first in time to complete a double play. Keene's pitching was up to his usual high standard.

Batteries—Charleston, Sklate and Yeager; Salem, Keene and Jones. Umpire—Lawrence.
