CLOSE WILL BE VERY INFORMAL

Second Annual Rose Festival Will Come to Successful End Tonight.

FRATERNAL MEN'S PARADE

Woodmen to Be Largely Represented—Various Oregon Cities Will Be in Line—Masqueraders to Hold Sway on Morrison Street.

With the coming of nightfall tonight Portland's second annual Rose Festival will pass into the realm of cherished memories. There will be a burst of multi-colored fireworks, a firing of salutes, a blowing of sirens and the week of merriment will be at an end.

It has been successful beyond the planning. Not a single feature of the week's lavish programme but has fulfilled the expectations of the thousands of loyal worshippers at the Rose shrine. With the successful termination of the programme and the attendant enthusiastic support given throughout by the public, the festival of 1908 will pave the way for greater Rose Festivals to come. Rose Festival week is on the calendar to stay and it will be a part of Portland's yearly celebrations quite as religiously as Memorial day or Independence day.

Today's programme is less formal than that of the preceding days. The Woodmen's feature parade this afternoon and the pyrotechnics and street carnival tonight afford a variety which is bound to draw heavily, for there has been no falling away of interest.

Fraternal Floats in Parade.

The Woodmen's parade promises to take a place with the important processions of the week. That a fraternal organization has arranged to have 6000 Woodmen in line and many novel features that will appeal to the entire public.

The only series of floats not of a distinctive fraternal nature will be several from the cities of Oregon. Hood River, St. John, The Dalles, Medford, Klamath Falls, Dallas and McMinnville will be represented in this division. Two of the largest camps, Multnomah No. 107 and Multnomah No. 77, will detail their uniformed ranks to give exhibition drills on Sixth street at night.

Grand Marshal A. L. Barbur has announced the formation of the five divisions of the column as follows:

Division 1—A. L. Barbur, commanding; aides, C. C. Bradley, Frank Caldwell, James Wagoner and H. L. Day. It will consist of all visiting camps and floats, and will form on Twelfth street, south of Morrison.

Division 2—Frank Motter, commanding; aides, Dr. H. J. Harris, Herman Schade. Consists of the uniform rank, Woodmen of the World, and will form on Twelfth street, north of Morrison.

Division 3—Ben F. Green, commanding; aides, H. A. Frederics, George W. Tabler and E. H. Bofinger. It will consist of all West Side camps, and will form on Eleventh street, north and south of Morrison.

Division 4—L. S. Dowie, commanding; aides, M. A. McEachern and M. T. Macey. It will consist of all East Side camps and will form on Tenth, north and south of Morrison street.

Division 5—William Reidt, commanding. Decorated automobiles, form south on Tenth street.

Line of March of Column.

The column will move from Tenth and Morrison streets promptly at 2 P. M., arrangements having been made to have every part of the line in place 15 minutes before the time to march. It is assured that there will be no delay.

The line of march is comparatively short. It is as follows: East on Morrison to Sixth street, north on Sixth to Oak, countermarching on Sixth from Oak to Morrison, east on Morrison to Third, north on Third to Washington, west on Washington to Eleventh and disband.

The programme of the street festivities tonight will be purely informal. Masqueraders are to have possession of Morrison street from Seventh to Tenth. There will be a lively display of fireworks, marking the end of the reign of Rex Oregonus. Woodmen will take part in the merry making, as will hundreds of those who took part in the East Side street carnival of Thursday night.

SOME WINNERS NOT LOCATED

Number System Causes Delay in the Awarding of Parade Prizes.

Delay is being encountered in distributing the list of trophies and awards for the decorated horse and vehicle parade of Thursday forenoon. Owing to an oversight, no record was kept of the entries and the numbers assigned, so that awards were made entirely by numbers, and lucky competitors were left to read of their success.

Interest has been aroused as to the identity of the winner of the $200 trap donated by Studebaker Bros. as a special prize for the best horse and buggy. The winning vehicle was marked A-60, but the owner has not been heard from. The winners who have been heard from are:

Eugene Attests to Good Time.

EUGENE, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Eugene people who are returning from the Portland Rose Festival are enthusiastic in their praise of the festival and the people of the city of Portland. They are unanimous in stating that the festival could hardly have been a greater success, and the splendid hospitality of the people of Portland is attested by all the visitors from here.

OUTSIDE DOGS GROW JEALOUS

Canine Riot Imminent in Dogcart Part of East Side Parade.

Winners of prizes in the East Side parade, announced by numbers, applied for their awards yesterday to Secretary W. M. Jackson, of the East Side Business Men's Club. They are as follows: Dog cart prize of $10, C. Kenneth Souesbe, of Mount Tabor; pony cart, $10 prize, Frederick Kern, of Portland; $5 for best decorated bicycle, Madaline Miller; second prize of $5 for decorated bicycle, Otto Voelker. The prize winners for maskers were awarded as follows: Most comical character, N. Tennant; most comical female character, Frances Heacock; best dressed male, Frank Willette; best sustained character, L. M. Wilbur; best dressed female, Miss E. C. Hogenson; most comical character, D. V. Heacock.

A canine riot in the dog-cart display was narrowly averted owing to the jealousy displayed by outside dogs, which wanted opportunity to pitch on the dogs in the parade. Dog fights were narrowly prevented several times.

WONDER if Stanley Ketchel's victory over Billy Papke will have a tendency to cause Bob Fitzsimmons to change his mind. Fitz still has a right to think he could beat Ketchel in four rounds, but he will have to do his thinking alone.

Here's a conversation that took place in the grandstand the other day: First Woman—"Is this the fastest baseball league in the country?" Second Woman—"No. There are the American and National Leagues, the Western League, the Northwestern League, and then this league." What do you know about this one?

Owners and trainers who have been racing their stables at Emeryville are beginning to ship their strings to Seattle and Butte. The Seattle meeting opens June 20, and at Butte June 27.

The San Francisco Call says: All the Seals say that they had a grand time in Portland and like to talk about how well they were treated. According to the boys, the crowds were larger and more enthusiastic than ever. Naturally they think even more of the prowess of the Beaver ball team. No wonder, from the beating they took.

Kid Eberfield, the scrappy New York American second baseman, got the beating of his life the other day. He struck Catcher Blair while they were seated at a hotel. Clark Griffith saw the blow delivered and stepped up to Blair and said that he did right not to strike back, but gave Blair permission to fight it out with Eberfeld. Blair took Eberfeld into an alley and give him an awful lacing.

It is certainly tough luck. Just about the time when Portland had a fingernail hold on the top of the percentage column every man on McCredie's pitching staff has gone wrong. The miserable weather is to blame.

OREGON NINE LOSES TO O. A. C.

Farmers Win Championship Contest on Home Field by 16-to-2 Score.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—Without playing her inning in the ninth, O. A. C. administered a third defeat to the University of Oregon baseball team here this afternoon by a score of 16 to 2. The game involved the championship, which Eugene loses. Hurd was batted out of the box in the sixth, after six runs for O. A. C., and was succeeded by Clifford, who was pounded for four in seventh and three in the eighth. Among the latter was a home run for Swan. Three runs in the third raised O. A. C.'s scoring to 16. Eugene got one in the first and one in the fourth. Batteries—O. A. C., Cooper and Rooper; University, Hurd, Clifford and Taylor.

KELLY WILL NOT COMPETE

Sprained Tendon Keeps Oregon Sprinter Out at Philadelphia.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Dan J. Kelly, who is credited with having run 100 yards in 9⅘ seconds at Spokane, Wash., two years ago, and who was expected to show record form in the try-outs at Philadelphia tomorrow, will neither compete in any of the sprints nor contest in a running broad jump, so the report came from Philadelphia. Kelly has been for some time in the hands of the University of Pennsylvania trainer, but in practicing a day or two ago he is said to have sprained a tendon in his leg which will throw him out of the try-outs.

Kelly is now a member of the Irish-American Athletic Club of this city.

San Francisco.—A party of 25 bankers from New York, Boston, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and other Eastern cities has arrived in San Francisco.

ATHLETES READY FOR BIG EVENT

Pacific Northwest Amateur Athletic Meet Scheduled for Today.

FIVE STATES IN THE MEET

Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Montana to Try for Supremacy on Track at the Multnomah Field.

Multnomah field this afternoon will be the scene of the Pacific Northwest Amateur Athletic Association annual field and track meet, and as a result the eyes of the entire athletic contingent of the Pacific Coast are on this city, for the cream of the sprinting talent of five states will compete for the championship of 1908. There are more entries in this than in any other meet ever held west of the Rocky Mountains.

Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho and Montana are to be represented this afternoon, and of the five, three will actually have colors on the track. The Montana and Idaho sprinters will compete either for the Multnomah Club or for Seattle.

The fact that such speed marvels as Forrest Smithson, of Multnomah, Fred Lanagan, of Stanford; Huston, of the University of Oregon; Edmundson, of the University of Idaho; Malcolmson, of the University of Montana; Gish, of the Seattle Athletic Club, and Gerhart, of the Olympic Club, are to compete for the honors in the short sprints gives the meet an aspect of National prominence, and added interest is noticeable for the reason that new records may be established.

Malcolmson, the Montana whirlwind, is entered under the colors of the Seattle Athletic Club, and the Seattle contingent hopes to see either him or Captain Gish lower the colors of Smithson, Lanagan or any of the other speedy short distance men.

The day promises to be an ideal one for the occasion, and the many thousands of Rose Festival visitors are remaining over especially to witness the struggle for supremacy among the cream of the amateur athletic talent of the Pacific Coast.

Our visitors from San Francisco are especially interested because of the presence of their three star athletes, Lanagan, Gerhart and Glarner, and the possibility of Ralph Rose reaching the city in time for the meet. Rose has been entered, but the California track men who arrived yesterday have not heard from him.

The Seattle contingent arrived last night, and Billy Inglis, who accompanies them, is confident that Malcolmson, the Montana whirlwind, will be placed in the contest with Lanagan, Gerhart, Smithson and the other 10 second entries.

100-Yard Is a Puzzle.

While everyone is figuring on the 100-yard event to lie between Smithson, Lanagan and the Seattle men, there remains Oliver Huston, the crack sprinter of the University of Oregon, to be considered, for this clever athlete has won every event in the Northwest in which he has entered, and has equaled 10 seconds in five regular track meets. He is in the pink of condition at present and will undoubtedly make a hot pace for the cracks entered.

Gerhart, the phenomenal California sprinter, is 31 years of age, and still feels able to hold his own against the best of the younger generation. He has demonstrated his ability on numerous occasions this year, and on that account the Olympic Club decided to send him to Portland. Gerhart will make his best effort in the 220-yard dash, which he figures will be his best chance for victory, and will probably leave the 100-yard dash to Lanagan. However, as he is entered in both events, it is possible that he will make things lively for all concerned.

Forrest Smithson will compete in the 100-yard dash, the 120 and 220-yard hurdles. He is also entered in the 220-yard dash, but will probably not start in this event, as Multnomah will have Martin and Schroeder to depend upon. Trainer Jack King expresses the utmost confidence in the club's representatives who will compete this afternoon, and thinks that all the short sprints will be taken by wearers of the winged "M."

In the middle distance events Andy Glarner, of the Olympic Club, is the man the most of the Northwest athletes are anxious to beat, for the Californian holds several records for the 440 and 880-yard events. He possesses the Pacific Coast record for the 440-yard run, which is 0:48 1-5, while his mark in the 880 is 1:55 4-5. Davolt, Greenhaw, Smith and Peterson, of Multnomah, are entered against Glarner, as are Malcolmson and Gish, of Seattle. The Vancouver, B. C., contingent is also likely to figure in the distance events, as well as in the weights. The Canucks have a team of comparatively unknown athletes, but they are full of confidence and that is half the battle.

Rose in the Weights.

In the weight events Ralph Rose, if he competes, is generally figured to win, but there is an excellent possibility that McKinney, Wolff and Philbrick, of Multnomah; Gillis, of Vancouver; Bantz, of Seattle, or the big Californian's fellow clubman, Munn, may make things decidedly interesting for him.

Philbrick has won many of the Northwest events this year, and was decidedly anxious to participate in this meet, and with the consent of the other clubs he was allowed to compete for Multnomah because Whitman College found it inadvisable to send a team of its own. The same conditions governed the entering of Martin.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the academic and grammar school relay races, as well as in the seniors of that event. The youngsters are trained to the minute and hope to make records of which their older fellow athletes will be envious. In addition to the Portland public schools entered in the grammar school events, the academic race will be composed of entries from two Seattle high schools, the Tacoma high school, Eugene high school, and the Portland Academy. East and West Side High Schools, Hill Military Academy and Columbia University. Sixty school boys will compete in the grammar school event, while something like 30 youngsters will be entered in the academic event.

The field and track events will commence on Multnomah field promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and everything has been arranged to pull off the events as speedily as possible.

Irvington Tennis Tournament.

On account of the many counter attractions during the Rose Festival no effort has been made to schedule matches during the week, but the committee asks that the following matches be played off before Monday:

Bellinger vs. E. L. Mesereau, Ladd vs. Wickersham, Warenner vs. Harrigan, Cawston and Shivas vs. Miller and Warenner, Winner of Ladd vs. Wickersham match vs. Wilder, winner of Warenner vs. Harrigan vs. L. M. Starr, winner of Cawston and Shives vs. Miller and Harrigan match vs. L. M. and C. D. Starr.

A regular schedule of games will be arranged for each day next week and the finals will be played Saturday, June 13.

EXPECTS TO WIN THE MEET

West Side High School Has a Strong Athletic Team.

The West Side High School expects to enter a strong team at the interscholastic meet next Saturday. Durt will, no doubt, get first in the 100 yards against McDaniell, of P. A. The 220 will go to Campbell, of Columbia, though Meiers and Crickmore will give him a good rub. It's a toss-up between Meiers and McDaniell, P. A., for the 440.

The low hurdles will go to Latourette. McGuire will no doubt repeat his performance of last Saturday at Corvallis, when he won first in the high hurdles. Latourette will also get a place.

McGuire's record of 5 feet, 6 inches, ought to give him the high jump. In the broad jump, Jack Hickson has made 19 feet, 9 inches, and ought to get first in that event.

Sutton will work hard in the half-mile as well as Jamieson in the mile. Jamieson will get a place in the pole vault. The first will go to Columbia.

For the relay the West Side High has a strong team, one which has already tied the interscholastic record. The entries are Crickman, Hickson, Meiers and Dart. Coach Boyd has his men in fine form. The contesting schools are Columbia, Hill Military Academy, Portland Academy, East High School and West High School.

Andrew Glarner, California's Middle-Distance Man and a Likely Selection for the All-American Team, Which Will Go to London the Latter Part of This Month.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE.

Seattle 1; Spokane 3.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—Killilay outpitched Young Gordon today and won a game from Seattle in the face of a steady drizzle during the fore part of the game that necessitated a delay of half an hour. The hit column shows in favor of the Seattle youngster, but he was in reality hit harder and with more effect by the Indians. Two of Seattle's hits were raw scratches. In addition, Gordon was very wild and his teammates had to keep working all the time to pull him out of trouble. The boy has speed and good curves, however, and looks like a comer.

Manager Dugdale, of the Seattle team, was put off the grounds by Umpire Carruthers for complaining from the bench against a decision calling Frisk out at second base on a close play. Mackin dropped the ball, but Carruthers ruled Frisk had used his hands in jerking the ball away from Mackin and called him out. Dugdale stuck to the bench and it was necessary to call a policeman to put him out. Score:

Spokane	2	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	*—3	5	0

Aberdeen 5; Vancouver 4.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—With two down in the ninth today Vancouver tied the score, but Paddock, who was sent in to replace Hall, walked the first two Aberdeen men, and the next hit, filling the bases. Then Ross drove a fly to right and Moore beat the throw home, winning the game.

The Canucks scored twice in the first when Brinker walked one and followed with a bad throw; the next man sacrificed and Hyatt scored both runners with a two-bagger. Donovan beat a throw from the outfield in the fifth, adding another and two hits and a couple of errors tied the score in the ninth. Warren Hall apparently had nothing but a slow ball, but Aberdeen couldn't hit him except in the third, when four singles and an error netted four runs. The score:

Aberdeen	5	9	3
Vancouver	4	8	4

Batteries — Brinker and Spencer; Hall, Paddock and Arbogast.

INLAND EMPIRE LEAGUE.

Baker City 8; Walla Walla 5.

BAKER CITY, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—The second game between Baker's Nuggets and Walla Walla's team resulted in a victory for Baker by a score of 8 to 5. Wilson, of Baker, knocked a two-bagger at a critical time when needed. Ward, of Baker, pulled down a difficult foul fly amid applause, and Killday, of Walla Walla, made a picturesque one-hand catch in the seventh. Batteries—Baker, Campbell and Ward; Walla Walla, Huffman and Wells.

BY WILL G. MAC RAE.

Los Angeles gave us another shove backwards yesterday on the Vaughn-street play grounds and what makes the loss of the game spoil our disposition is the fact that we were trimmed by a Mr. Hosp, whom we have beaten on several occasions. Without taking any credit from Mr. Hosp for the 4 to 2 defeat he hung on us, it won't hurt him any to say he was a lucky kid. Several times during the matinee Portland had a chance to win, for they kept peppering singles off of the Loo Loo slabster. Bobby Groom, who served us, poked out two of them and but for a spectacular running catch by Oakes in the eighth canto, Bobby would have won his own game.

While we are fretting about the loss of this game and over the illness that has visited Bud Pernoll, Jesse Garrett, Babe Danzig and Chief Pinnance, let's remember that this afternoon Bob Fitzsimmons, once heavy-weight champion of the world, will umpire the game. Red Fitz has been engaged to perform for one matinee and the management wishes it understood that the old fellow will be on hand to umpire the game and not to tell how he can whip Ketchel in four rounds, or to spoil the features of Doc Anderson or any other fan who disputes his decisions.

Had Fitz been out to the game yesterday, a lot of the kicking that was stirred into the proceedings would not have been on tap. Kitty Brashear wouldn't have been banished from the game, Jud Smith wouldn't have bounced the ball around and Happy Hogan wouldn't have used his noise consumer.

Fifth Canto the Bad One.

Anyway, Captain Dillon's crew beat us and it took it only one inning to perform the feat. In the fifth, Bobby Groom entertained Miss Hoodoo. Smith lined a safe drive over second and Ellis sneaked one to right. In an attempt to get rid of Delmas, Groom shot one over that hit Bert on the funny bone. Delmas gave a life-like demonstration of a man who was in agony and we guess he was, for it was not a slow one he stopped with his left soup-bone. This filled the way stations. Groom took a tuck in his belt and wiffed both Hogan and Hosp. He was in a fair way to get rid of Oakes, when the latter drove one safe past Ryan at third. This scored Smith. Wheeler came up and dropped a Texas leaguer back of second, scoring Ellis and Delmas. Cooney took care of Dillon and the trouble subsided. Tough luck, Bob!

A single by Easterly, who had taken Brashear's place after he was shooed from the game, in the ninth, and a switch in base runners gave the visitors their fourth run. After Easterly had reached second because Ellis walked, Dillon sent Nagle into the game and yanked Easterly out. Nagle scored for Easterly on Delmas' out from Ryan to Johnson. It was a daring and successful bit of base-running.

Home Team Scores in Sixth.

Portland's first chance to score came in the sixth. Raftery singled and was forced at second by McCredie and Bassey forced McCredie at second. Johnson, who played first because Danzig was indisposed, hit to right and Bassey took third. Ote scored when Smith booted Cooney's drive. Madden couldn't get the ball out of the lot.

In the eighth chapter Bassey again made the circuit. McCredie walked and again died at second to safe Bassey. Bassey very promptly stole second and Johnson wiffed. Cooney hit to right and Hogan made a bum peg to second to catch Cooney stealing. Bassey came home and Cooney took third because Jud Smith foozled his approach. Hosp was warned to keep 'em away from Madden and he was passed along to get Groom. Bobby came within an ace of breaking up the game, for his long drive to center was grabbed by Oakes by a whisker. The score:

SEND CREW TO POUGHKEEPSIE

Washington Oar Team Believes It Can Compete With Easterners.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 5.—(Special.)—The University of Washington rowing crew will be sent to the big intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie, according to a decision reached by the students this morning. It will cost about $2500 for the trip, and the students have now $2000 in sight and anticipate no difficulty in raising the rest of the money.

There was considerable talk of sending last year's crew which beat Stanford to the Poughkeepsie regatta, but the scheme fell through. The students believe that the time made last year and again this year against California warrants the assumption that the Washingtonians are at least in a class with the Eastern crews. The Eastern time is generally a little faster, but the Poughkeepsie races are rowed down stream on a river, while Washington rows in still water. The regatta is on June 27.

WOODBURN DEFEATS SALEM

Bowen Pitches Shut-out Ball, but Visitors Get in Two Runs.

WOODBURN, Or., June 5.—(Special.)—The largest crowd ever assembled on the Woodburn grounds saw the Woodburn team defeat Salem 3 to 2 this afternoon in an exhibition game during the big M. W. A. picnic. Bowen, for Woodburn, pitched shutout ball, but his support was ragged and both of Salem's runs were due to the fact. Pitcher Meyers, for Salem, was wobbly all through the game and came near blowing up several times.

Next Sunday Woodburn will meet Oregon City in a double header match. Today's game by innings:

									R.	H.	E.
Salem	0	0	1	0	0	1	0	0	—2	4	2
Woodburn	0	0	1	2	0	0	0	0	—3	7	4

Struck out by Meyers, 3; Bowen 7. Base on balls—Off Meyers 3. Left on bases—Woodburn 8, Salem 4. Batteries—Salem, Meyers and Heyser; Woodburn, Bowen and White. Time, 1 hour 37 minutes. Umpire—Charles Giles.

New York.—Ickelheimer & Company Friday engaged $500,000 gold for export to Germany. This makes the total engagements for export on the present movement $29,150,000.

INDEPENDENCE PARTY

The Independence party is being organized and is growing in every state of the Nation.

It is the party of the people, not the politicians.

The politicians represent themselves all the time, and the people some of the time—when expedient.

The Independence party seeks to give all the people representation in government all the time.

That is what the founders of the Nation intended.

That is what the people are not getting through the old parties.

The old parties have fostered instead of destroying the evils that have grown up in our Government.

The words "Republicanism" and "Democracy" symbolize only the vehicles for getting office—and then turning the offices created by the people against the interests of the people.

The word "Democrat" defines no doctrine. The word "Republican" expresses no principle.

Isn't it about time for a National party that will represent you, all of you, all the time?

The declaration of principles of the Independence party has been characterized as the embodiment of the best political thought of the decade.

Some of the things the Independence party advocates and that the people want have been promised by the old parties—before election—and forgotten—after election. Join the National movement that will follow promise by performance.

Hugh J. McIsaac, Pacific Coast Organizer of the Independence party, is at the Portland Hotel and will be pleased to have you call or write.
